 Fort Simcoe W.T. July 16th 1880
 General O.O. Howard.

Dear Sir,

Excuse the liberty I take in sending you a copy of Sarah Wamemucca's letter lately recd, that you may judge of her designs & spirit. Before she went to Washington for a time she seemed to be striving to live a new life, & I had hoped that she would continue, and with the help & surroundings here, would overcome & would be a good Christian woman. But since she came back it has been evil, only evil, and that continually. I forbear going into particulars of her designs here, as I see she intends to go to Vancouver and be in your employ. If you can convert a sinner from the error of her way, and save a soul from death, you will hide a multitude of sins. Yours truly James M. Wilson
 W.D. Ind agent

I pray nothing to keep her still, be assured J.M.W.

Mr. Wilbur Sir,

I have been here waiting for that letter which you promised to send them to your friend it has not come yet. If you will be so kind as to send it down to Vancouver right away as I am going down there to act as Interpreter there - that is if they pay me well for it. If not I will go to Washington - I will spare no agent. I know what they do to my people. I have seen great many persons who you think are your best friends says they know why you want to keep my people there. You know you are receiving money for the goods which is sent there for my people. If the agents want me to keep still they must pay me

Gen O. O. Howard Sir
Vancouver Barrack } The Spokane Indians W. T. } have pretty much all returned from the camas grounds. they are now camped along the little Spokane. but the main camp is down in the forks of the two Rivers the Big & little Spokane. there are about 70 at this place.
I visited them at their homes, and I find they are now busily Baking & drying their Cam--mas. I was met very friendly by all of them.
If we are true I believe God will help us to get along with the Indians without having any trouble with them. I leave tomorrow for Lott's Camp & the lower Spokane. after which I will return to head quarters, which will be the fore part of august. I remain very Respectfully your humble Servant Ned Chamberlain

My dear Sir:

In view of the facts which were the motive to my last conversation with you, I have a strong desire that you should know more of me than can be acquired in the chance meetings you may have with me. For this purpose I have directed a book to be sent to you from San Francisco, which please read attentively at your leisure.

The book will explain itself, and perhaps will explain me as nothing else can do. When I meet you, I will have a few words to say as to my present marriage. This sentence is enigmatical now - but will not be when you have perused the book in question.

Your gallant record as a soldier, and your great worth as a Christian gentleman give me the desire to be known by you, and perhaps to be better appreciated.

I am,

My dear General,

Yours faithfully

Robt. C. Rogers

Dear Sir

Please

Forgive me for once again annoying you - after you left me this morning. Capt Shuck informed me - almost in a moment that he could do nothing in the matter - Genl I would not ask you if I had any way to see myself out - it is humiliating for me to be placed in the position let alone being compelled to ask. the act that Congress passed allowing all officers that were wounded before 1863. and that year inclusive allows me according to my rank at that time a pension of $240 - two hundred forty dollars per year - now I have not asked the government for this - for when I entered the service it was from pure Patriotism not gain.

Well - to the point all I ask Genl. is this would you kindly strain a point stranger as I am - and loan me $10 - ten dollars - I give you my word of Honor as a man I will Return it to you together with your kindness for my passage and believe me you will not regret having done me this little

Service - Captain Jackson to live we will be with the men

Dear Sir

My dear Carl,

Semper paratus is the motto of all prisoners in relation to the Sunday School. My orders are strict on this subject. They seem to take pleasure in it. Sladen heard the class in your absence.

I found the afflicted ones in bed last night - but as good news never comes at an unreasonable hour but like the shadow of the great rock in a weary land is always present I communicated with them through the "door ajar".

Your kindness to these people has lifted a burden from my heart. I slept last night well in the pleasant thought that the day
