Dear Sir:

We have given careful consideration to the "Memoir of Gasparin" kindly submitted to us. It contains good material, and the life of such a man cannot but have in itself a special interest and value.

We are, however, somewhat disappointed as to the manner in which the ^{narrative} ~~narrative~~ has been presented.

To speak frankly, it does not impress us as very well written, and we think there is in it a certain want of proportion, too much space being given to details of ~~importance~~ not now of importance as compared with that reserved for matters of greater moment.

The translation appears to be in the main successful, although the translator has not always succeeded in escaping a too close following of French terms and idioms, and we note a few infelicities which a revision would probably remove.

We should suggest, for instance retaining (in italics) the original word "mobiles", rather than to translate it by "movables", which does not convey the right impression.

The preface is gracefully written and is more effective in its style than the translation, which shows that the only deficiency with the latter is an occasional stiffness, caused by too great literalness.

As we before wrote, we are not very hopeful of being able to obtain from the general public any considerable sale for the book, but it is possible that ~~through~~ the "Christian Associations" and other similar channels, a special interest could be secured for it.

We should be willing to undertake the publication on the arrangement suggested in our letter of Feb'y. 1880, namely.

The cost of the stereotype plates, and of the frontispiece, if one is made, to be borne by the translator; the cost of the printing binding advertising, editors copies of the first and subsequent editions to be met by the publishers; the translator to receive 20% of the retail price of the copies sold.

We enclose revised estimate showing cost of the stereotypes and frontispieces.

Yours Respectfully

My dear General

I cannot tell you how glad our household is, as well as I am personally to welcome you back East again.

And not only us; but sons and sons have rejoiced with us, that you are placed in such a grand place for influence of the Master - It did seem too good to believe, when it was first rumored that you were coming and now, we hardly realize you are so near us - In another thing I too rejoice that you are in our N. Y. State. We feel that our Y. M. C. A. Cause in this State is stronger for your coming - We were exceedingly anxious to have you at our State Convention at Schenectady - but our total was no one to urge it

As your recent arrival at your Post would prevent. But we shall expect you and hope to have you often in our various efforts in the State - I mail you a paper today, giving a report of our State for the year past so you can see what we are doing.

As an Ass'n was organized last year among the Cadets, it will be my duty to visit the Ass'n during the year and shall promise myself a treat in seeing you - I would be glad to learn from the Ass'n when it will be most desirable for me to visit them -

We are looking to you as an instrument to give West Point a better name than it has in the minds of some at least - and the eyes of the country are upon you - So we shall pray that the dear Master will greatly aid and bless you - guiding in every step.

With kindest regards to Mrs. Howard of the many anxious to whom any change of Government brings only fear for their

- and I remembered I had offered a letter to you and most reliable and also sympathetic - to the young friend with whom I am just now staying before returning to Arizona.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick (^{now} wife to one of the clerks at West Point) was for some time at my house. On one of these occasions, and I respect and admire her knowledge her cheerful courage and patience & the many qualities that go to make up a real nurse. Now she has come down from West Point to take charge of a troublesome case because we knew no other person who would do well must all require such a woman to be troubled by doubts if they can be removed.

and though she hardly thinks it likely that her husband would be disturbed as his record answers for him, yet the doubt comes in where there is a change in command.

given your consideration.

Remembering your long work of protection I offered Mrs. Fitzpatrick a note to you which should make her husband and herself known to you from me, as well as by his official record. And the last I know I can leave

My Dear Genl

I have made application through Mr Geo. E. Simon of Washington D C for a Pension, which without the necessary proof I cannot obtain. consequently the circumstances attending my case will depend on your memory of a certain misfortune that befel me while acting as your Orduly on the day the enemy made their assaults on your line or that part of it held by Genl Whitakers Brigade of the 3^d Div 4th Corps at Lost Mountain Georgia, some time in June 1864. I can hardly expect you to have the slightest recollection of so trifling affair at that time, but sometimes when an incident is related it comes back fresh to ones memory although it may not be so with you in this case.
My case is as follows as near as I can recollect over shortly after ~~after~~ Genl Whitaker succeeded in holding his line of works I accompanied you along the line through a woods on low swampy land (and I often wondered how you could ride so fast through the brush with only one arm to keep the brush out of your face) when you came to a wash out or deep narrow gully here you hopped your horse over while mine not being quite so supple fell in and rolled on me my revolver becoming turned in such a position that I struck on it endways causing some internal injury that has troubled me ever since.

I remember when the occurrence happened you stopped and turned asking. Orderly are you injured I replied not much and got out of the ditch mounted and followed you to Genl Whitakers front. at the same time I was injured but not as I thought serious. from this injury I have not seen what you would call a well day since. The rupture at the right of the pit of my stomach shows for its self. at the time this happened no other person was with us your staff I think was on duty elsewhere. I ^{remember} you you rode along untill you came where Genl Whitakers dead was laid along in rows for burial just inside the line of works. and I returned to head quarters with you I remained on your escort untill you succeeded to Genl M^cPhersons command after which I staid with Genl Stanton untill the close of the war when I came home.

Now Dear Genl if you can bring this to your memory and will assist me in any way you can conscientiously you will confer a favor on a worthy soldier.

Army Officers and conferring the degrees upon them; and while they are coming into the Order and being assigned to your Division, it will be necessary in the first place to designate the first 21 Officers of your Division.

I expect to confer the degrees here upon another Chaplain of the Army. Rev. Mr. Raynor, stationed at Angel Island; but prefer you would select your own.

I want to see the government of this Order chiefly in the hands of religious men and of the Cromwellian stamp.

The Order is flourishing all around and the fires have been already lighted upon new altars set up in Kansas, and it will soon spread over the great prairies of the West.

What disposition do you think should be made of non-commissioned officers and enlisted men of the Army who may be admitted into the Order? Your Division is supposed to be composed of Army Officers, and the question of fraternal relationship should not complicate that of the status fixed by the Army Regulations between the Commissioned Officer and those under his command.

There is a case in point at Vancouver; but to avoid this delicate question I have assigned the soldier to Columbia Commandery No. 4 at Vancouver, now in process of organization at that place. Chiefly composed of civilians.
