1st, What education is necessary to enter West Point Military Academy? Please answer this fully.

2^d When will there be a vacancy from the Fourth Congressional district of Georgia?

I wrote to the member of Congress from this district asking for this information, but his reply conveyed a very indefinite idea of what I wanted to know. This is my apology for troubling you on the subject.

I am 19 years old; of good physical development; but my educational advantages have been very limited. In fact, the only education that I have received is what I have learned

Dear General

I have met you sometimes at Washington & elsewhere, when I was devoting my time mainly to the purification of our Railway structure, a work which is never forgotten or neglected and has been largely blessed. While still keeping that in hand, I have for some years been working in behalf of the Sabbath.

I have just mailed to you some documents, and desire to see you, regarding measures now in progress to secure such orders from the President (or otherwise) as are needed for the better protection of the Sabbath, and Sabbath worship, in the army and navy.

I am spending a little time at Saugatoga for health, rest, & work, and will run down to West Point if you are to be at home and accessible any time within a week. If not then, I hope to meet you later.

Please reply —

Dear Friend:

As you are interested in Christian work, especially association work among young men, I send you by this mail a sample copy of The Watchman, the only national paper published in this country devoted especially to Christian work among young men.

I ask you to critically examine the specimen copy sent you, and if you see the way clear, shall be pleased to receive an order from you for a copy, that you may keep yourself posted in regard to what is being done in behalf of the young men of this and other lands.

You may possibly also wish to send it to some young men of your acquaintance it being only one dollar a year, or I will gladly send specimen copies to any names you may send me.

Trusting I may have a favorable response from you, I remain, TESTIMONIALS.

D. L. MOODY says: "You ought to have a circulation of 25,000 copies for that paper. From the few numbers you have sent me, I have been much interested in it, especially the Bible Readings, which alone are worth the price of the paper."

Mr. R. C. MORSE, General Secretary of the International Committee, says: "THE WATCHMAN, more than any other paper published, represents the work of the Young Men's Christian Association, Local, State and international. It gives to those active in the Association suggestions which will greatly aid them in the various departments of their work; and to those desiring to study their Bibles, and to use this study for the good of others, valuable hints about and examples of Bible readings. Friends of the Associations who are anxious to promote their best welfare should feel it to be their duty to subscribe, and get subscribers for this paper."

JOHN V. FARWELL, of Chicago, writes: "I trust that you will have abundant patronage for THE WATCHMAN to warrant you in making it in the future, as you have in the past, a first class paper in representing the work of the Y. M. C. Associations in our country. I deem it a matter of great importance to the Church of Christ that this work should be placed before the Christian public."

GEO. A. HALL writes: "I am sure you will find no one thing, next to Bible study, so valuable, to fit you for Association work, as this paper. Its Bible Readings, Mr. Moody's sermons, and its discussions of various methods of work in connection with our Associations, makes it almost a necessity."

THE WATCHMAN.

The only Young Men's Christian Association paper. Recommended by the International Convention and twenty-seven State Conventions as "an organ of communication invaluable to the associations."

SEVENTH YEAR OF PUBLICATION.

The improvements that have been made in the paper during the past year have very largely increased its circulation, so that it is larger now than ever before. Besides, we are adding nearly

300 NEW NAMES

Monthly, and confidently believe the circulation will continue to very largely increase during the next few months. We shall continue to publish a

SERMON,

By D. L. Moody, in each issue, which alone is worth the price of the paper. Ample space will also be given to recording the movements of the leading

EVANGELISTS,

Such as Moody, Whittle and others. Rev. E. T. Bromfield, of New York City, late editor of the Church and People, will write the exposition on the

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS,

Which we believe will be equal to any published. We are now printing a series of articles, being

ADDRESSES TO YOUNG MEN

In Christian work. They will be written by some of the leading ministers and laymen throughout the country. The

BIBLE READINGS

That have been such a feature of the paper in the past will be continued and improved with contributions from leading bible students throughout the country. Mr. D. L. Moody says the Bible readings alone are worth the price of the paper.

SONG SERVICES.

One will appear in each issue, combining scripture truth and gospel songs.

PRACTICAL WORK.

Articles on all phases of Christian work among young men will appear; such as Bible readings, how to prepare and conduct them; also Gospel Meetings, Bible Classes, Song Services, Open Air and Cottage Meetings, Praise, Promise and Inquiry Meetings, Social Receptions, Lectures, Lyceums, Gymnasiums, Employment Bureaus, Library and Reading Rooms.

It is our aim to make it such an important helper to every Christian worker that it cannot well be dispensed with. It is the only International Medium of Communication between the Young Men's Christian Associations of this country and Canada, and contains, as far as possible, a complete summary of Association news, not only throughout this country, but the whole world. If you are not already a subscriber we should be pleased to have you fill out the blank on the opposite page and enclose one dollar in it. If you are already a subscriber, will you not hand this to some friend whom you think should be a subscriber?

My dear friend

I am in receipt of yours of yesterday, I am surprised that you did not receive a Newspaper with the notice of your book, I had requested that a copy of the Bulletin be sent you and felt confident that it had been sent,

This morning as soon as I had received your letter, went to the Bulletin office, saw Mr. Clark the Editor who wrote the notice, showed him your letter, he was much annoyed to know that you had not been informed about it, he requested me to apologize for him and to assure you of his esteem, he read your book with much interest. Say it is well written and he enjoyed it much. He gave me one of the Bulletin which I send to you, you can judge from the mention he gives to you, of the feelings of the Editor of the

The Evening Bulletin.

After leaving the Bulletin office, I went to the Ledger and as I entered met Mr Childs, he caught my hand very cordially, spoke of the dedication of your book to me as being quite an honor and of the sentiment as very beautiful, he said, I will buy two of the books and will have a notice made of the contents, as this was voluntary and spoken with considerable earnestness. He no doubt will do as he said,

By a notice from the War department, Coan is appointed to Battery No. 2d Artillery; he is now in Boston, will be here on Saturday and at West Point on the 24th of July when Fremont and he will remain until September and then have his three months furlough. I have great love for the boy and trust that no harm may ever befall him. We are all in good health but suffer a little from the hot weather of the two last days.

We all send our loves,

Affectionately yours,

My dear Gen,

You will, I know be surprised to receive this letter, from a very old friend.
I have not forgotten our pleasant friendship of long ago, nor the kindness, which prompted you to offer it.

Neither has it escaped your little gift, with the accompanying "autograph card", to remind me of it; altho' both have been presented through many years - I often think of those pleasant days at "Actonville" - What happy young people we were then Until within, the last few years, the world has dealt kindly with me.

Then was no occasion to claim the assistance, you kindly offered, should I "ever need a friend" - But now - I am going to ask a favor of you.

My husband's death, three years ago, left me in much reduced circumstances. He was with serious lives, previous to that event, from which he had not recovered - As, often happens, my troubles all came at once - Without an income & with five children (four boys & one little girl), you can realize my struggles during those years - I was compul-sed to put my oldest boys to work, at the sacrifice of education, which was a great trial - They have done man-fully, & taken my good care of us - My oldest son, is now twenty one, & will soon be able to assume the entire care of the family - My second son, is very ambitious for an education - He wishes to enter West Point - I applied to Mr Stephens, but then one was ahead of him - George Lings received the appointment, & has entered - can say few, for keeping up his studies, but he is bright, & resolute -

You will excuse me for tiring you, with this lengthy epistle. but I have felt obliged to enter somewhat, into particulars.

I feel confident of your sympathy, and trust it will be in your power to assist me -

I should like to be kindly remembered to your wife, altho', I had not the pleasure of meeting her. I suppose you too, have grown up children - It seems hard to realize, that we are growing old ourselves - an undoubted, though not an agreeable fact - But we live on, our youth, in our children -

Hoping to hear from you very soon,

Dear Sir

I trust you will not think me presuming in addressing you in the interest of young Gilchrist of my town and state. By letter from him, he informs me that he unfortunately did not pass as good an examination as his standing in class seemed to warrant, and that but for your kindly sympathy with two others he would have been dismissed.

In attempting to enlist your future aid and sympathy for the young gentleman it may not be inappropriate to inform you who I am, as well as Gilchrist's home standing, and how his appointment was obtained. I am at present the State Senator from this, the Sixth Senatorial district. When Gilchrist was an applicant for the appointment, there were many others. I was solicited to use my influence. In conversation with Col Davidson our Congress man on the subject, we both thought it best

W. Davidson

Quincy, Fla

in view of the fact that no native born Floridian has of late been able to stand the test, to find the one best qualified mentally and physically. For this purpose Col Davidson appointed an examining board of practical teachers from different sections of the district. Before this board Glchrist with the others appeared and the appointment was awarded to him.

To this decision there was no objection heard from any quarter. All who knew the young man were convinced that the ~~selection~~ selection was a good one, none doubted his capacity and all thought that his home training, his high social position, his purity of character and noble impulses with a West Point education and association would make of him an officer and gentleman of whom his State would feel proud and that he would certainly do his part in keeping up the high toned character of the army officer for which the West Point graduate has always been so conspicuous.

As I feel great interest in the young man as well as some State pride in desiring a decent native born representative in the army, allow me to thank you for the leniency you have shown in overlooking his past carelessness and to assure you that he feels very grateful for it.

Very Respectfully
