My dear General:

We are now organized & already deep in business. General Grant is one of us, & most heartily favors the proposal to "push things." His autographic approval of the enclosed demands lies before me. They were filed in the Department of State yesterday & the originals will be served in a day or two by Ex-Sec. Boutwell who is our attorney in Washington. ~~But~~ Until you see it announced that the originals have been served I must beg you to keep these copies locked up.

I never got quite ready to redeem my pledge of $5.000 to the University. I now redeem it to you personally & add $5.000 to it for Mrs. Howard. Accept the whole with assurances of my unchangeable regard. L.H.S.

When at West Point I saw a copy of the proceedings of the West Point Alumni at their last annual meeting. It contains certain facts and statistics which would be of service to me and the Academy during the approaching session of Congress, and if you can send me a copy I will be grateful.

I am rejoiced to know that my son is making fair progress, and thankful for your kind notice of him.

I trust you will not fail to call upon me whenever I can be of service to the Academy or to you personally. With kindest regards and best wishes for your success I am

My dear Sir:

Your letter of the 10th inst., inclosing a communication to the Editor of the Times was received yesterday. Acting on your suggestion I called at the War Dept., and after talking with Genl. Knickerbocker, who is acting in the absence of Genl. Drum, forwarded your communication to the Editor in chief of the Times. In doing this I gave the Editor my estimate, based on personal observation and inquiry, of your peculiar fitness for the office you now hold; explained to him the delicate relations sustained by the Superintendent to the Cadets, and informed him of the character and value of certain reforms you have already made, ^{in the} ~~and~~ general administration of your office, and of the faithful interest you manifest in the mental progress and moral welfare of the Cadets.

I felt that it was but just to you that I should improve this opportunity to acquaint the Editor of The Times (Mr John Hoard) with these facts. Having a personal interest in the success and welfare of the Academy, I felt also that in thus acting I was but performing a duty to myself. I believe that the best interests of the Academy will be promoted so long as you are continued as Superintendent, and so write The Times, ~~then~~ question of rank is of little consequence, in my judgment, compared with moral worth, military reputation and adaptability for the important work of superintending the instruction and guarding the morals of the young men committed to the Military Academy.

I presume your letter will be published in The Times of tomorrow or Friday.

There is some talk here of the Rev. Dr. Mitchell being appointed Chaplain for the Academy.
You doubtless remember Dr. M. as the former pastor of the N.Y.

this city. He is an excellent man in every respect, and if you think favorably of him I have no doubt your recommendation

Washington, D.C. October 13-1881

Genl. O. O. Howard
West Point N. Y.
Dear Sir

An abstract of title just prepared by Mr. Robert M. Ward of this City for Michael Murphy, The purchaser, from The Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, of lot 25, in Cullman and Adams, Executors and Trustees subdivision of Square 309, which abstract is herewith enclosed for your information, shows a deed of trust to have been executed May 27th 1868, by Noah Robinson and wife, former owners, to yourself and Anthony Bowen as Trustees of The Lincoln Co-operative Building and Deposit Association, to secure to A. K. Brown, Treasurer of said association in the sum of $330.⁰⁰/₁₀₀. This deed of trust and the one following it on the abstract, executed by the same parties, October 22nd 1870, to Paggart and Vashow, Trustees to secure the same Building Association in the sum of $1200.⁰⁰/₁₀₀, were released by Messrs. Paggart and Vashow, February 16th 1872, see this release enclosed

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF THE Freedman's Savings and Trust Company Washington, D.C. 188

for your information. At the time of the execution of this release it was held by the Attorney of the F.S.T.C. to be sufficient to release both trusts, Messrs. Taggart and Vashon having been selected by said Building Association to succeed yourself and Mr. Brown as Trustees &c. Mr. Ward, however, disputes the correctness of this proposition and insists that a release from you is necessary to perfect the title to this property and as Mr. Murphy, the purchaser, also insists upon it, I have the honor to enclose such release for your execution. That the debt secured by the trust to you and Mr. Brown has been paid and satisfied is shown by the release from Messrs. Taggart & Vashon.

Please execute the release before a Notary and have the usual Certificate of the Clerk of a Court of Record, under its seal, that the notary is duly authorized to take acknowledgements annexed thereto.

Any expense you may be put to in this matter will be refunded upon receipt of a memorandum showing the amount. By giving this matter early attention

Dear Sir & Bro:

I am troubled that so much of our time is occupied in keeping up the machinery of our organizations, and as far as I can learn, so few conversions. Excuse me if I say I fear our members need to be impressed with the need of definite work for the conversion of young men. We are reaching many, but how few are led to the Savior.

I would suggest, if it meets your approval, a conference of your active members, - perhaps a Members Tea - at which two or three of your men who sympathize with you shall socially present what has been done, and what has not, especially the field and its condition, and urge the need of this work. Then ask for suggestions of methods, plans, &c, &c, Follow this with a season of personal consecration and prayer.

You will understand I would not have ^{less} secular work, but I would have every member fully alive to the fact that it is but means to an end.

Let me urge some definite action in your Association at the very beginning of our Winter's work.

do you think on the subject.

How is the education of children at these Posts provided for? Do they have Sunday School Libraries, and proper Sunday, and Day Schools regularly conducted at these Posts.

Or is their education carried on in an irregular way, and if so, what is it due to, is it because they have not the proper books for the purpose, and if they were sent to them, would they be availed of by those for improvement.

About what number of Posts are without Post

Maxwell, G. J.

Philadelphia

Oct 14th 1881

Dear Sir

As from your position you are well acquainted with the wants of our frontier Army Posts in reference to Chaplains, Religious Service on Sunday, Post Libraries, and Post Schools, if it is not putting you to too much trouble, would you kindly at your convenience give me some facts in reference to the same.

The War Department has kindly sent me at my request a printed list of the different Army Posts with the Posts at which there are Chaplains ~~marked~~ on it, so that I have been able to tell the number of those that have none.

What is the feeling in general at Posts where there are no Chaplains, do they try to have regular Religious Service on Sunday, or if not, do you think they would if the proper Religious Books for the purpose were furnished them?

About what proportion of Posts are without Libraries, and where Libraries exist do the men seem disposed to make use of them to improve themselves?

From a remark I once heard made by an officer who had served on the frontier, I have suspected that much of the card playing, and drinking sometimes complained of in the ^{Army} was due to the fact that at such Posts there was no Library or other means of improving themselves, and that card playing and drinking were resorted to, to kill time by the thoughtless, and that if such Posts had good Libraries much of the bad influence would be overcome? From your experience what

Sunday Schools or Day Schools.

As soon as I have more definite data, and better understand the needs of the Frontier Posts in reference to Religious and Secular Improvement, I shall try to see if more cannot be accomplished than at present to help those who need help.

In my opinion Army Posts should be made centres from which a good influence should be exerted morally as well as physically throughout the parts of our country in which they are located, but of course in order to accomplish that result, those at those Post must have the right-influence about them, by having proper means of improving themselves in the right way.

To what extent do those means exist at present?

Hoping to hear from you at your convenience

My dear General:

I return you herewith the portions of your report which you were kind enough to loan me. They have enabled me to be much more specific & accurate in some portions of the story of the Atlanta Campaign than I could otherwise have been. That volume has gone to the publishers and I am beginning on the March to the Sea &c. This will cover the whole period from the taking of Atlanta down to the surrender of Gen. Johnston.

May I beg that you will do me a kindness favor in sending me your reports of that period? It is the best means I have of getting at the part done by the Army of the Tennessee, & indeed the only really satisfactory way.

Can you give me also the title & date of the Congressional report of the Commission on claims for property burned in Columbia? I shall refer very briefly to that incident; but I shall wish to read all the testimony, so that even a brief summary may be accurate & fair, as far as it goes. I should be glad also to have your personal opinion of the matter with reference to the question whether the fires which were burning when you entered the town were probably spread wilfully by the troops - though without a doubt.

I am anxious to be negatively as well as affirmatively accurate, & to make no strong assertions that future investigation may be likely to overthrow.

The tendency to destroy the property of the wealthy class, which our soldiers held responsible for the war, was a growing one, and I often had occasion to note it. I feel no need of blinking this or of much apology for it. They were resisted to it was based upon reasons of discipline rather than of ~~human~~ consideration due the public Enemy. I strive to stop it, for the reason stated.

In reply to yours of 11th inst. am sorry to say that I have not a copy of the decision referred to, I think I never saw it except in the newspapers.

It was given, I believe, in the to the member from my Dist - & to the effect that the real residence of a minor is held to be that of the Father or Parent - that a minor cannot acquire a residence distinct from that of his ^{father or} parent & that an officer does not usually lose his residence by reason of his being absent in the service of the U.S. — The letter I think was to about the above effect. We have all been to call on the President to day (Army & Navy Officers) & I have not had time to get away from the office to go over to the A.G.O. but will do so Monday if I can get a copy of it will send it to you at once.

Any construction to discriminate against Officers Sons in the matter — to debar them from privileges accorded to others — not allow them residence any where on account of their Father serving the Country would be manifestly unjust & I think is generally so regarded. It certainly is difficult to define what actual residence is or ^{to say} what constitutes it for any legal purpose whatever, if it be not the legal bona fide residence. —

The law was apparently made to prevent the passing from one State or Dist to another in order to get an appointment — in other words to secure to each Dist. an appt. from its own real bona fide residents as distinguished from those temporarily residing there — & therefore limited the appts to actual residents which if it means anything tangible would seem to mean legal bona fide residence, ^{or} which is a thing tual residence is or to say what constitutes it for any legal purpose whatever, if it be not the legal bona fide residence.

The law was apparently made to prevent the passing from one State or Dist. to another in order to get an appointment in other words to secure to each Dist. an appt. from its own real bona fide residents as distinguished from those temporarily residing there - & therefore limited the appt. to actual residents which if it means anything tangible would seem to mean legal bona fide residence, which is a thing defined and understood - If it means anything else - the place where one is in person at the time, where he eats & sleeps &c for - a day - a month or a year - anything in fact except bona fide legal residence, the object of the Law would seem to be entirely defeated.

3 If, as you say, your legal bona fide residence is Leeds, Me., the same is no doubt the real legal residence of your minor children & if Chauncy is still a minor he is eligible to appt from your Dist. x x x x x

Yours very truly

My Dear General :

I am writing the History of the Colored People in America from 1620 to 1880 : Negroes as Slaves, as Soldiers and as Citizens. I write to you as my personal friend to ask that you give me whatever information you can as to the origin of the Freedmen's Bureau for refugees or abandoned lands, also the Freedmen's Saving Bank and Trust Company. I desire to know of their statutory origin and whatever you have to say of your official relation to them. Whatever information, my dear General, you cannot furnish, be so good as to refer me to any documentary evidence you know in exhistance. I am anxious to honor you for the noble self-sacrificing labors which you bestowed upon that hapless people to which I am joined by ties of consanguinity. I desire to justify your official conduct by the official record. I would be glad also to have such information as you can impart in reference to the origin, extent and efficiency of Night Schools for the Freedmen established under the Freedmen's Bureau.

I expect to be in New York either in November or December and shall avail myself of the opportunity to call upon you at West Point. I expect both volumes to be in the hands of the printers by April and trust your answer will be as complete and speedy as possible.

With very great respect, I am your friend,

Geo. B. Williams.

WAR DEPARTMENT
WASHINGTON.

October 15-1881.

My dear General:

I have your letter of October first, respecting the appointment of your son to a Cadetship-at-large at West Point.

When you wrote before, the pressure upon the President was, as I knew, such that there was no chance for your son in the last list of appointments.

The situation at present is this: As I understand it, there are four Cadets-at-large to graduate in June, 1882. President Garfield, in June of this year, designated four regular candidates for these places, and three alternates.

Our experience this year indicates that there may possibly be a good many lapses in this list, so that your son might have a chance to get on the list somewhere: and it will give me pleasure to bring your application to the attention of the President on the first occasion, and to recommend myself the nomination desired by you.

Believe me, General,

Very respectfully yours.

R. M. Smith
