Dear Mr. Howard,

I am very anxious to have your likeness included in a fine photographic collection of "Faces of Freedom" so named by Mr. Cullen Bryant and I beg the favor of you to call on the artist, Abraham Bogardus, on Broadway at Eighteenth Street and have a sitting for the same.

The purpose is to perpetuate the visage of eminent Anti-slavery Men in a pleasing and convenient form. Mr. Bogardus is with me in principle.
and you will enjoy his acquaintance and explanations of my purpose.

Your truly,

Dear General,

Yours of the 4th inst. enclosing card from Mrs. Hoddard in red. This is the 2nd or 3rd card she has written upon the same subject within a year or two. She is a lady I never saw but once—or twice in the last—yet she tells me it is a most out-of-hand. Owns a miserable old tumble-down home about 400 feet back of Clark Hall. Had a tenant named Phillip Robinson, she is very—no, he is colored and a fair man. She has written to Patton several cards. Blaming "Johnson" became Robinson built himself a home and moved out of her. My she conveys one with her troubles in her dealing with Robinson she does not know. Jan 15—she wrote to Patton that Robinson had moved out of her house and "carrying with him doors"
"Summer training, fencing, & calls on me, Johnson's influence. I read to Card & Robinson. I signed on Mr. Honolulu a bill for one half of a new fence the line between her lot & amter for it. I am done of referred her to the street as pointed on the Erection Regulations of the District. She declines to pay it (although it was over one year ago) that are not mentioned in her line as to her troubles with her "Ex Rent." I know nothing except what I have stated. He seems to regard me an accomplice.

I was very sorry to hear of the death of your good friend Edgar Deaton.

Sincerely yours,

J.B. Robinson

Distinguished General,

On the 11th ult., I had the pleasure to address you a nice letter asking if you would kindly favor me with two autographs and the date and place of writing with a sentiment one for myself and the other for my darling and loving sweetheart. But imagine our grief at not receiving them. I always thought that you loved young people and delighted to make them happy. May I kindly ask if you will grant the favor we so much desire and write your name out in full for us. I presume that in the rush of business, our request was overlooked. Enclosed return postage in letter. Yours ardent youthful friend and well wisher,

My dear General:

I also got a letter from Mr. Ellis but I am at a loss to see how I can either individually or along with the brethren whom he has named in any way in the case. Mr. A. H. U.
S. Secretaries are all the time looking after these matters and say they have never had any of these matters. and say they are not

Mr. Ellis, as it seems to me, has just recently came into office and wants to do some part of it, without knowing very well how to get at it. I think the best thing we can do is to send this letter to the Secretaries. I leave them to look after it. But I’m sure any better way I will gladly follow it.

With kind remembrances you are very cordially

My dear General-

I trust you will not care the liberty I take in referring to your very complimentary offer to apply for my services in the tactical department at West Point.

As my future plans depend very largely upon the result, I have decided to ask the very great favor of your advice upon the subject.

There are two or three matters...
If personal interest now depending upon whether this is a fair prospect - if we're going to West Point -.

If entirely consistent with your official duties you will confer a lasting obligation by answering me frankly in the matter.

I assure you that - I thoroughly appreciate your kind offer. And nothing would give me more pleasure than to have all West Point - during your administration.

With my best respect I am-breath yours truly.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 23rd ultimo, inquiring what disposition you should make of certain papers belonging to David P. Hancock, deceased, late Major 2nd Infantry, as you do not know the address of any of his friends, and to inform you that it appears from a report made by the Second Auditor of the Treasury that William Hancock, of Wyoming, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, is the administrator of Major Hancock's estate. By correspondence with him you can doubtless ascertain what disposition of the papers is desired.

Dear Sir:

Please send me the "Rules & Regulations" governing the admission of candidates into the U.S. Mil. Academy at West Point. Please send also a copy of the "Annual Register," which I am informed I am entitled to as a friend and relative of Cadet Rodger Bryan my cousin! And if convenient and possible please inform me when there will be a vacancy in this district. The 32d dep. in. I am thinking very seriously of trying at least for admission knowing myself to be both physically and mentally qualified.

And in regard to Moral qualifications would respectfully refer you to the Rev. Mr. Mankato, under whom I have served and have served some 9 years. Thanking you for all trouble incurred.

Yours Very Respectfully

Dear Father,

Your telegram came Saturday evening. Can you not keep Grandmother’s money till my return? I will be back in twice to arrange it with her. I think that it would be the best to have you receive her money—knowing as it were the power of attorney when I come from you all I need.

Where I go away the best way is for me to take it.

I have written them a note thanking them for the many attentions of the splendid time they gave us. Saturday a party of people to Meriden, 16 miles from here, took dinner, visited the Exhibition rooms of the Connecticut Wave Company which is wonderful very beautifully after visiting the skating rink (rally) we drove home. The scenes and little country villages along The way were very pretty.

When in Philadelphia I met the minister of the French Protestant Church there and he took an interest in me that I should find a pleasant home in a good Christian family and he has shown me a splendid way of practical ways too. But I can explain better when I reach home.
