Dear General:

The tardy passing of the appropriation bill has kept me in W. until now, so that I have had no opportunity of availing myself of your kind proposal to give me letters to certain wealthy gentlemen who will be likely to become interested in Howard University. We are in the Smoot Civil bill; put in by the House Com^e, for $17,000, which I got increased in the Senate to $28,000. I hope that the Conference Com^{tee} will concur in the Senate amendment and secure to us that amt.

The bill will get through this

Where can I find you?
Shall I call upon you?
Or, will it be more convenient will make that practicable.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON, D. C.

This institution has special claims upon the sympathy and aid of the philanthropist and Christian. It is a child of that Providence which emancipated, by the late war, four millions of minds as well as of bodies, and it aims to solve the great national problem which stands connected with the relations of the white and colored races in the United States.

ADVANTAGES OF SITUATION.—The institution, overlooking Washington from the North, is less than two miles from the centre of city business, and is accessible by two lines of street-cars. The buildings are commodious, tasteful, and sufficient for more than double the number of students now under instruction. They cost nearly half a million of dollars. Being at the Capital of the country, it enjoys a grand opportunity to illustrate to influential men of all sections the possibility of overcoming caste-feeling and of elevating the colored race to an equality with others, intellectually and morally. Students also are naturally attracted to such a locality, and feel its inspiration, while they find more or less opportunity for self-support in various forms of labor. Evidently a success in Washington will be such a success before all the world, as could hardly be true of any institution located elsewhere.

OPPORTUNITIES OF EDUCATION.—The University is open to students of both sexes and of whatever race. It can carry them onward to such point of education as may be desirable, in different cases, as it has these several departments: Academeical (including Normal, Preparatory, and Collegiate,) Medical, Legal, and Theological. In the Medical Department, such are the advantages, that a majority of the students are white. The Theological Department has over forty students—some quite mature in age—in various preparatory, special and regular courses, some of whom are already preachers, in a humble way, in their respective denominations. In the other departments worthy young persons are seeking to prepare for all the different vocations in life. They come from the abodes of poverty, and help themselves, so far as opportunity offers, by labor, at leisure hours and during vacations. But such earnings are usually insufficient. No charge is made for tuition; room rent is $12 a year; while board is furnished at $8 per month. No charge is made for room rent to students for the gospel ministry of any religious denomination.

SPECIAL NEEDS.—With expensive buildings and grounds, worth $250,000, the institution has no available endowments. Its temporary dependence is on rents, and other scanty resources. With endowments for the professorships it could not only permanently sustain the present limited arrangements for instruction, but could greatly enlarge them, to the advantage of the interests concerned. If permanent scholarships, of $1,000 or $1,500 each, could be secured, the best talent among the needy might be educated for important service. Even with temporary annual scholarships of $50 or $100, the number of deserving students could soon be doubled. Often a donation of $15 or $20 will suffice to supplement the resources of a student, so as to enable him to go through the year. A large addition to the female students could be made if friends would enable the institution to render slight aid. Churches, Sunday-Schools and individuals will here find a noble opportunity to do good, by contributions of money, clothing, bedding, stationery, &c.

ENCOURAGING PROSPECTS.—The institution is out of debt. Congress has also given endorsement and character to the University, by recent appropriations in its behalf. Senator Hoar, of Mass., Judge Strong, of the United States Supreme Court, and Gen. Eaton, Commissioner of Education, have lately expressed, in writing, their emphatic approval of its work and management. It is an institution for the whole country. Energetic, ambitious and studious youths are now in it from twenty seven states and territories.

My Dear Gen. Howard :-

Aug. 3, 1882.

I have your very kind note of the 1st. It is addressed to me, but I think meant for my good father who wrote you in regard to the young man. He is now absent.

I am greatly disappointed to find that you are to be removed to the far West again, as I had looked forward with great pleasure to seeing more of you next Winter, and think the authorities have made a big mistake. I hope that your new home will be a pleasant

Dear Genl' Howard.

That my item self brought me so kind a note as I received from you today, is ample reward if I had not been rewarded in the pleasure it gave me to say the words I did. The news of the change made me exceedingly blue and I went to West Point the Saturday following only to find your house closed and its inmates gone. I had hopes to see Mrs. Howard, though I knew you were gone. From there I went to the mountains for a rest and had intended going to see my son tomorrow but find I cannot go unless I hurry very much and have about concluded to go a week hence.

For my own sake as well as my Boy's I regret your departure and if I could prevent it I certainly would even although you and Mrs. Howard wanted to go. The only compensation I can see in it is that it will take you nearer to your daughter, and that I know will give you both happiness.

General: may I venture upon a request? My lad writes me that "Lieut. Farrow is going away on leave for a month and will then leave in September." If this means that he is to be a tactical officer at West Point - no longer will you, if consistent with your feelings, help me get my brother detailed there? It would make me very happy to have him near me after ten years of separation and for my sake I trust you will find it agreeable to aid me. My brother is Lieut.

Wm H. Carter. 6th Cavalry & Regimental Pay Master. (I should say Quartermaster). He is on Gen. Carr's staff and is stationed at Camp Apache. I suppose there are a great many officers who would like the position but I honestly believe my brother to be as worthy as any in the Army. He is upright, moral, temperate and good. His influence over the young would be excellent, and he is endorsed by his Superior Officers as a good

After leaving the Point, I "accepted the situation", - & went to work to prove that although unable to pass in Math. at W.P., there was good stuff in me; and that I w'd yet retrieve by earnest endeavor, the losses of my first defeat. I went into Eng'g, - & for nearly a year now have done good & faithful work, - both under Col. Craighill & then (after appropriations failed) with the Lehigh Valley R.R. on important tunnel work. But my way to promotion seems blocked; - & I cannot afford to stand still. This last seems a providential opening. Your letter we propose to use ^{as a part of} as my credentials, to be exhibited to parents having boys to be educated. My good friend Stotler (just graduated) was largely instrumental in gaining the chance for me. Aug. July 7th, 1882.

Dear Genl:-

Forgive my trespassing on your time, which just now must be very limited; but if you will grant the humble request I am about to make, - I can hardly thank you enough. I have been offered and have accepted, a position as Instructor in a Military Academy in Stamford, Conn., and am given a considerable interest in the business. I am to teach French, Drawing, Elementary Surveying & Eng'g, English (such as at W.P.) and am to thoroughly reorganize and conduct, the Military Dept. The school is one of wide and fine reputation; has been in operation under the founder & owner, Mr. Jas. Betts, for nearly 40 years. Of late years, owing to the illness of his son, who has had charge, the school has gone down; - and Mr. B. now proposes, through the agency of two young men, (one of which I am) to build the school right up to its former prosperity & higher, - and leave as his contribution to society, - as his life-work, a strong, - good school, a power for good.

To us, in whom he places full trust, - he gives liberal inducements, - and we are identified with the business from the jump, - our very incomes being largely dependent on our own efforts.
And when he finally retires from active con- trol, - he intends to make over to us the whole business, - at a moderate rental. So far as I can see, with my limited vision, - this is to me the chance, the opening, - the opportunity that I have been seeking so diligently, and I am all eagerness to make the most of it. Now your good name, known of the whole country, - tried in the fires & found pure, - as endorsing me, w'd be indeed valuable. This is a good deal to ask, I know, but your great kindness in recommending me to Col. Craigill, emboldens me.
I w'd like to have you write a short note to Mr. Jas. Betts, Stamford, Conn., stating what you know as to my ability proficiency in French, English, and Drawing, - and my record for good conduct while under your Command, and if you can do so, giving a favorable opinion as to my ability to run the Mil. Dept. of a school. Though I failed in that at W.P., and had a most unfortunate time with it, in spite of all my hard work, I have deter- mined also to teach Algebra, Geometry, & the kindred branches of math., - as I know, I am sure, that for all my present purposes, I had so good a drill in those branches that I am better fitted to teach them than the majority of College graduates. You doubtless see just what I want, and from all your kindness to me, I am led to think you will lend me your aid.

You can readily see that there is no occasion for making reference to my being "found"; it w'd unnecessarily weaken me, though I am glad to say that whenever it has become necessary in order that I sh'd not "sail under false colors", I have invariably come out squarely and frankly and said: "Yes, I was found," but

My dear General Howard,

I congratulate you on your transfer from West Point to Omaha, from the Superintendency of a School to the Command of a splendid Military Department. The change was one I he desired on many accounts by both you & your family. There could be little in the Command of West Point that could interest a man of your turn of thought & physical activity. If it ever had any value in your eyes it must long since have diminished. The Platte is a large, important and pleasant Department. It has within its limits the Mormons with all their peculiarities of institutions & ^{social} customs. You will be deeply interested in these people & will readily find much in their condition excite your curiosity and furnish food for reflection. Except the Lakes I know of no Department I would prefer to the Platte. It seems altogether probable now that the 21st will exchange with the 10th Regimental Headquarters being at Detroit. That would give the Regiment great satisfaction. If we cannot go there then Omaha would be our next choice.

But I did not intend to express preferences for stations in a private letter, but I did intend to acknowledge the receipt of your Decoration Day speech & express the pleasure I derived from reading it. It was patient-ic and eloquent. Your answer to Sumner is good as can be made, but in my opinion was in all its phases and under all circumstances is Anti-Christian. General, if I was a Statesman & was called on to vote directly on the question of a declaration of war I have no hesitation in saying that I should resist it so long as I could find a foot of honorable ground upon which I could ~~find~~^{stand} ~~a foot hold~~ to struggle for Peace - War at best is barbarism - war at best is cruelty - war at best is the destruction of almost every virtue. Where war thrives virtue languishes. Cruelty, falsehood, craft & every species of vice follow in its march of an active Army. If this be true can war be justifiable? It may be necessary in self defence to kill even a neighbour - there is resistance only - But to declare war and march an army to the field of blood is such an act as a man or a nation can only justify by the most over-

Dr

Major Herschel presents his compliments to General Howard, and hopes it will not be inconvenient if he should present himself, with Miss Herschel, at West Point on Monday the 10th, in order to see the Academy. He proposes to take the Albany boat from New York on Monday morning and return by the same means in the afternoon, unless General Howard should think it worth while to interpose by wire on Monday morning in time to prevent their starting; or by message at the West Point landing place. — in which latter case the trip would conveniently ^{be} continued up river on that day in lieu of another.

Major Herschel's New York address is Brevort House, Fifth Avenue.

Dear General:

In response to your telegram of yesterday I enclose printed copy of address.
I do not make it returned as I have still a few copies left.

The address was hastily prepared and my printer followed me as fast as I could give him manuscript. Some mistakes occurred which I neglected to correct and hence it is in rather crude form. A few of the ideas presented are I believe good and I am sorry that some of them are not clothed in better language and more fully elaborated.

Very Respectfully

flight to rest in the bosom of her precious Savior whom she so dearly loved. She is now home & at rest.

We feel the loss very, very much, but it is her gain, & we cannot but rejoice in this sense, & bow to the will of God in our sorrow.

I thank for going to see

Sleep Dear General

I thank you for the kind sympathy in your letter of 1st inst.
Our darling Lizzie faded rapidly for the last three weeks & we knew she would not be with us much longer, but God has spared her to us much longer than we thought possible, and she has been the sunshine of our household for a great many years.
Her patient endurance of pain, without murmuring has been a Christian example that I trust is not lost on us, nor on the many friends who have known her. Not long before she left us she said "Papa I have always loved you very much but I have sometimes been cross but I did not want to be" I said darling we cannot help the weaknesses of human nature. I know you love us. Poor child she was ever thoughtful of others happiness, how could she willingly do anything out of the way.

She said "I shall be like Him" and as she paused I said "and shall see Him as He is"

"In His presence is fulness of joy" She asked one hand under her & said "not you come closer to me but bring me nearer to you" Her Ma said, "do you want papa to take you out of bed" and she said "yes"

I took her in my arms and they placed a chair for me & Millie helped hold her head & her Ma held her feet. She said her feet were not comfortable & her mother let them down more when she seemed comfortable & nestled close to me trying to put her arm around my neck but it was not comfortable when she curled her
