University of the South,

Sewanee, Tennessee, Dec. 4, 1882.

Dear General.

I shall spend most of this winter in Washington & am going to try for an appointment in the Pay Department. It is now over twenty-one years since I first entered the service & there is no prospect of my attaining a Captaincy in my regiment in less than ten or twelve years. It is very discouraging.

Can you give me any help in my effort? I shall have a good deal of influence in my favor, but shall have need of all I can get - probably more. If you can give me any letters that will help me either in a military way, or in the way of political influence I shall appreciate the favor very highly. Please let me hear from you on the subject as soon as convenient & oblige.

Yours very respectfully & sincerely Robert M. Rogers.

Gen. C. C. Howard,

Dear Sir,

Supposing that you must have returned from your Western tour by about this time, I write a few words in addition to my previous letter.

Having been informed by some who know you, that you would be likely to oblige us if you possibly could, I have made no effort to secure any one else. We have no one else in view, and it is too late now to open negotiations with any one.

Of course you are not responsible for this, but I simply state the facts in order that you may fully realize the urgency of our request, and not disappoint our hopes for any but the most imperative reasons.

The arrangement of trains is convenient for you if pressed for time; you can leave Omaha Thursday morning and arrive there again Friday morning or evening.

Hoping for an early and favorable reply, I am Yours very respectfully,

To

Dear General:

It does seem that duty compels me to seek your assistance, and that I should make every effort possible to get back to the work at my school.

You may have learned that Mrs. Wilkinson was ~~was~~ left in charge until my Clerk could qualify, (give bonds) as disbursing officer. This was done at my request, in order that no great ^{Should take place} change ^{at once}, in the management of the school to the confusion of the Indian children, their parents and friends.

General Sherman, and the Secretary of War insisted that I must come to my Company. Governors of W. D. & Oregon telegraphed for their states. Corbett, Willing State Dr. Atkinson & Maerum also sent ^{telegrams} asking for me, at least, this fiscal year. A Memorial, setting forth facts concerning the school, signed by all the Protestant Clergymen, (except Episcopalians) of Portland, all the City Officials including Board of Education, the Bankers, the Judges of the Courts, with the Governor, was presented to the Hon. Secretary of the Interior. This memorial contained a request that I be specially detailed to the care of the school, but for some reason all has failed.

You know so well the extent and meaning of this work that I need not write one word in explanation.

I believe General Sherman, as skeptical as he appears to be with reference to Indian Education, and the son of Abraham Lincoln who certainly cannot afford to be otherwise than just, could have personally known all the circumstances, they would not have ordered me away. I do not feel in my heart that I am complaining because I am 47 and still near the foot of the list of 1st Lieuts. of my Regiment; [next week I shall have been twenty years in the service] but I do feel that I can do my Country better service, and more, in the long years to come, in building up that school than in doing Subalterns duty in a Company, as I must, for at least fifteen years or more. I was over six hundred dollars in debt, I could not resign, over hearts, and more of my life the history of the Court, with the Government was furnished to the other in view of the evidence. This manuscript contains a report that it is especially detailed with the case of the United States for the purpose of the Court.

After these we will the second and meaning of this report that it may not be used in the Court. of which I cannot determine as the Court is not appearing to be with reference to the evidence and the fact of the Court's decision in the Court's Court appears to be the evidence that the Court has previously determined all the circumstances that may not be determined by the Court. It is not that in my Court that I am complaining because I am not and will not the fact of the Court of the Court of the Court. I am not a Court that has been brought before the Court but I do feel that I can do my Court better with the Court in the Court to come in Court of the Court that in the Court that the Court is a Court of the Court. I am not a Court of the Court that I am not a Court of the Court in the Court.

than I knew until separated from it, are in that school. I would gladly give up ten years of my future life to it, and certainly the interests involved to the Indian Race, and our Country would justify the most intelligent devotion one could give in a life time. Mrs. Wilkinson seems to have found work thoroughly congenial and absorbing, and the school owes much of its success to her training in the home.

I write this thinking you may be in Washington this winter and that you may know how to help us. I know how greatly Mrs. Wilkinson would be encouraged if she knew that you could do so; she wrote me, in a letter rec^d yesterday, of such a possibility. I am asking for work! work in which I have been greatly encouraged. I have thought that the President might feel justified, in view of the great interest manifested in Indian Education in the north-west, by reason of the success of the school, to indicate his desire that I be returned to its charge. Representative George will do his utmost to accomplish my return, Senator Dolph also, but he does not enter the present Congress. Another plan might be to have me ordered to report for duty to the Hon. Sec. of the Interior, the influence must come from above not below the Hon. Sec. of War, & fear. I wish Gen. Sherman knew that if there was any way in which I could retire I would gladly do so, and will promise to do so at the earliest hour.

There is a matter of a more personal nature that is justice to you, as well as Mrs. McKimison, and myself I would add. When we took Bonny into our home, and was all we could be to him, we did not believe he would prove the viper warmed he has. His Uncle in San-Francisco warned me, and urgently protested that if I still retained him after all he said, I would do so at great personal risk, and could have no excuse in case of disaster. This Uncle said that Bonny had destroyed his own home; had committed every crime but murder, and in order that I might fully comprehend his villainy said that he would not go one block to save his life, if he was to be hung in an hour. This was a strong warning and of course I could not keep him in a responsible position longer. This Uncle is Gen. St. Bonny of 5

Geo. C. Schreuer & Co. the extensive Jewellers of San Francisco, a quiet thoughtful gentleman, with great sympathy for his favorite sister, Bonny's mother. Bonny turned upon me and published the article in the Mercury, afterword sending a clipping & my photo to the Police Gazette N.Y. In Portland, his wickedness, even among the most abandoned, to whom he resorted finally, was fully understood. I paid no attention to the attack, and this is my first explanation, in writing.

It was a great loss, and irreparable, the burning of my baggage while en-route to my Company last month; all my records of twenty years, letters, family pictures; much Mrs. H. had packed for my comfort and to interest me this winter, beside we can ill bear the loss of clothing, and my comfortable out fit; Certainly it would seem that I am being tempered for something, at least I find myself trying to take comfort in that thought. Please pardon my long letter, I could hardly tell you in fewer words what I felt was a necessity. Respectfully & Sincerely yours, McKinkison

Dear General Howard.

Is it too early to secure you for next summer at Kansas Assembly?
[See the heading for time and place].

We want to hold a great National Day meeting on July 6th, and desire you for that day, especially.

Do you think that we could get Gen.
Sherman? Or Senator Blaine? [You are a Maine man, and might know about the latter].

We want you, at any rate, if you can leave your post on that day, and I earnestly hope that you can come.

We shall expect to remunerate you for your services.

Ever yours.

Dear Brother:

We hoped,
to the last, that you would all come to help us celebrate our 15th Wedding Anniversary.
We had a nice little Company - Uncle John Rice & wife & son Nellie (10 year old) Uncle Abel were at Booga - having come all the way from Milwaukee or you may, perhaps, remember.

We had, also, Aunt &
Aunt Dory & Dr. &
Mrs. Nutt, our neighbors. - Mother seemed to be well & to enjoy the evening. - But this morning at 6
she was taken with a chill & has been ill ever since. We had the Dr. at noon. He said she had considerable fever. She seems to suffer pain almost constantly - in her limbs - has some nausea, at times very great - & groans even when apparently asleep - I fear she is very sick - But she is much more comfortable than at first.

The Dr. will be here again tonight. He did not seem to think there was any cause for alarm.

In haste
