Office of Y.M.C.A. Watchman.
Chicago, December 1883.

Dear Sir:

I shall soon commence the tenth year of publishing the Watchman. In no year have I had more evidence of God's blessing upon the paper than this last year. From letters received, my heart has rejoiced to know that more young men have been stimulated and encouraged to engage more actively in Christian work, and more have found Christ as a Savior by reading its pages this last year than ever before.

Wishing to double its influence for good this coming year, the idea has come to me that possibly some of the friends of the paper would like to assist. To enable you to do so, I make the following liberal proposition:

I will send the paper during the year 1884 to as many as you wish to pay for, if names are sent on or before January 1st at sixty five cents a year. (just what it has cost me this last year). This special offer must be considered as personal between us.

I have made no money out of the paper, so far, nor will I from this offer if you accept it, unless the parties themselves renew another year. I simply make the offer to give you an opportunity to place the paper before some new faces this next year, that its circle of influence may be enlarged.

Respectfully
W.W. Vanarsdale

Dear Sir

I shall have pleasure in submitting to you a copy of the book upon the subject of the history of the city of Chicago which was prepared by me and published by the Chicago Historical Society and incorporated in the Chicago Historical Society bound in cloth and is of a size suitable for pocket carrying. It contains a full and complete history of the city of Chicago from its first settlement to the present time.

It is a work of great interest and value and will be found of great use to all who are

Dear General Howard. - Your kind letter of Nov. 28th informing me that you have a pass from Ogden to San Francisco and expect one from Omaha to Ogden for my Mother, Mrs. Penny, is just received. As my Mother is doing everything for any woman could do for a daughter, as she is my only stay and dependence, as she is

"east," and came east on my account, and only on my account, this assistance is direct aid to me. And when she hears of it (she is now in New York City) she will feel as grateful as I do, for the care and trouble you have taken.

I wrote you three days ago of our enforced stay here, probably for two months or more longer.

In case we do not start for San Francisco until after the first of the year (as I have no idea now that we will do) perhaps the passes could be renewed without giving you too much trouble. Or perhaps we could get them renewed ourselves without troubling you to do so.

As you think best.

But I will let you know conclusively what our plans are as soon as we can make them. And before the end of the month I will let you know whether we will get off this month, or not.

Thanking you from my heart, -

I am, -

Yours most sincerely, - Emma C. D. Nickerson.

registres" Ce de 1883 sera assez bon.

Je le veux pour un professeur à l'université à Göttingen, qui m'en a donné un sampler et qui m'a fait d'autres bonheurs. J'ai donné des cours à l'université sur l'Amérique du nord etc, et un registre lui sera très utile. J'ai le nom de Mrs.

Callender à Breslau, qui est elle? j'ai tout à fait oublié, si je l'ai connu? Edwin Meble. Jr. fut à Breslau aussi; mais je ne sais pas s'il est là encore, je vais le chercher en arrivant pour le salueur de la part de son père à Philadelphie. Je suis dans une famille ici; Frau. Ludewig, Ostermannstrasse 14, mais mon adresse, naturellement, reste comme d'habitude, Sister Eichen, 2A; Göttingen. J'ai de très bons appartements ici et je ~~paye~~ paye pour tous, chambres, repas, feu etc $7.50 par semaine, ce qui n'est pas cher pour une grande ville, je vais rester au tout deux semaines. La maison se trouve dans le quartier des résidents, où il n'y a pas de bruit et où je peut bien étudier.

Faites mes amitiés à toutes mes connaissances et présentez mon amour fidèle à ma mère et aux autres membres de la famille.

Sincèrement

Votre fils de

Hannover, le 3 déc. 1883.

Mon cher père

Je voulais vous écrire avant hier - mon jour de naissance, mais il m'était impossible, parce que je n'avais d'arriver ici à Hannover de Göttingen.

Hier, je suis allé à l'église et l'après midi s'est passée sans que j'eusse fini d'écrire autres lettres plus pressantes. Mais maintenant c'est à vous. Depuis que je vous ai écrit à l'époque de votre visite en vue, à l'Europe; je n'ai rien de nouveau à écrire. Je pourrais aller d'ici à Hare sur bicyclette - ce qui ne serait pas grande chose à faire. La saison pour quoi je suis venu de Göttingen ici pour passer deux semaines, c'est que je voulais visiter l'école polytechnique d'Hannover et être tout à fait séparé ou éloigné de toutes mes connaissances pendant quelque jours pour finir de certaines études que j'ai commencées, et que me semblaient ne jamais s'abotir. Aussi je ne me sentais pas trop bien, et je ne voulais pas que la famille, où j'étais à Göttingen, fasse une fête pour moi sur mon jour de naissance. Quand je dis que je ne me portais pas bien, c'était parceque je me suis couché trop tard, et je me levais tous les matins avant sept heures. Maintenant que j'ai dormi, trois nuits de suite, dix heures chaque nuit, je me porte encore une fois si mieux. Parceque je suis si bien occupé, le temps passe très vite et bientôt je serai même une fois à Göttingen au milieu de la famille Bodemeyer, qui est toujours très bon envers moi.

Je vais faire une visite de quelques jours à Mrs. Giles et au famille à Querden à Noël, pen-dant que l'Université sera fermée pour les vacances. Je n'ai ~~pas~~ assez d'argent à présent que pour payer toutes mes dépenses jusqu'au milieu de cette semaine-ci. Mais je ne suis point inquiété, parceque vous m'avez écrit que ma grand-mère m'en-verrai de l'argent le 1<sup>er</sup> décembre, et cet argent arrivera avant qu'il me faudra payer mes comptes ici et rentrer à Göttingen et aller à Dresde.

J'aimerais bien savoir, au plus tôt possible, si vous allez vraiment venir en Europe, et le date aussi. Parceque j'ai tant à faire pour bien profiter de mon séjour ici, que j'ai-rais faire des plans définis, aussi tôt que cela vous sera convenable.

Gen'l O. O. Howard, U. S. A,

My dear Sir:

Capt J. A. Sladen has just had the kindness to send me his certificate to the loss of your second horse. - This is all the evidence I have been able to obtain in your cases so far. Gen'l Whittlesey has but an imperfect recollection of your losses; Gen'l Geo. W. Balloch, whom I also addressed, & one or two others to whom I wrote, can also remember but little. -

Unfortunately, your letter to me in giving the names & whereabouts of other persons besides those already addressed by me, whom you think can testify, has been mislaid by one of my clerks, & as I cannot think whom else to address regarding your claims, I am in the disagreeable position of being obliged to ask you to again state to me the names, &c, of those supposed by you to be able to give evidence.

I need not tell you that your new list of witnesses will be most carefully preserved so that I need not again have occasion to trouble you. - I have had my clerks here for several days already for your missing list but, strange to say, not the slightest trace has been found of it, & as I prefer to lose no more time in getting your claims compl I trust you will kindly overlook this appar <sup>unexplainable</sup> & strange loss, & give me the new list desired at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

My dear General

~~2~~ ~~3~~ [The 2 Monographs are delightful. I but echo the sentiment of all Army officers here with whom I have conversed upon the subject when I say that if they continue as they have begun, combining historical accuracy with the pleasing narrative style of which you are master the papers you are now contributing to the Tribune will constitute a most perfect and interesting history of the war, in the East.]

Permit me to suggest that in view of the permanent value of your work as a history you would do well to embrace a brief mention of every important operation of the army of the Potomac whether occurring under your immediate observation or not.

This will not interfere with your neurograph idea in the least but will I think rather add to the interest of the procedure.

One word with regard to the "Head Lines".

You will observe that every newspaper adopts a systematic style of headings for the different pages. Look on, for the first page, three short lines and three long lines arranged alternately.

The first short line and the first long line are maintained in continued articles to describe the character of the work.

There remains two short lines and two long lines which if you desire you may write provided you conform to the system. The short lines contain fifteen to seventeen of the theory of the Potomac whether occurring earlier than the present observation or not.

This will not interfere with your hypothesis since in the past with I think better view to the extent of the structure.
We must not repeat but

"Good day"
You will observe that every hypothesis except a hypothesis step of transition for the first page, I was on, for the first page, that that line whether has been arranged

alternately.
The first that line and the first line are in continuation in continued order to the side the character of the work there remains the that line and the long line which if you desire for any other purpose for comparison but perhaps, the that line between figures to determine letters, the long ones thirty five to forty letters. —

I find the space in the Tribune so occupied that I have been obliged much against my will to suppress my historical articles on the war in the west.

My original idea was to have them appear simultaneously with yours of the same date in the war. My next would take up operations in Missouri and Arkansas culminating in the capture of Island No 10 then bringing the three armies of the Ohio the Tennessee and the Mississippi together prior to Corinth. — These events would take place while you are before Richmond and in the few days before Molona Hill &c. — Mr. Saxon has recently enjoyed Mr Coffin to write for boys and has usurped my position in the paper. —

I think a word from you recommending that my ar-ticles appear simultaneously with yours thus carrying the war on chronologically both in the East and West would accomplish the desired re-sult. -

My aim for the Tribune has always been to make it an established authority upon matters relating to the war, to allow no personal reflec-tions upon the actions of any true soldier whether he displayed great ability or not. to fearlessly express my opinions upon the wisdom of any campaign and the movement of troops in an engagement. - With kind greet-ing to your family
