~~Dear General.~~
As the day is rainy and you have been indoors perhaps, will you not say "goodbye" to your friends before tea and come and break bread with us before you go? A cab can be ordered to call for you here at any time you name and you can see Mr. Funk, the publisher a little while this evening.
I want my little favorite Robin Brookway to know you and he is to be here to tea. Come if you can be had; if you can - not will you try to be here early, say 7 o'clock so that the little lady may go home in good season. You may wonder why I want this child to have any part of your time when you are linited; some time you will know. He is very dear to me however and I love to give him pleasure.

Sincerely
Laura C. Holman.

Northwestern Electric Light and Power Co.

Omaha, March 1st, 1884.

DEAR SIR:

We have concluded to reduce our rates for Incandescent Electric Lights, so as to make them as low as gas of same power and brilliancy. The light is absolutely steady, free from flicker, smoke, odor and no heat, thereby making it a greatly superior light to Gas.

We are supplying several of the Banks and other business houses with the Incandescent Lights, who speak very highly of its merits.

For special rates for large buildings, apply to

NORTHWESTERN ELECTRIC LIGHT & POWER CO.,

Office, N. W. Cor. 15th and Farnam

Rates for Incandescent Lights, until 9.00 P. M. $2.25 each per month; to 10.00 P. M., $2.50 each per month; to 12.00 P. M., $3.50 each per month; to 2:00 A. M., $4.25 each per month.

Pauline's plans were entirely dependent on mine. I was astonished that ^{Dear this wife} they would be willing to think of her going without them; but when your going was suggested they changed front immediately. I'm sorry now that I let myself ^{and my} friends have another exhibition of my apparent fickleness.

Please remember me to Lannie & mean James, and accept again the warm thanks of both Pauline and myself for the great favor you offered to extend to us.

With regards to Mrs. Howard and all the family -

Yours sincerely and gratefully Minnie C. Cook

Miss M. S. Cook.

Washington, Mch/84.

Gen. O. O. Howard.

Dear General: -

Many thanks for your kindness in telegraphing me and assuming Pauline and myself so cordially of your willingness to see us across the ocean. I have been turning and overturning in my mind the subject of going to Europe this Spring and letting it depend mainly on how I rally from an attack of Bronchitis in whose grasp I was when Gen.

Whittelsey wrote you. I find, however that I am getting along so well that I can hardly make it a justifiable excuse, and I don't know whether to be glad or sorry at my decided recovery, which I think is a very thankless way of putting it, considering that health is in my opinion the greatest of blessings.

I have therefore come reluctantly to the conclusion that it is not best for me to leave on the 15th of this month and I have little doubt that the shapings of events will keep me here this year.

It is unnecessary for me to say that I am very grateful to you for the opportunity you have so kindly given us to go with you. I can imagine now how the long ocean hours would revive the pleasant memories of your Washington home and the welcome I always found there. My affection for the children, as children, still continues, tho' I know a sight of them would cause me to readjust all my ideas regarding them.

I hope you will miss all the storms and strike all the sunshine that March has ^{and} that you will have as delightful a European sojourn as I should anticipate for myself, ^{and} I always run to the full length of my imagination when I think of Europe.

Dear General

I have just received the enclosed communication. at first I could remember nothing about your losing any horses while I was with you. but upon reflection, I think you had one stolen the same night I had one stolen from the picket line, I think it was near Petersburg. I remember one other horse was taken at the time & think now it was yours.

Can you in any manner refresh my memory for I am anxious to add my testimony if I can - but so much time has elapsed. I confess my memory is somewhat dim.

Yours Very Truly

Dear Brothers:

I am ~~on~~ my return homeward and have thought I would call again at Omaha. But a telegram I sent to Lemore, asking him to appoint a later date of meeting me in Chicago, was garbled so I have received no answer. And he was to meet me Mon. 4 - so unless I get answer at Mo. Valley, I shall go right on home. I suppose you will start on the 6th and spend at least one night with us at Glencoe. H. S. Smith, of the Ru-rol, failed me. For some reason he writes he cannot attend to it though he had agreed to try it. I must try Atkinson again. For this reason besides others, I wished to visit Orucha again. Please ask John or some one to get Atkinson's name in full and his P.O. address - probably that of the store where we saw his wife. I hope Strang is home and that you can speak to him for me about advertising. The circulation is running up every day and when it reaches 100,000 the rate will again be increased. It is low now for 80,000. The rule is to charge 1 ct per thousand subscribers for each agate line. But our charge is still only 50 cts. per line though the circulation, as you know, has gone up from 50,000 to 80,000.

Dear General.

It gives me the greatest pleasure to think I can be of any service to you.

I trust the kind and overruling God will make your journey happy and prosperous, while the prayer of more than one friend will follow the brave soldier in his wanderings, asking for the speedy and safe return to those he loves, and those who delight to honor the hero whose name is written in light across the pages of his country's history.

Should you conclude to visit Constantinople and the holy land, I feel assured Gen. Wallace will be delighted to extend every courtesy in his power.

Good bye! and remember, I will be one of those who will always be happy to hear of your happiness and prosperity.
