My Dear Genl.

On this your 54th birthday allow me to congratulate you on your continued health and prosperity, and I hope most sincerely that many years of usefulness, and further honors are yet before you.

I am reminded that twenty years ago this morning, your old 11th Corps staff gave you a birthday breakfast in Atlanta, on your return from the Chase after Hood. Many changes have transpired for both of us since then, but amid them all I have always had for you an affection second to no other man, except my father; and time only increases it. I am rejoiced that during the last six months you have had a chance to visit foreign lands and see and enjoy so much. I am reading your articles in the Tribune with great interest. You will no doubt notice in the issue of the 6th an urgent request for you to sketch the life of Col.

Cross of the 5th N. H. I am sure every servant of that gallant Regt. would be glad to have you do it. I could aid you to some extent & W. Hammond of Concord could also aid. As you and I both know Col. Cross was not without his faults, (and who is?) but he gave his life for his Country, and those of us who are spared ought to do all we can to give his memory fitting honor. My own health is very good but I am aware, that the "Evening shadows begin to lengthen". My family are enjoying their usual measure of health. In our Church matters we are still unsettled.
Dr Rankin's sudden withdrawal from the pastorate, was both a surprise and regret to those of us who were instrumental in getting him here, as well as those who have come on since.
It has always been a source of quiet joy to me to think, that it was you and one who brought him to Washington - Never shall I forget the look that came over 'dear Dan Eaton's' face, when we authorized him, to send for him at our Expense - A change of Administration will no doubt weather us some, but the future mission of the Church still looms grandly up before us, and we shall not turn back.

 The University is also doing well. Its days of tribulation I think are over. Its graduates are recognized now in all departments of learning as Equal to any, and some of them (especially in the Medical) even better. There has been intense excitement here for the last three days over the Election, and it still, at this writing seems sunset-ting. Remember me kindly to Mrs Howard and Gladys and the children. and a believe me

My Dear General,
Having met you at the entertainment at the first Baptist church, Omaha, last week, I feel some-what acquainted with you. Many soldiers, friends and admirers are anxious to have you come out to our new town, which is only three years old, but, has now 1000 people and rapidly growing. Old soldiers and others want to look upon your face and take you by the hand and hear your voice.

Can you not arrange to come out this way some time in

Dec. or Jan.?

Leaving Omaha at 8.30. a.m. you reach here at 3.30. p.m. on St. Paul and Omaha R.R.

We have four churches, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Methodist and Baptist.
I have the honor of being pastor of the Baptist church. We are arranging to get up a course of lectures for the winter.

The Ladies of the Baptist Aid Society, are taking the matter in hand. Our church needs more furniture and they thought if any thing could be done in this way, it would afford both entertainment for the people and funds for the treasury.

Other eminent speakers will

It was a great delight to your for you, a whole page will not be enough room to write out all the good things ~~we wish to~~ I shall let you ~~write for yourself~~ "between the lines". Mr. Van Blarson & I are solitary - so far as family counts, boarding & not pleasant as home keeping, & yet we could not be more comfortable, I think, unless in a home of our own. Gussie is gaining in physical strength in his part of woodwork & seems to find "grace & favor" in the eyes of those with whom he has to do. What is the outlook of the country from your standpoint? Are we to be set back almost a generation, or shall we rouse ourselves in the name of all that is good, pure & true & "go forward". In case our Democratic friends take the lead in the South, I fear they will feel as they did not in the days of the Confederacy, what a fearful thing it is to stir up strife. Such a delightful day it was, I enjoyed in Omaha on my way home. And with much love to the home circle, & with thanking you all again with them,

Yours ever most truly,

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir:

On consultation with Capt. Lemon it has been decided inexpedient to allow Mrs. Holloway the permission that you solicited for her, and she has been written to that effect, couching the refusal in as inoffensive terms as possible. We should very much like to have granted the permission, especially on your own account, but there were reasons that rendered it impossible.

Your first installment of the battle of Gettysburg reached us yesterday. It was too late for the big edition which had already gone to press, but we have announced it, as you will see in this paper for next week, and we have no doubt that it will be read with great interest. How many numbers of it do you think there will be?

Quite a number of your articles failed to come to hand. We will have a memorandum made of them and sent you.

I called on Col. Scott the other day in regard to the document relating to Gettysburg and, as I understood him, he expected you to make a formal application to him for them. ^{If you have} ~~Have you~~ a file of the National Tribune you will see what omissions have occurred, and to far we have progressed.

How many numbers do you think you can devote to the Atlanta campaign?

Very sincerely yours,

The National Tribune.

Dear Brother:

Count you & Lizzie come over and attend our Cong. Club meeting next Monday night. It begins at 5 1/2 P.M. & lasts till 10 P.M. It is ladies night - The ladies attend only twice a year - once in the Spring or early Summer & at this time. The subject is the "Church's duty to her children" or to that effect. We all want to see you both & have a visit very much & particularly mother who now sits up most of the time & is well enough greatly to enjoy your visit. Fearing this may be too late I may telegraph tomorrow. We would hope you might come & spend the Sabbath. I peace I am to lot. But you can start tomorrow morning and get here Sunday morning early I think.

I want very much to consult you about my future business, I shall certainly leave the Tribune Pub. 1st if not before. Capt.
Lemuel has written a letter in quite bad temper, asking me to resign.
Evidently someone is working against me & wants my place.

If I could raise the money
I would be glad for a stock Co. to buy the Tribune & turn it in the direction I hinted to you.

I will hope to see you soon - Don't forget to come on

I will just write a few lines to enclose with Mr Van Blarcums letter, to greet you on your return home. I hope you had a pleasant time while away & enjoyed visiting places familiar to you in reading, but which have an added charm after we have visited them.

I feel very badly about the result of the election. It is not an increase of strength to the Democratic party, by the spread of their principles, for I do ~~do~~ not think they are as numerous as formerly.

I will first write

I hope you had a pleasant but I hope you will
