Dear Sir,

I am desirous of obtaining employment in one of the departments you command; I am the son of Capt. C.C. deRudio of the 4th Cav. I am willing to do anything that will give me an honest livelihood.

If you will use your influence in my behalf, you will confer a great kindness on one who admires your past record as a "General" and also a benevolent man.

I am Your Obedient Servant,

Gen. H. H. Howard Dear Sir

Your expression of confidence in the efficiency of prayer, not long since in our Wednesday evening meeting, has prompted me to ask you to pray for the time, thorough conversion of my sister, a member of your Bible class. She has made a profession but says she is not a Christian. She feels her necessities and knows her duty. We are both in trouble and needy. God’s grace is sufficient for us. To pray that we may have a larger share. And that we may be brought out of our trouble and our lines made more useful. I earnestly desire her true conversion. I have made this same request from Mr. Sherrell. Please answer this liberty, and not giving names. I fear publicity in any would do harm to my sister. God knows who and all our needs.
