Tuesday A.M. - June 21, 1895

Dear Howard,

My dear friend,

I am sure the meeting last evening will do good. I was very glad you offered that last prayer, to include all and place them at the feet of Christ.

Will you please read enclosed from our Northern Miss. & I will try to see you tomorrow at time of your lunch. In a note to Pres't Hagenow I told him a little of our religious state. Will you kindly supplement it, that he may know how to preach.

Pray for us your friend & pastor,

A.B. Sherrill.

General:

At the request of Col. C. E. Conklin, 5th Cav., who says in letter of May 31 that he has written, or will write to you himself, I write to advise you that his daughter, Florence, will, as was arranged, leave here, via P.O. R.R., Sunday, 14th inst., 9:40 A.M., and, as we make it at, her time and connections will be as follows:

Leave Wash. 9:40 A.M. Sunday 14th.
Arrive Chicago 11:50 A.M. Monday 15th.
Ann 1:15 AM Thursday 11th Aug 11:00 AM

I am not certain whether the departure will be at 11:50 or 12:30, train no. 28, at Chicago. I hope that the former day not to go to Omaha but to more intended for Chicago passengers via WP&Y.

The friends in Chicago will fix when they arrive there.

Again it is barely possible that the may arrive Chicago with CB & Q at Chicago and then take one of the other trains from Chicago Flats. Council Bluffs - but by any of them the object to reach there about 9 am.

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for your careful reply to our inquiry regarding the Battle of Seven Pines.

Your sketch map is clear, and generally in harmony with what we, as students of the reports, know of the second day at Seven Pines. Our impression is that you have missed Casey's camp, and consequently the position of yourself and force too far to the west by at least a quarter of a mile.

We are seeking information from... other participants, and by comparison will doubtless be able to fix the positions with sufficient accuracy.

Yours very truly,

Edith C. M.

Dear Sir:

Our first edition of the Revised Version of the Bible is now ready for delivery. We make this announcement with excusable pride, because its issue, complete, within eight days, from the time when the setting of type for its pages began, is one of the most remarkable feats in book publishing that has ever been performed. Eight of the principal printing and electrotyping establishments of Boston were employed in the work, so that our splendid edition of the purified bible might be placed in the hands of our authorized agents at a date almost simultaneous with the arrival in this country of the Cambridge and Oxford editions from the University presses in England. Instead of 1200 pages, as announced in our advance circulars, and upon which basis the prices were arranged, the Old and New Testament will have nearly 1400 pages, on best book paper, large clear print, bound handsomely, and absolutely correct and reliable. The prices are as follows:

--- over ---
Schedule of Prices

Old Testament alone, Muslim, Red Edges, $2.75
Persian Morocco, gilt 4.00
Turkey gilt Edges 5.00

Bible Complete, Muslim, Red Edges, $8.75
Persian Morocco, gilt 5.50
Turkey gilt Edges 10.50

Corresponding English edition, though not as desirable, and smaller:—Prices:

Bible Complete—Muslim, Red Edges—$6.50
Persian Morocco, gilt—11.00
Turkey—14.00

Inasmuch as our edition is in many ways preferable to the English style, and yet is sold at but little more than half the English prices for a similar volume, it seems reasonable for us to hope that the advantage of purchasing from us will be manifest when the agent shall properly exhibit the work. Please look it over carefully, when brought to your notice, because every Protestant family the Bible in revised form, and the volume we offer is excellently adapted to family use. The best is the cheapest,
My Dear Father

I am well and in good health. I will be in town at the First of June. My car will be here at 9 o'clock. I have no money at present but I hope to have some before long. I am looking forward to seeing you again.

left open. Dr. C. A. Almy, I wish to ask your opinion as to his qualifications for the position. A. B. Sherrill, the Pastor at Omaha, for that office.

While learning and general culture and enthusiasm in study are necessary to be the greatest need of earnest minds, self-control, good judgment and power to secure the good will and cooperation of the other teachers and the young men and women of the College.

Nearly all our Colleges seem to be in a somewhat revolutionary condition as to the government; and there is need of a more faithful and far-sighted, controlling hand. The position offers a great opportunity for advising and far-sighted influence for good. We are exceedingly anxious to secure the right man, and ask confidentially your opinion as to the qualifications of Mr. Shreve.

With my great respect for you personally I am yours for the great cause.

Dear Friend,

The attached note from Mr. Heuis explains itself. It looks as if the matter were in a fair way of liquidation. This is the first affirmative action the gentleman has taken. I propose, therefore, to have him less negative and keep him in his present state of expectation.

Dear Harry,

Wait until you see me to-morrow. But let us not worry about the weather before I can get here. I am hard at work to straighten up the court cases. Thank you for coming.
