Gen. O. O. Howard

Commanding at Omaha

My Dear Bro.

Allow me a word concerning our community? We are not in any revival state, so called, at present The most that can be said is that we shall give a candid hearing to the word of the Lord.

Three of our active business men are laid very much aside from labor, and may very likely not recover, The public mind, the better part of it, is soured somewhat, Our church is harmonious and united,

All christians will unite in The services of Monday Evening - It will appear as an unde-nominational services, The people will enjoy a large and genuine message of love from The Great Father, & Great Brother, They will relish the truth in the hearty earnestness of military manners -

The Centurians of the New Testament story, are rare characters every way. Such words, as came warm from such souls, melt right through all chills and apathy -

God will give you message, Holy Spirit will inspire you, God will bless our meeting -
This shall be our prayer -

Yours Truly,

James B. Gilbert

Sir

I am informed that you lecture (or intend too) on the Battle of Gettysburg. if so will you be kind enough to inform me, and also the price to posts. Walnut is in the east end of Pottawattamie Co and has a population of about 1500. Has an Opera house with 400 seats. Six years ago we organized a post here (No 13.) and soon after were burned out. Now we have started again & wish to make it as interesting as possible.

Respectfully yours

Vancouver Barracks.

Novem. 24th 1885.

My dear General:

Mr. Lutz & I are fairly settled in this post, having moved for the second time yesterday. We are now living in the cottage formerly occupied by Lieut. Ross. It is the one next west of Major Boyles. Directly opposite is the old Hqrs. Building, now occupied by two Cos. of Infantry. East and West are new barracks every other one being on the same line with the building referred to and alternate ones placed at right angles with its end to the front line. So you can imagine they look pretty thick. I assumed command of my company the second day after arriving and duties soon crowded thick and heavy upon me. I was soon marched on as officer of the Day and the first week attended all roll-calls, including Reveille. The Tattoo and Retreat were, of course, of little account but Reveille I could not learn to like.

There is no use in my yielding to the temptation to tell you of the changes at this post, for you have often heard of them.

But it makes homesick to go about this post and see none of the old familiar faces of those who were here in 1880. And then to pass your old house and not be able to run in familiarly makes me realize that I have indeed left you.

For the first few days I was indeed blue and homesick, so much so that I regretted that I had not applied to be retired and remained in Omaha. But I buckled down to my new duties with a determination to learn them and that, and nowing has kept me much engrossed.

We spent most of the first week at Isaac's. Her children are very handsome, but the baby leads them all. She is the handsomest, brightest, cunningest, smartest baby I ever saw. We never tired of watching her cunningness. You can never appreciate her until you see her and you ought to see her before she grows much older.

We spent a Sunday in Portland and many were the enquiries about you and yours.

I met Mr. Shindler who asked most affectionately after you. He says his boys now carry on his business. He seems to have aged rapidly. Mr. Wakefield, Mr.
Atkinson and others remember you most kindly.

I suppose Grace wrote Mrs. Howard about the robbery. As soon as I discovered it in the morning I feared for Grace's silver which was all in the sideboard, and so I hurried down stairs but, fortunately, it had not been touched though standing most temptingly by the window through which the robbers made their exit. As the work my new military overcoat I have hoped they might be traced, but thus far nothing has been heard from the property. I have seen Gen.
Lippin but once, as he has been away most of the time from here since my arrival.

Col. Henry Clay Wood is the same as ever, and so is Mrs. Wood. They have been very kind to me and mine. Col. Lazelle I have not seen as he left here for India a few days after I came.

Col. De Russy is in command and his familiar face was a pleasant sight for me.

Wood (F. G. S.) has just collected his fee on the great Labrous case, and so he is in clover, but he has had a very hard time of it to make both ends meet. From what Mr. Wood says I judge they have, at times, been in great straits. But he is cheerful and hopeful, just as Wood always is.

Remember me kindly to Mrs. Sandy, ^{and} Brook, Dr. Summers, Col. Henry & Ball and all the other officers -

Mrs. Shaver joins me in love to yourself, Mrs. Howard and all the children.

Affectionately yours
Shaver.

Dear Sir: Omaha, Neb.

Your letter of Nov. 11. is received. "Resaca" was published before "Tunnel Hill & Dalton" because the printer did not have the latter in time. I intend, however, to republish it in Dec. in its proper place. You will find, I think, the Dec. number a better one than Nov.

Yours very respectfully,
