Dear Bro.

[Dec. 1885]

I am on the go now, nearly all the while - Revival work on every hand, never saw the like. I have written you a letter as you advised, for your friend East. Oh I pray that God will open his heart, your visit was a benediction. Our young people will not forget it, it was a rich treat to us all. It brought us in a good income, & "we must have him again" is heard on every hand.

Colonel
I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your communication in regard to Private Simon P. Williams, Troop B, 9th Cavalry. There is no question of his stealing the harness and finally of his disposition of them, which led to his arrest. Prior to this his company had lost many things, usually money, by some adroit thief, and Williams had been suspected. Since his arrest there have been no thefts from the men.

of you, and yours from time to time, I have longed for news from headquarters.

No, dear General, you are neither cut, nor neglected, at heart, for I have your picture on my stand in a leather case opposite Mr Crawford's, and if I have not written you every day, I have looked upon your picture and given you many a pleasant thought, as I go about my daily tasks, I say, tasks, but I really have very few - few can boast of a life so free from care, as I - and few seem so I shall try and not let such a long time elapse again, before letting you know what I am not married and you may be sure when the time comes you will be among the first to know.

Brooklyn Dec 1st 1865

My dear General

You cannot imagine the pleasure your letter gave me this morning, and you came very near receiving one from me, ^{at the same time} for I have sat down at this desk several times within the past month, intending to write you, when something would call me away - and so the months have slipped away, and tho' I have heard contented and happy in their lot, as I, tho I have always been that, and do not wish for a change in that respect.

Your imagination has gone ahead with me altogether too fast, for we are neither in our own house, or am I married, and not even ill.
Mr Crawford is just as constant and truer than ever, but his brother is to be married in two weeks, who has been engaged for three years, and we think our wedding in the family a year, plenty, besides we have not been engaged a year yet, and, it has proved such a short, happy eleven months, that we are neither of us in a hurry to step off the bridge into the stream just yet. But before next Autumn has passed I expect we shall finish this chapter, and have opened a new one, I am very happy General, Mamma is ever more so, and Mr Crawford grows ^{ever} more so ^{than she}.

Every day, so the trio is just as full of joy as is possible in this world.

Mamma and I still remain here, as our house is rented until the first of May, and we think it larger than we can manage at first, so we shall try to find something in New York, near the store.
I have been wondering, when you off in May? Unless you come and see me now, I am afraid our chances of seeing one another will be few, for I can't run away any more unless Mr Crawford can leave business and his vacation each year is short. But "where there's a will there's a way" I say, and I am anxious to show the West to the young man; in fact I think the Yellow Stone Park would be a fine wedding trip don't you? and I suggest this or Popocatepette as my choice - at which the young man shakes his head, looks as if he would

2 are coming East next time, I would be the proudest body around, if it could possibly be arranged for you to come on with Mrs Howard for the wedding, which will be as simple and pretty as it can be made in the little church which my father helped build and where we all three have still our membership. It seems most fitting that the ceremony should be there, as I have no home and the new home is to be so small -
But of course I am looking far ahead, but do you suppose you could come on if the ceremony should come like to gratify my only desire and gently rubs his pocket - But I shall not give up hoping just yet. I followed you last Summer and was at Marblehead when the news of John's accident reached me - I intended to have written you there, but the newspaper reports were very meagre, and I did not know what to say, but I am glad he is up again and that the rest of you, all keep well.

We heard, ~~via~~ Washington that Mr Howard was going to Germany this Winter, and I had half expected to see her here before sailing - but you still have her with you it seems -

We have a very good friend near us, who is very strong in his admiration for you, indeed he reminds me constantly of you, by his kind, genial good will for all men, and especially the negro - I mean Mr Freeman Garrison Smith, whose pians you use -

And he says - if you ever come East again, he wants to put your pians in thorough repair - in fact he thought of coming up to West Point to see you, but feared to intrude - It is a great pleasure to me to meet such ~~men~~, broad, him, and people who think a great deal of me, consider us an exceedingly well matched pair, that this gentleman is good enough for me!!

He is too good, I think and I spend a great deal of time trying to puzzle out, the reason why I should have been this choice, from so many very desirable parties, but all to no purpose and he will never tell me.

It is a long time since I have heard anything from Grace, how is her health now, and what about the little ones?

I am busy in a quiet way, have two pupils in painting

³ wholesome men who knew, loved, and appreciated my Father - Mr Smith did not know you as well as my Father, but he knew of your work and of you, as do hosts of others.

I often think General, when one loses a few dear friends, and takes so much pleasure in their society, that it is a great pity to be separated, waiting time with this one and that, who are really nothing to one, it must be a happy union, that, which brings us all together once more - I often wish my Father might have lived to enjoy Mr Crawford - Everyone seems to like and am trying to study Spanish, but there are a great many interruptions, and progress is slow. A great effort is being made by the churches for a revival this Winter, and extra meetings are being held every night in some of the churches - and what is quite unusual the Episcopal church quite leads off in its Reunion:-

We heard Canon Farrar lecture on the "Salvum" and saw the opera of Carmen last week, and so the time goes on, bringing to us its round of pleasures and making the world seem a very happy place to dwell in, and I hope dear General that in your little corner it is even as bright, as it is here - I can picture you, these cool evenings in your parlor - and wish I might drop in and see you all - As it is, I can only send my love to all and each, hoping that at no very distant day I may be able to greet you all in my own little home, which we hope to have full of sunshine, if nothing else -

Do write and tell me if I may count upon your coming to the wedding with Mrs Howard

With a great deal of love to all the children and Mrs Howard - believe me Yours most devoted and constant little friend - M. E. Smith.

Dear Sir

You will please excuse my seeming boldness in addressing You. But I wished to beg You to have mercy on my poor husband. It was my fault that he deserted. I would rather You take and Imprison me than him. then he could at least work for his children here I am trying to earn my living by taking in washing & taking care of my little ones at the same time. And they have both been sick I have not had sufficient bedding to keep them warm or warm cloths. I had to carry the little and hold the other by the hand while I went from Door to Door looking for work One Ladie would tell me we have our girl to do our washing the other would say we have our washwomen the other would ask how can You work with 2 small Children I must make my living in some way and if I do have to sit up almost all night. I am willing to work hard for my little ones but I could not stand it very long for my strength is giving way.

You can have no Idea what I have had to suffer within the last few weeks I was told to my face that I was trying to make my living in a vile lowlife way. But let the worst come I would God will Will all things for Husband perhaps God is using this means of bringing us back to his fold for I have indeed been more thoughtful more thankful for the blessings that we daily receive. Sir if You will free my Husband I will work for You. I will rather then loose my Husband or have him sentenced give up my Children for 2 years and my work so hard and give You every cent of my earnings for 2 years and that would only be a short-time but to be should not survive the disgrace I would go mad. And Dear Sir

May we ask as a great favor that you will loan over the enclosed specimen pages of a new. Help in the Sabbath-school lesson prepared by Rev & Mrs. Melbur F. Craft which in several points is unlike any other now before the public

It aims to give special encouragement to memorizing Scripture, daily Bible reading, home study of the lesson, also the study of doctrines and the study of the Bible as a whole by supplemental lessons. It furnishes not only a commentary or exposition on each lesson, but it shows as well how to teach that lesson.

Most of all, it seeks to put that lesson so that it will lead to religious decision or action. We should be glad to receive your opinion of the plan to marry her, admitting of course a visit now & then, whenever that were convenient & possible.

As to our work here, there is some of it about. The school has no rules, even obliging attendance at recitation, when one is away he receives D. of course. But no conduct rules. Consequently some students get behind from laziness & neglect of study for pleasures. Hence when they try to catch up - it is as hard as if a student at West point had the same task & at the same time pursuing the regular studies of a higher class. Some students come here too young, or older, but too inexperienced & go astray. They learn almost too late to be men, & then they must work

711 Fulton St.,
Troy, N. Y.

My dear Father;

I have here three letters from you - unanswered. I have written mother & hence, you seeing the letters, I have put off answering your letter to me.

But this evening I shall write a few moments, laying aside my studies for a while.

First comes your letter of Nov. 14. You speak of my health. I put myself to a task which was all I could bear, but by carefully watching myself, I did not over work. I have a walk of six blocks to my meals, six going & six coming - I finish per day. Also I walk to the recitations several times per day.

The long hard pull of drawing the work of the year I shipped is now all done. I am not obliged to work so late nights, or to rise so early mornings.

I now rise at a little before eight and retire at about twelve.

Adelle's writes grandmother your letters it seems, and grandmother enjoys them.

I am glad she does write for Grandmother loves letters.

Next comes your letter of Nov 23 (dictated). I do not care for the National Tribune any more. You can keep all that same if you wish, or throw them away. It must be discontinued when the year is up, which is soon.

As for Johnny - Time seems the best thing for his needs, and if we wait patiently and pray believingly & earnestly, I know all will come out well. Of course we must not pray & sit wholly still ourselves always, but we must do so when we do not know how to work. I am glad John is reading the Chatauqua course. If that course be well learned, it is equal to the culture & education which some colleges now seem to give. If I had time I would take it up also.

If, in March, you become Quaker, I know that if John were to also go away, it would be the real test, with proper care of the whole connection with the chases, if he loves her earnestly & for her real final good, he would not mind a separation, until the fitting time the result. I have no time for papers, hence trust to my friends here to show me when anything important takes place.

Mrs. Green wife of the Director of the Institute, invited me to her house last evening & went with me to present me to a cultured christian wealthy family named Veil near her house. It was kind of her. I regret that I am so closely confined, but later I shall enjoy going there at proper intervals. Adellein writes me good words of christian letters. God has given me a lady of true christian character surely, and one who promises well to be a fit companion for me in my life's work & service to Him here on earth. For surely, the mission of christian belief does much to sustain God's altar in a home. With love to all Jennie hand indeed might go along for many months.

The College Branch of the Y.M.C.A. here is strong. It sustains the christian zeal surely of its members, and now & then sends a fellow student. But I spoke of in the meeting to-night (our weekly ^{meeting} of 1/2 hr) was the necessity of having "outsiders" feel that the meeting was for them too - perhaps especially - & to make them also happy, lighthearted, & able christian men.

I am striving steadily with Mr. Smith, of Buffalo. He should profess Christ & I must make him. He would now like to, but he dreads the "shock" of the re-encounter with his old acquaintances & friends among the wilder & more careless students.

I shall stick to this young man for a long time - he wd his heart wishes me to do so, & has said so. If at last he comes out all right, I shall turn him upon the other members of the small "fraternity" to which he belongs here & in which he is one of the two most powerful leaders.

Now I turn to your letter of Dec 5. The check for $50, came safely. I have now found the bankers here where I shall deposit & draw.
I do so for several reasons.

Especially because it is often very convenient not to have any money in one's pocket, especially if when, or student, who should not have it, comes to borrow money. If there are others here,

The students here have had a hard reputation. If many are even still surprised to hear that a Y.M.C.A. exists among them & has lasted two & one half years - It will last two. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the students are either active or associate members.

My bankers here are Neher & Carpenter, Bankers
No. 5, First St., Troy, N.Y.

I shall immediately send the money to Rev. Briggs which I borrowed, also pay my board room for Dec.
I have used an invitation for Guy & Jeanie for Xmas, but am not yet decided what I shall do then, for we have but 1 week free & it hardly pays to go so far.

I notice the Morrison Pangle

Dear Howard.
~~Dear Howard.~~ Yesterday in looking over the Kansas City paper
I saw that you were to lecture there last Tuesday night. If I had known of it in time would certainly have gone down to have heard you.
How about coming to Ottawa this winter. I am very much interested in the City Library & would like to have you come & deliver your lecture on Gen Grant for our benefit. Will

Mr. H. E. Sherrin
Attn. Mr.
Granville Co
Kansas

Be most happy to have you for our guest while here.
Now if you will be so kind as to inform me in regard to times & at what time it would be most convenient for you to come. There if they are with in our means" for we are not a very prosperous "body" I will be delighted to make arrangements for your coming.
With love to Miss Bessie, Mr Sherrin &
the children give me in kind regards to your self. Hoping to hear from you soon. Very respectfully
