Washington, D. C., March 5th 1886

Gen. O. O. Howard, U. S. A., Omaha, Neb.

My dear General:

A somewhat extraordinary case of an enlisted man who wishes to be discharged the service, has come to my knowledge, & I feel very much interested for the man whose story bears upon its face the imprint of truth. He is stationed at present in your Department, being at Fort Lanamie. His name is Robert Von der Goltz, & he is a private in Co. C. 7. U. S. Inf. His story is about as follows:

He enlisted on April 21, 1885. On Novbr 26, 1885, he married a widow with eight small children, the oldest only 14 years old, in committing which rash act, he little thought that he might have to leave them (they are at Columbus, O.) In less than two weeks after his marriage, he was transferred West & has been there ever since. While his wife nominally owns property in Columbus, she practically does not, as it is under the care of an administrator & all she derives from it is $30. a month for herself & children to live on. She has been very ill since her last marriage, is now a confirmed invalid; is totally unable to do anything for her support, & although her husband sends her every month the $13⁰⁰ he earns, she does not, of course, have enough to live & in consequence, has been obliged to contract debts. She made an application to the Secretary of War to discharge her husband. The request was referred to the commanding officers of the Co. & Regt., & as far as is known, both of them favorably endorsed it. The request was then referred to the Commanding Officer at Columbus Bks., O., for investigation & report, & that Officer on the strength of the real estate owned (?) by the wife, evidently was misled & reported adversely, as the Secretary soon thereafter declined to discharge the soldier on the ground that "the interests of the service will not admit of the request being complied with."

Now, is not this a sad case, & one in which it is not out of place to grant a man's request for discharge? Are we then, so hard up for soldiers that we must keep men in the Army who have a family of nine persons to look after? This man's family must suffer because the husband & father can not attend to their wants; strangers attend to what property they have; debts are incurred, & all because of the hard rules not to let an efficient soldier go until his term of enlistment has expired. It is true the man should have had sense enough not to marry while in the Army, but having committed the error through an evident misapprehension of fact, it is assuredly an excusable one, & it is neither fair nor just, in my opinion, to have the man, his wife & his stepchildren suffer for four years or more, in consequence of it.

Do me the kindness to consider this case, if you can do so, in a spare moment or two, & if you believe, as I do, that he should not be retained in service on the statement of facts above given by me, will you write a letter to the Secretary of War expressing your opinion, & send it to me? It would be of much value to me in another effort which I propose making for this soldier's release. I propose to personally lay the matter before the Secretary himself, & I think on a proper presentation of all the facts, he will reverse his former decision.

If you feel justified in granting my request, I shall esteem it a great favor if you will do so. As I said before, I have become considerably interested in this case, & I wish to do all I can for the man, not for pecuniary interests but have even been deprived of position & pay. I am contented that we all have home, clothing, food & good friends. Do you ever think of the bonds which unite you to your friends. Some men are united to their friends by ties of mutual self-interest, of mutual dependence in their schemes &c. But you are united to your friends by the bonds of Christian fellowship, philanthropy, mutual respect, & the service of a common Master.

It matters very little (except to our blind or short sighted eyes) what rank or position we hold in earthly matters among men.

As to your work in this world & what you have accomplished, with God's blessing: I can tell of a result 168.

711 Fulton street,
Troy, N.Y. March 5, 1856.

To General A. A. Howard

My beloved Father:

Yesterday evening I heard of the appointment of another, in the place which we had all hoped would be given to you. I had to study hard last night & all day to-day until now. It is nearly six o'clock now. I have returned to my room & I wish to write you a short letter before I take my supper.

I am sure that disappointment is felt by thousands of the best people of our land that you have not received the position.

But I am sure that this will be to you but a small trouble when compared with the wrong which God, in his place, has seen fit to have you undergo.

Certainly it is for some good that this is done & I am perfectly resigned to it.

I realize each day that the country is in the hands of persons who do not seem to have its general interests at heart. — persons who have selfish motives & ends.

But you can be sure that the number of your friends, among such people as you desire as friends, has increased. I have not seen a single newspaper which has approved the president's action in this matter.

The N.Y. Tribune has an excellent article in your praise &c. Other papers also.

But do not be disheartened or at all cast down — Just think of the thousands who not only have not been advanced in their grade of civil offices,

If it may be permitted I hope to receive of your spirit & Christian philanthropy - as Elisha did of Eliza. I am sure I strive to be more & more worthy each day of being a servant worthy of his life, "much has been given me"; Health, education, culture, travel, languages & the power of attracting others to me as friends in Christ; and now "much will be required": I have no fear for my future; - clothing & shelter & food will be provided - a way will open to me to leave that, for me & for the one who encourages me in what is Christian, pure & noble, & who hopes to help me during my entire life - even as she does spiritually by now. I hope you are well & will see Liza's hearty & abruptly put thoughts in this letter - but my duties here call me now. I am well with love from your sister

Dear Mother & Sister

of which you have probably not thought. It touches myself. As for me I have been much benefitted by the trials & struggles thro' which you have come.
It seems almost that I myself have passed thro' them in part, & that I have gained experiences which will serve me all my life, & that too while I still have (God willing it) many years to remain on this world. In a letter to Gen Sherman you are wont of your "desire to presume on unsullied record for my children's inspection" you have ^{been} & still strive to be an example for us - you have been & are for me. I write this gladly, now that it seems a proper and fitting time to do so.

In my heart I have always admired John Brown & his "spirit" such "good marching on". For at least 10 years ago I read of how his sons were faithful to him.

I am such to you.

Especially since my residence in Geneva, Switzerland, I have steadily become firmer in my resolve to take as my earthly models such men as yourself & De Gasperi.

A friend of men - especially to those who "lack the one thing needful" & also of those men, who are restless & dissatisfied in this life & who have not the time nor the opportunity for education. To such poor handworking men I can go, & help them. I find it so here in Troy. Late Tuesday evenings. I often need a body of the "labours" & their families. I can be spited, if I am bold enough to say that they are too.

Christian "labours", ^{or "workmen for wages"} have a peace & contentment which takes from them all discontent, & which prevents them from urging on or joining in ~~in~~ dissensions strikes. The labourer has his rights, but a Christian labourer never wishes more than his just dues.

You may feel sure that in this my generation I shall, God helping me, try to be to my fellow men, what you have been in your generation.

Dear father: The disappointment and chagrin caused by yesterday's news of General Terry's election so disheartened me that I could not write you. I am still at a loss to conceive on what ground the appointment was made, whether as a result of the way your original appointments were made, the decision is, that the President & Senate of that day did wrong in dating back your commission to let you continue to rank General Terry as you did in the Volunteer Army or whether it is a simple ploy now to reward General Terry for expounding Fitz John Porter's case and a rebuke to your so called extreme views in reference to Gen. Sheridan & his shortcomings. I saw a report of some injudicious proceedings of Baptist Ministers in Boston putting you forward as an anti-catholic champion which I was sorry for. I had hoped the President was too honest & too just to act on the ~~word~~ report. If it was on the first of course it is necessary to submit to the quirks of legal decisions by which the shadow is made to appear the substance & take the next place.

If it has been done in any spirit of approach to your work in education & reorganization in the South, it will make it necessary for you to again become prominent in helping the Republican party to reorganize itself as the party of human rights. I think many of the leaders will see this. So I think by far the best thing to do after reasonable representations to the President & Senate upon Military records alone is to wait & see, doing everything you can to keep in the best physical health and not to call upon yourself

Dear Genl Harwood

Yours note asking me to lead the meeting Sunday night just finds me in such a fix I hardly know what to say - Think in justice to myself I should decline.

I have not been well at all since the party at Mr Goodman's - a part of the time in bed & not able to go to the office.

Further our old friend Braeton's body is to be buried Sunday afternoon & if able I shall have to be there.

Last if the subject is temperance I should be a flat failure -

Sorry but I ought to decline.

Can I not try to be present & assist you in some way. If so advise me of the subject & day -

DEAR BROTHER:-

I HAVE THOUGHT IT EXTREMELY IMPORTANT TO TAKE WHAT STEPS WE CAN TO PREVENT ANOTHER OVERSLAUGH. I SAW CHARLIE MULLIGAN TODAY, AND HE PROMISED TO SEE MR. GOUDY, WHO IS A FELLOW MEMBER IN HIS FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND WHO IS THE MOST EFFICIENT DEMOCRAT IN CHICAGO WITH PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, UNLESS IT BE M. W. FULLER. MR. MULLIGAN THOUGHT HE COULD SECURE A GOOD LETTER TO THE PRESIDENT FROM MR. GOUDY. I HAVE ALSO BEEN TO SEE MELL. FULLER. HE SPEAKS OF YOU AS HIS COLLEGE MATE AND SEEMS TO TAKE A PERSONAL INTEREST IN THE MATTER. HE, LIKE MR. GOUDY, IS A WILEY POLITICIAN AND LIFE LONG DEMOCRAT. HE IS GOING ON TO SEE THE PRESIDENT NEXT WEEK. HE PROMISED ME HE WILL DO WHAT HE CAN FOR YOU. HE HAS NO INTEREST IN PUSHING THE CLAIMS OF MILES OR CROOK, ALTHOUGH HE IS PERSONALLY ACQUAINTED WITH CROOK AND LIKES HIM. YET HE THINKS THERE IS NO GOOD REASON WHY THEY SHOULD BE PUT ABOVE YOU. HE THINKS THE COMPARATIVELY NEAR DATES BETWEEN YOU AND TERRY AND THE DISPUTE ON A TECHNICALITY AS TO WHETHER IT WERE STRICTLY LEGAL TO ANTE-DATE YOUR COMMISSION MAY HAVE HAD SOME WEIGHT WITH THE PRESIDENT, OR AT LEAST WAS PROBABLY TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF BY TERRY'S FRIENDS. YOU KNOW IT WAS A SORT OF DEATH STRUGGLE WITH TERRY, AS HE IS SO MUCH OLDER AND HAD HE NOT OBTAINED THE PROMOTION AT THIS TIME WOULD NEVER, IT WOULD SEEM,

Dear General

Your letter of the 4th reached me this morning, you must of course feel very much disappointed at not receiving the first promotion. But I take it for granted you will follow upon the retirement of Genl Pope, then, as Genl Ferry is three years your senior in years, the dates of commission as

Major General will not run so much to your disadvantage.

I am not yet prepared to decide as to my preference of commands. It is, to me, a complicated and somewhat difficult question. In the mean time, I would be glad to know your preference. Genl Terry will, I think, prefer San Francisco. I suppose we will not retirement; but - if any my own status earlier I will inform you.

At the meeting of the Citizens' Law and Order League of the United States, held in Cincinnati, on the 22nd and 23rd of February, the constitution was amended to provide for the support of the organization by five dollar memberships. Heretofore, the National League has had no scheme for raising money, and its expenses have been borne by a few of us, who at the same time, had the work to do.

It is very desirable that a membership as strong as possible may be secured at once throughout the country. I send you ten certificates of membership and trust that you will secure at least that number of members in your vicinity.

when I think of your splendid
