Gen. C.C. Howard

Dr. Sir,

The Order whose Circular I enclose have been discussing the advisability of taking an active part in assisting to inaugurate an Arbor day on this Coast by participating in the planting of trees on Goat Island. Though English born or the Sons of Englishmen many of them are citizens of the United States & they of the remainder of their Brotherhood are deeming it proper to show their appreciation of & devotion to the interests of their adopted country, or present home in the manner above mentioned.

The reason for bringing this to your notice is to get some information on the following points:

Has any other Order or Society expressed the intention of taking part in the proceedings? If so, please send the name.

Can any space be set aside for us, if so, what size space & whereabouts on Goat Island.
And there be any objection to our planting our trees on the front lot apart for us in the form of a St. George's Cross, if so, we would be willing to plant them in some other shape. Has been positively decided on. Also please give us any other information that you may consider useful in the matter.

I communicated with Mr. futuro on this subject & he replied offering to supply the trees, but referring me to you for information on the above points.

Your reply will much oblige.

Yours respectfully for the Committee

ORDER
SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

TO OUR FELLOW-COUNTRYMEN:

This Order, for which only Englishmen, their sons and grandsons are eligible, was organized in the State of Pennsylvania by a few Englishmen during the Molly Maguire outrages and assassinations, who painfully felt the necessity of union among their fellow-countrymen. Its success since that time has been remarkable, and its advantages to Englishmen incalculable. To day the Order has a membership of about 20,000, nearly every State being represented.

The aims and objects of our Order are beneficial and social, the benefits being a weekly payment in case of sickness, with the services of a first-class physician, and a death benefit on the decease of a brother or his wife. The social advantages are great. Members become acquainted in a short time with hundreds of their countrymen pledged to active and brotherly help, all glad to meet and enjoy themselves in native fashion. Thus warm friendships are fostered, which tend alike to social as well as to material benefit; indeed, it may fairly be said that the beneficial results which are the outcome of our social intercourse are the more substantial, as it is obvious that in a society limited to individuals of English nationality, brought together in this country, more real interest in one another is apt to be engendered than in mixed societies of various nationalities, where it would be out of place to give prominence to national preferences.

Social gatherings are occasionally held to which the wives, daughters and sisters of members are invited and welcomed, so that they may become acquainted with each other, thus making lasting friendships, because cemented by memories of their native land.

Lodges of this Order have been organized in this city and in San Francisco. The membership of Allion Lodge, No. 206, Oakland, which meets every Friday evening at Shattuck Hall, cor. 8th and Broadway, is rapidly increasing, and has some of our most prosperous and respected citizens upon its rolls.

These gentlemen willingly concede the great benefits to be derived from such an Order.

This circular is issued to Englishmen, their sons and grandsons, for the purpose of calling their attention to the claims of our Order, and in the hope that other Englishmen, as yet strangers to our members, may become acquainted with us, and decide to cast their lot with us, and aid in perpetuating the history, heritage and memories of our native land.

It may be added that the Order does not concern itself with the religious or political opinions of its members, neither is there in its elements anything antagonistic to this the country of their adoption, nor likely to lead to any ill-feeling or jealousy. Our society seeks only the unification of Englishmen in this country for good and wholesome purposes, conducive alike to the benefit of its members and to the general welfare of this country.

The cost of membership is as follows: For Beneficial Members, 75 cents per month, which entitles the member to $7 per week in case of sickness, including physician. For Honorary Members, $3 per year.
Gentlemen,

I should have called on you before this but somehow I have been prevented, and as I have several engagements in the next few days I do not know that I can name a day, but will try and drive over to your place on next Friday about one o'clock. There are some things we ought to talk over, for as long as our names have been prominently mentioned in connection with

My dear J. F.

When your kind letter was received this morning that already bent the incline of a rising sun to send you word as the action is of no difference from what I think any more need of writing. I am confident that you are not anxious for the movement. To relieve the Colone and to make it possible that there be some faith in what those who have gone for work have been seen.

To complete the Coupon.
Stop all work at the bit of cord and apparatus for which money has been appropriated to relieve the debt would parallelize the result of the offices. To relieve the user of their work make the end of the McPherson line the boat. To relieve the女朋友 turned them this plan into the warship of the Grand Army Corps. I agree that the plan of the Guardian Townsend for the Convicts would be a very promising enterprise proceeding. I like the idea and other 5 men tomorrow and continue until all the details are worked out.

Are 4th another. But you it is really too bad to break up this part of the manner proposed. I thank you here for the kind expressions of regard. Your figures I am assured you greatly appreciate your interest in my case. Very truly,
