To:

Genl. W. D. Howard
Comdg. Dept of California
Presidio de San Francisco.

Sir.

Some time ago when Co "D" 1st U.S. Infantry was stationed at this Post the following named members of said company came to me to take music lessons promising to pay for tuition as soon as they should receive their pay from the Government. They received their pay just prior to leaving here for Angel Island, paid their whiskey bills but did not pay me, the poor music teacher, who has a family to support and gave them extra low rates for tuition.

The names of these members of Co "I" are:

"Henry L. Dawson

"Louis J. Evans

and Ellsworth Wheeler."

After the company had left here and I did not know to whom to write I stated the facts to Capt. Markland, Comdg. said Co

2. who sent me the enclosed note from the men acknowledging their indebtedness with the Captains endorsement (Exhibit No. 1.)

In response thereto I again wrote to the men receiving as an answer the enclosed insulting epistles marked 2. and 3.

I requested their signature to promissory notes and therefore received their enclosed message.

Knowing their message to be to the prejudice of good order and military discipline I beg leave to submit to you these facts and respectfully request you to see what can be done in the matter in my behalf.

All the enclosed Exhibits are originals.

Please inform me through the proper channels what action can be taken.

Most Respectfully

Prof. Alfred Lurben.

I forwarded the original
letter, from men of Company "I," as
an acknowledgment
of their indebtedness
to Professor Furber;
and as a promise
to pay him the
coming pay day;
for this was said
before.

I will collect
the amount - and
send it to Professor Furber.

respectfully, returned.

The enclosed letter of January. 16, is very clearly an acknowledgment of the men's
indebtedness to Mr.
Lueben and their
intention of paying him.
In matters of this nature, I do not interfere; if Mr.
Lueben chooses to let
men contract debts
for such an unnecessary
thing to them as music,
he will have to collect
the best way he can.

After their promise
to pay, it appears to me that he is un-
necessarily crowding
them.

As the years go by I think more and more of the old comrades and the old commanders. Looking back now, the five years I spent in the army form the chief recollections of an ordinarily busy life, and the time spent in the Fourth Corps and in the "Freedmans' Bureau, in Texas, seem to cover the greater part of that period. Please pardon my delay in replying to the kind note in which you so generously place the war maps in the keeping of our Buckle Library. When you first spoke of them as a loan, as I wrote you, I felt reluctant to deprive you of them. But your note of explanation is so satisfactory that I accept the loan in the same kind spirit in which it is offered, with many and sincere thanks for your generosity and the trouble you have taken on my account.
