My dear Sir:

Many thanks for your letter which reached me late last evening.

Gen. Bingham had previously offered me the Agency at Mojave, but as I had been there & we learned from inquiry that the heat was at times very severely there, and sand storms were of frequent occurrence, both of which would be troublesome to me, he decided not to send me there.

My poor head, or whatever is in it, is not in a good healthy state. Suffer exceedingly from headaches & neuralgia which are always increased by heat & wind, and I find this climate agrees with me.
As well as not better, than any I have lived for some time. My twelve years service during the war before I resigned the Army has left its impressions on that part of my body, and was one of the reasons that made me decide to leave the East for California.

At all events, if he decided to remove one from here, may 12th 44 to use your influence so the end that the change may not come into effect for a couple of months, say the 12th May.

Thanks for your information about lands in the neighborhood of Mojave. Year without money, there is little chance for speculation. This place is improving. There is much more society here than formerly, consequently it is not so lonely. Pray give my kind regards to General Howard & Melvin. The enclosures join.

I am now 65 years old, 1905 settle here.

Dear S.Y. Cable, 22d Ave. Napa
San Francisco Co.

My dear Sir: Since your last letter was written, I have thought it perhaps better to explain the position that refers to my wish to remain here till the 12th May or thereabouts. My life is insured for $5,000 for the benefit of my family, the premium of which is $200 a year.

My next payment occurs in about five months, and it takes a great deal of finanncing to support my family in San Francisco, and meet this payment. And as moving always takes more or less ready money, it would see a great object for me to remain here till that payment.
Was made — I have thought it must to write you in a friendly & explicit manner as your's to me was couched in the same terms. Do what you can for on both these points a great will oblige me, an old Army Officer.

You are acting to make me so, these letter may may you think well.
My dear General,

I notice that the Adjutant General of the State in his orders to the Staff of the Governor has announced that an invitation is expected from the Governor to the Governor's Staff to join you in the Review on the 22nd inst.

Pardon me therefore for reminding you of the same, as I am sure the Governor will take pleasure in doing it at an early date in order that his staff will have time to make their preparations.

Very sincerely yours,

Genl. O.C.O. Howard,

Dear General,

Yours of 27th ulto was duly received and referred to General Effingame, Bishop Brown, on yesterday.

From his conversation it appears evident to me that he has no idea of paying the note, and as it is outstanding it is not due in my capacity.

I have made several efforts to get his admission as to the note now existing, but he has carefully avoided giving it. He said yesterday that he had no idea what the note was given for but thought it was an interest out of the Second House in which Hall had an interest and that this he had settled up in June. He made no attempt to explain any evidence. I am not sure yet this note, as General can we get our copy in order as to what this note was for?
Dear Bishop Brown,

I would ask that when you are in the city of Philadelphia, you would see Dr. X again.

Yours truly,

Allen Rutherford.

Mr. Howard

My dear Sir,

The war of 1861 and 1865 would lead one to believe that there were not two of the most pointed articles of commerce for the Congregationalist Advocate. Weak now in absolute need after all our hard work for a cause. Two of our trustees have been lobbying in the legislature. I have introduced a bill to turn Franklin Academy over to the state for a normal school. I am standing with other trustees as a rock of support in.

We have put in $1000 for property in our funds abroad, for a Christian school. Over 1000 80 shillings have been in three sacred offerings. Tell them that what money I have raised for Mr. is simply cannot be given to the State of Nebraska. Your kind col. age is forever in the wish to turn it over. The cleanse is the sufferer an army. They are staggering under the load, you seconded $500, for us please write me a brief note yearly the secondness of each donation. Yrs. Col. [Signature]
