now General I would kindly ask you, whether there is any prospect for me, of getting some position of any ~~kind~~ sort.
I do not like yet, to go to the Soldiers Home, if I possibly can do something else yet, in the hopes, that I may hear from my appeal soon.

in same capacity - while you were in command Came to see me to day and says that he cannot get a pension because he can find no one who remembers of his being injured otherwise his claim is complete.

He stated that while in Sth Carolina while on the march to Columbia his horse fell throwing him and breaking his ankle - that the surgeon was away at the time and that a stranger (Dr.) set the fractured one whom he did not know and has never

Bien cher Monsieur le Général,

Je regrette d'autant plus de n'avoir pu vous voir

hier qu'il m'est impossible de sortir aujourd'hui avant 4 h. P. M. Et le cas est pressant.

Hier, un Allemand m'a dit que la société allemande

"Deutscher Unterstützung Gesellschaft" procure de l'ouvrage et occasionnellement accorde des secours à des personnes nos Membres mais parlant la langue allemande. Ne serait ce pas là quelque chose pour M<sup>r</sup> Zimmermann ? Cette société est riche et, avec quelques mots de vous, il me semble que M<sup>r</sup> Z. serait secouru de suite.

Je devrais disposer à présent encore cinq dollars à M<sup>r</sup> Limmemann; à repordre pour dix même, pour-vu que cela finisse. Mais je suis trop pauvre pour les avancer sitôt après ce que j'ai déjà avancé.

Le bureau de cette Société Allemande de Bienfaisance est dans la rue California, près Kearny.

J'ai vu votre portrait, j'aimerais bien le voir quand il sera achevé.

Je regrette beaucoup de ne pouvoir aller moimême chez vous pour terminer cette affaire si possible aujourd'hui.

D.V. Dimanche, mon sujet sera "Le livre de Ruth."

C'est avec beaucoup d'affection et de respect,

Dear O. Howard,
Dear Friend.

Dr. Payson tells me he has written you. I suppose you will be nicely entertained. I sent you one of the programmes yesterday. The prospects are good for a nice Convention. 35 delegates have reported so far, and several yet to hear from.

The Evening Meeting Sunday will have to be in the "Baptist Tabernacle" after all, as our "Citrus Fair" will not close until Saturday night, and Horticultural Hall cannot be gotten ready in time. I hope that the dear Lord may give you strength and power to do for us as you did for the brethren in Oakland. I feel the future of our work depends very largely upon the results of this Convention.

Very truly yours.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 3. }

I. The troops of the Second Brigade, except the Fifth Infantry Regiment, will parade on Tuesday, February 22d, 1887, in observance of Washington's Birthday.

II. The Commanding Officers of the First and Third Infantry, with their regiments, and the Commanding Officer of the Second Artillery, with the foot companies of his regiment, will report to the Assistant Adjutant-General at the Presidio, on the main drill-ground, at 2 o'clock, P. M., each regiment being previously equalized in eight commands of twelve files, double rank. The Commanding Officer of Light Battery A, Second Artillery, will report at the same place and hour, with battery mounted, to Captain W. L. Haskin, Brevet Major U. S. Army, commanding Light Battery K, First U. S. Artillery. The Commanding Officer of the San Francisco Hussars will report with his troop at Brigade Headquarters at 1 o'clock, P. M., for escort duty. After performance of this duty, he will report to Major Frank T. Bennett, commanding Troops A and K, Second U. S. Cavalry.

III. For review by Major-General O. O. Howard, United States Army, the troops of the Second Brigade above designated will be united with such troops of the United States Army as may be present, and will form on their left in each arm of the service. The review will be followed by a drill of the foot troops, which will close with a dress parade in line of masses, after which the Brigade will be dismissed.
