dearer than any one I know of for now was my fathers General and he thought everything of you so you seem more like an uncle than anything more distant. I have been thinking for the past year of getting a job of engraving in California some where and that is why I ask about the papers there. If I come there I will come and see you. Please dont overlook my many questions. Long may you live and your shadow never be gaunt.

Write soon.

With kind regards and many good wishes I remain Fraternally yours.

Chas P. Rowland.

P.S. Remember I said I would do the handsome thing with you if you would accomodate me. You done it and I shall fulfill my promise soon as convenient.

Oliver P. Howard,
Major Gen. U.S.A.

My dear General. I recived your letter and welcome it was indeed Thank you for saying Brady of N.Y. for I did not know where to find him and if I had I wanted to hear from the Gen. But see hear. You spoke as if the picture in the Century intended to parade your valor.
Why General I never looked at it that way I hope I did not insinuate anything like that. I did not mean to. but if I did and you will apologize I will forgive you for I never bear any malice to you in this world. I shall not infuse vanity into your appearance in my painting. You shall look just as tender animated graceful and dignified as any man can be. I am afraid I cannot do you justice though. General if you were to have a painting of yourself would you have it of 20 years ago or now. I forgot to ask the color of your eyes and hair being bare headed this will be an important thing. Also your brothers and your complexions. Of course I would not want to paint your eyes black if they were blue nor gray if they were hazel. Neither would I care to paint your hair sorrel if it was black nor I suppose it was nor brindle if was brown. I have wrote Brady for a photograph of you like the one in Century, how do you like the one in the Century. I also wrote for one of your brother and one of your John F Reynolds. If I get one of your Brother I guess I will put him on that farther horse. I think he will look good on that horse. I always did think & Halleys looked nice under most any circumstances. I wish I could put the noble face of Gen. Reynolds in that picture. I will paint him separate. ~~What~~ How sad to think such a tender and valiant life should be put out so untimely. I have a painting of Hon Robt. Lincoln which I made from a wood cut and the hair is sort of a brindle and the eyes grey and every girl who sees it and some of the old widows seem to think that they would almost give their place in heaven for such a nice man as Bob. but they never think of the woe before artist. I suppose they would as soon give their place on earth as to have me. I never asked them. Will you please tell me the illustrated publications in San Francisco. Also your age your Birthday and your brothers address. If I cannot get your picture of Brady I guess I will write to your brother and see if he has one that he will lend me. Under the circumstances it is very important that I should have a good photo and I suppose Brady has it.

I will send you a leaf of my album for the autographs of yourself your wife and your children if you have got any if you have I would like very much to hear from them.

Please do not think I have flattered you intentionally. I have all the respect in the world for you General for your sun bear and

General Board,

Dear Sir:

I would oblige you very much if the debt contracted by Mrs. Cooper, could be paid to-morrow, Mar. 1st.

Providing she does not obtain employment so as to be able to return the amount to the church funds, I will refund it in a month or two. Just now I greatly need it to help me over a business crisis.

Most respectfully yours,

S. H. T. P. Warburton

Dear Friend

Geo D'Haan

I write you a line to say that a meeting of stockholders of the J.S.
Co you can be called in March 14th at our office 420 Pitt St and for the purpose of asking a vote to authorize the sale of the property at a certain sum or rather to fix a minimum price at which or more it may be sold - we have had an offer of £ 80,000 and of course

Sale at a loss will all at the appraised -

Lawyers think an act of Congress will be required to sell - or give good title - if so it will likely delay the sale a year but I hope
some other way may be found by which we can sell at one and divide the proceeds

Mr E S Turner as he at his day have a few weeks sun and we were glad to hear of your welfare -

Genl Rutherford has called to see me several times about the Stock & I find he has a proxy from you which he has all that is necessary

I am sorry to say Mr Hart is suffering a great deal from rheumatism otherwise the family is well - with this regard to Mrs Howard yourself

Dear Sir

I write you to see if I can get any information in regard to my An Sandy Lane who I hear was in the United States Army in Texas. I heard that he was discharged several years ago. He was a Slave before the War and belonged to Mrs Catherine Smith near Warrenton. Any information that you will be able to give me will be gratefully received by his mother.

Anny. Lane.
