Washington, D.C. Sept 30 1887

Mr. C. O. C. Howard

Dear General,

I forget to enclose Receipt for Premium paid on Life Policy when I wrote you at the 18% rate. As you know I have been very sick.

Very truly yours,

Allan Rutherford
Cavela, Sept 30

My dear General:

I beg to inform you that I have instructed Eddie to receive the $110 which Mr. Rice the Chief Clerk refunded me. We will then dispose of October 1st. Eddie will hand $50 to his mother and have the honor to remit to you (or to Lt. Chase for you) $60 dollars on account of my indebtedness of $100 to yourself. The remaining $40 dollars...
To General O.C. Howard

San Francisco
Cal.

I shall be happy to hear from you personally with my sincerest thanks after my return to settlement of accounts.

I am very grateful for your kind visit to my people. The little one, I am told is better than the war before her last sick spell.

Harry and his bride have returned from Europe and are at the hotel.

Yours most truly,
Joseph Emile Delamur
Dear Sen. Howard:

I want to know something about Sen. Ch. [Chesman]'s home life. I wonder if you can help me to anything. I am writing a few papers for the Golden Rule. You and I know pretty well; but, I should be glad of any illustrations of [it], which are characteristic.

Do you never come this way? I should like to show you "Highland Manor," our new farm. I am running it to keep clean in my church.

Very truly,

[Signature]

General:

I have no material for a report at this time except the fact that Mr. Handy has returned two days ago from his assignment to San Francisco where he was sent by the trespassers, who held a meeting and resolved to make an effort in the direction of appeal to the courts. Since Handy's return Fred Bourne & many others have been freely talking about their success in having obtained an injunction or stay of proceeding for the time being! They are careful about letting me have any direct information, but it is volunteered to me freely enough by other parties whose interest does not lay with those trespassers. Of all the hypocrites, Fred Bourne is the worst and of all the blowers Mr. Hornbrook, who followed Handy to the city, as self-appointed adviser, takes the palm. Regarding that injunction or any of proceedings, yourself of course must know what I only hear mentioned as general rumor. I have the honor to remain, Yours very respectfully, Henry C. Delahay
