My Dear Sir,

Your note of Sept. 24th came duly to hand and ought to have been replied to earlier, but the pressure of works prior to the Convention prevented my doing so.

I laid your offer to lecture for us on Feb. 27th, 1888 and terms before our Social and Literary Committee, and while they are, like myself, very anxious to secure your presence, they feel they cannot do so at present.

We appreciate your kindly interest in our work and only regret that we are not in a position to accept your offer.

Yours cordially,

John

Washington, D.C., Oct 7, 1889

My dear General,

This will be handed to you by Mr. Geo. F. Washley, agent for this Bureau on the Pacific.

I have been requested by Mr. C. C. Lyman to commend him to you as a gentleman of a high character and integrity.

I trust he will prove a valuable acquaintance and quite an acquisition to your neighborhood.
The cause in which I have embanked, dear friend, is almost philanthropic, in promoting the investment of savings for widows and orphans. This is really the biggest thing in the world and any letter or word or other introductions or cooperation you can lend to Wallace will help in the good cause to which I am devoted.

Yours truly,

Dear General Howard 964

The indications are that work will be commenced very soon on the new Military Post near here, and Mrs. Williams and I were wondering whether possibly a contract Surgeon might not be employed during the Winter or until some permanent has been made with the work. The condition of my health became so serious that last Spring that I was obliged to give up my practice in Brooklyn and return to Colorado. Mrs. Williams came with me and my wife and children joined us a little later. In June Mrs. Williams returned East and accompanied Sepheriah abroad. Now they back here and will spend the winter with us. I am just beginning practice in Denver and if it turned to farming that I could get permanent as Contract Surgeon for a little while, it would be a great help. I do not know whether this post is included in your appointment, but I write in any way as you may possibly be able to give me some information or suggestion that will be helpful about the service of a contract long service required. Besides and as Lady friend who is accompanying us are attending medical lectures. We are hoping they will like Colorado as well that they will all be long enough stay with us beyond this winter. Jemee is still at this time, I believe hope you that we go on the line of Transcontinental travel he will not pass through without stopping.
to the U. Mrs. Williams had a pleasant little trip with your mother and Mr. Eillie Gilbert to Matinot this spring. The family have sent best wishes love to you all.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir,

E, & E. St. John is going to address a children’s mass meeting on Sunday afternoon, the 20th inst, and it is Rev. F. Turner’s intention to have twenty or more cadets in uniform present to pay a tribute to him — and to advertise the cause also!

I think we might perhaps enlist his services to the extent of speaking “a good word” for us on that occasion — and I am intending to call upon him Thursday P.M. 20th inst, and should be very glad if you would honor me with your company and make the call a joint affair” — as I
I presume you already know from my appointment on the "Committee on Tablet Templars" by the Grand Lodge of Good Templars.

I enclose copy of my report that you may read what I recommended regarding the organization.

I will call at your office at 1:30 P.M. on Thursday and if agreeable and convenient we can then arrange the hour for calling on Sir St. John.

Washington Pa., Oct. 20, 1867,

Major General,
O. O. Howard,

Dear Sir,

I write to ask you for information concerning a man who claims to have served through the war of the rebellion on your staff. He gives his name as Col. Walter H. Chase, say, he is by rank Lt. Colonel, that he enlisted in your regiment, went from Maine, was with you, on your staff at Gettysburg and through the South when you went with Sherman.
He is now an insurance agent in the Town of Hudson Falls, N.Y. where I am a pastor. (I am visiting for a few days in this town, Washington PA.) He has become a member of my congregation and wishes to become a member of my Church. I feel that it is proper for me to verify his statements concerning his own history. If you will tell me what you know of him and what confidence I may put in him, you will confer a great favor upon me.

Yours Truly,

George B. Lord.

Dear Sir,

A few days after the receipt of your kind favor of the 22 of August, I went to New York on a business trip. If I had been at home I should certainly have acknowledged in proper time your very valuable letter. Our church gave Mr. Cuzen a call, but for some reasons he thought best not to accept it. We are still looking for a minister. It is now just at the close of its first year with active membership over 100. Each subscription for building $300. Minister salary $200. Other expenses & maximum collection about $400. No debts. With a good leader we hope soon have a membership of 300 I think.

My little family are all well & the children remember you well. I am sorry that this is not at first as good as I thought it was Again thanking you personally for the Church for your prompt letter concerning Mr. Cuzen. I sending your first letter

Dear Mr. Smith,

The situation is as follows:

Our production department is currently experiencing delays due to the recent changes in the supply chain. I understand your concern about the potential impact on our delivery schedule.

Please let me know if there are any specific dates that are critical for you. We are working on finding alternative suppliers to mitigate the delays.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

I take the liberty of sending you a sample of a little device called the Safety Eye-glass Holder.

Although very simple and small, they are highly recommended as a very practical and useful device by those who are using them. They are manufactured from well tempered steel and are readily attached to and detached from a pocket, button hole or eyeglass.

So cord or chain as desired as the holder will neither slip nor lose its grip.

To adjust the sample in this.
open the long toothed clamping tool just enough to ease its fleshy length into the corner of the raw chest, or in a button hole, and hang the glasses on the short string clasp.

I shall be glad to...

and a young man.

With respect, I am,

Yours very truly,

W. J. Rand.
My Dear General,

Casually meeting Major Fortin he informed me that both you and himself desired to obtain a few copies of the Annual Report of the State of Maine Association containing the literary exercises had at their last reunion. I am glad to be able to send you with this a half dozen copies.

The poem read by Mr. Barnes upon the occasion of the banquet of the Mexican Veterans has been struck off and I will endeavor to have some copies sent to you if you have not already received them.

Very sincerely and respectfully Yours,
