Dear Teacher,

Will you join in praise and thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father that the prayers which for twenty years seemed unheard, have been graciously answered: that all doubt ~~that doubt~~ that God leads his children, even when walking in the fiery furnace, has been swept away, and that the overhanging clouds, long so dense that faith utterly failed, are now dissipated by the full light of the Father's unchanging love.

Gratefully yours
W. W. M.

by that time my en-

The weather was perfect, and the outlines of the hills in shadow, and a few burnished sails, made a picture indeed.

What a little darling good natured, Dutch face beamed upon me like a harvest moon: it was too amusing to hear him use words that were much too big for him, for instance: he wished to use the term obsequious and he called it supercilious. That Captain of ours is very ambitious as to mental attainments.

Major General Howard:

My Dear Sir:

I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the prompt and plain, but too true statement of condition of benevolent giving to educational institutions on the Pacific Coast. A lady who teaches with us at Whittman suggested the idea of my returning by way of Los Angeles. She visited there last summer. I am beginning to get started. Believe I shall succeed to a moderate degree, at least. But it took much grit, grace and prayer to work the first months. And Woodstock, that your letter finds me just ready to begin work in Providence, R. I. the very city your name in your letter as an example in the Eastern states. I feel inclined to drop you a line telling the result of my efforts in this city, when I finish.

Truly Yours.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of yours of the 22nd ult., enclosing policies Nos. 77, 768 and 69.

Inasmuch as the outstanding notes bear interest during your life and as we expect that this interest will be paid for a number of years yet, we think you will readily see that we cannot properly deduct the face of the notes from the face of the policies which are not payable until your death. If you desire to free these policies from further payments we would be willing, under the circumstances, to issue cash paid-up policies for each one to the amount of $300. This, I think, you will recognize is a liberal proposition, and if it is accepted we will return to you the outstanding notes and new cash policies. In order to save time we enclose herewith releases which should be signed by yourself and returned to us. In the meantime we will retain your two policies which we will return to you if this adjustment does not meet your views.

Yours truly,
