Saturday evening

1054

My dear Father

It is Saturday afternoon. I have been busy all day. It is now 4:30 o'clock. Last Tuesday Johnnie was well enough to do his work. But at night he became sick to his stomach. He had eaten a supper of six large griddle cakes & syrup, bread & tea. He was upset with complete indigestion Wed. & Thurs. & remained in bed. But by the careful nursing of Miss Mott (with whom we live) he was up on Friday & at noon went to dinner with me.

It was mere indigestion, then vomiting, no cold. Rest & careful diet cured him. He missed three days work. But as it was necessary of algebra, and but little French & some drawing, I think he can regain all he lost before thanksgiving. He went to the Wadsworth on Fri. (Nov 11) & is still here. He will probably return to Troy on Sunday evening. You know I presume that trains run between Troy & Albany every half hour from very early to very late every day a few less on Sundays. Fare 25 cts round trip. I am also getting well. I had to get up a great deal two nights for John. Will you please add about $10. to my last request for money. I must pay the doctor & for medicines. John has profited by his short sickness, for he will now now study so early & late. Short hours & closer application make better results.

My dear General

As you are aware, Captain T. F. Tobey, of your Department, is to be tried, on the 17 Inst., for intem-peration, on duty. This is rather in-law, Mrs. Wingard, an old and almost esteemed friend of mine, has asked me, in case he be found guilty, to use my influence to obtain his pardon, or a commutation of his sentence from the President. She believes in him innocent, but gives credit to others on credit for entire sincerity of purpose in making the charge.

In case the trial should have an ~~is as~~ unfavourable to the Captain, may I ask you as a special favour to let me know what I had best do to help to secure the object this good lady has so much at heart? Your experience in military matters, and your knowledge of this case, enable you to do ^{so} better than any body else, while your well known kindness of heart will, I am sure, incline you to favour clemency to a brother officer, as your act is consistent with your sense of duty.
General Crook is in Wyoming, at present, and will not return for a week. I have no personal acquaintance with the Secretary of War, or with General Sheridan, so that all I can do, in this sad case, must be accomplished through Senator Manderson, and Mr. McShane.

Very sincerely yours
+ James O'Connor

note enclosing your endorsement about the Chaplain, came duly to hand - Thank you heartily for it - I am sure it will do good and I hope this winter something will be done for them, that Chaplain may become of use and ornament to the service instead of being or some a nuisance.

You would be surprised to see what progress Omaha has made since you left us, it seems as if the city had doubled almost and all business is "booming".
The Congregational Church is under roof and I should think might be finished during the winter and I think the tabernacle is to be used as an armory for a militia company. The old church is about as you left it, except that the boys have knocked out all the windows.

Dear Sir:

We (Mrs. Luse and myself) went this evening to Col. Bendel, asking him to give $25.00 to the Cadet Templars. He saw your name on the list (we have a subscription paper with five names now for $25.00 each - viz - yourself - Gen Diamond, Mark Sheldon, W. F. Whitten, and P. B. Cornwall -) and Col Bendel said he was acquainted with you and would see you and make inquiries about it - and I think quite likely he will give you the $25.00 - If so please take it and receipt for it as one of the committee -

As, of course, you know "was"

I have no doubt but that the work will go right on and Respected Sir.

Please do not be angry at the liberty I am taking in writing to you; and please read it. I am a Soldier's wife in deep trouble and distress I cannot come to see you in person or I would I have two very sick children and no one to take care of them and I cannot leave them. My Husband Priv. Charles O'Rourke, Bat. 5th Regt.
Art. was tried in the Presidio Monday Nov.
14th by a Genl. Court martial. I hear his Bat.
Officers went very hard against him. If he gets a hard sentence I do not know what is to become of me and my four children. I have one 9 yrs. 17. and twins 2½ and expect another in March. I am utterly dependent on my husband. for support except what little I can earn myself. We have just come here from Fort Leany. W. J. and between travelling, paying, rent, and buying a few things I could not do without and having to get a Dr. for my sick children I have spent almost every dollar I had. I ask you in the name of mercy and clemency to do something for my husband. He is an old Soldier he has been 20 years in the Service all but 1 month and the worst thing he ever done was have a Periodical Spree. Ranging from 2 years to 2 months between. I am very respectfully,

Mrs. M. O'Rourke.

I have just recd a letter from our lawyers at Council Bluffs. Saying that the case would be tried over again in a day or so. & to be ready to go at any time. I do hope that we shall get justice this time. & it seems to me that we will beat them.
Do you know where Skilled is now? it does seem as though he should be punished, for this Wickedness that he has done.
Every time before they have not reached our case. I am anxious to have it over with. it is a great annoyance to me in every way. If we win we shall have to pay the lawyers $5000 & if we are beaten we shall have to pay them $2500 & all that may follow or carry it off again.

My Dear Friend
I have just received the paper over London at Council Meeting. Hoping that the case would be tried soon again in a day or two. I am ready to go at any time. I hope that our black friends will be present. It seems to me that we must beat them in the present matter. Still in the present case there is no doubt that the friendship for this cause is the only thing that will save them before they have received our case. I am anxious to have it over with it is a great advantage to me in every way. I am sure we shall have to pay the lawyers $5000 of our own money. I shall have to pay it myself. I will not say for the sake of it of course.
I am very truly yours
