My dear Sir:

I have an inquiry from our house - J. B. Lippincott Co. Phila? - for an article on the late Genl. McDowell, which they are about to publish, they want to get the correct spelling of his first name, whether it is Irvin or Irwin. If you can give me the correct way from the Records at your command, at your convenience, I shall be exceedingly thankful for the favor.

I regret that I did not get home in time to meet you at lunch at my house on Christmas day, but shall be glad to have you call again, or at the store any time you are passing, so as to meet you personally.

My dear Genl. Howard,

The bearer of this note is Sergeant William Brown who, by reason of expiration of enlistment, after 24 years active service, has been this day, ~~was~~ discharged from the Army.
He has been an excellent soldier in every respect, reliable, faithful, honest, temperate. He does not feel that he has strength to perform the duties of a soldier, requiring exposure, loss of sleep &c.

At his request I write to ask you, as the friend of old soldiers who have served faithfully in the Country's army, to interest yourself to secure him a place in the I. of or Subsistence Department.

I can and do recommend Sergeant Brown as an entirely reliable & faithful man, with plenty of intell. &c.

I am, My dear General,

As ever yours faithfully,

Henry A. Morrison

My dear General:

Grace wishes me to let you know that she is getting along very well indeed. The after pains are severe but she is strong, eats and sleeps very well. Dr. Watson says she could not get along better. The boy seems to be vigorous and well formed but is ugly as all boys should be. Mrs. O'Donnell predicts an improvement in health later on. Everyone, Grace and myself included, ~~are~~^{is} pleased that his a boy. tho the girls are as good, and nicer - I think - than other people's boys. I was away when Howard arrived but went home late in the evening and remained two days. The Columbia is frozen over and the prospect is that it will remain so for several weeks. I shall cross the Columbia at Vancouver on the ice next Saturday. Grace was much pleased with you

Gift-Christmas and with the kind letters which came. If she has not acknowledged their receipt you will understand why.
We made no gifts this season for good reasons, and I felt so miserably at not being able to that I sent no good wishes tho, they were in my heart.
Please remember me to all at home

Very Truly Yours.

Dear Brother

Thanks for Report of Chit Chat Club.

I wrote an extract from your address (nearly reported) 2 Dr Stebbins. (well reported) for next Advocate.

If Gen. Long's retirement will bring you in easier reach, the closing years of our lives, it will give us pleasure.

Jamies unfortunate intemper with some reporter of Haberburg Ct (Yaggerated) comes to us from all sides, & I wrote him, his strength is to keep still - the thing most difficult, probably we are very far from well at home - "one" even or something of the kind succeeding another until life is something beside a song.

I think I send you these hymns, the first I have ever printed - but have forgotten.

With love to Lizzie, Bessie the Cause of human suffering - I can never forget these things by traveling the whole year - the world as it were passes in review before me - Perry is now here at the Grand Hotel close by, en route from Chicago to Florida on a few months leave - He says he has rheumatic gout - and the doctors have advised him to send him a Whisk for certain remedies - but he will soon go to St. Augustine - He does not contemplate retiring till his 64 years though Cook & Miles are harmonizing for his vacancy - Such things grate on my feelings. Showing the Coyote parts in our weak human nature. - I religiously abstain from any meddling in military matters, and take life as easily as I can. I am sure that whenever I was wiser to retire when I did. assuring you of my profound respect - and wishing you and yours all the happiness allowed on this Earth - I am sincerely your friend,

Dear Genl. Howard,

I have received your most kind and friendly letter of Jan 3 and assure you that I honestly reciprocate all your good will.

As I grow older these tokens of affection on the part of comrades who were associated with me in younger if not better days become more precious, and in this my response I cannot do better than tell you in brief how my family is situated following them in your good example - My health continues exceptionally good.
I am now within two years of the prescribed limit of "three leons & two" without pain or ache, and with all the activity of twenty years ago. - Mrs Sherman is not so well. has a difficulty in breathing especially in bed.

Sisterly has water at foot, which she thinks is asthma, but I know is from Stomach, resulting from want of physical Exercise - we all spent our Christmas with Elly Mackuna, at Rosemont 10 miles out of Philadelphia - she is now gone with Rachel to Rittsburg, to visit Minnie - Mrs Fitch, who with her four children lives at Edgewood where Fitch has his wine mill, now made prosperous by the use of natural Gas - Tom you know is a Jewish Priest at Woodstock near Baltimore - He came to us at Christmas, was bright and cheerful, romped with the children, and seemed happy - Lavin is with me here - and Camp now 21, at Yale College - He will be through in June & will enter Evarts office with a promise of participation with his son Sherman Evarts - Thus after three generations the families come together again - for you know that W^m Mr.

Evarts is grandson of Roger Sherman - Mrs I have six living children, and 8 grand children (4 boys & 4 girls) thereby fulfilling the Divine Command - "go forth increase, multiply & replenish the Earth".
We are staying at the 5th Ave Hotel, when on paying my bill (pretty steep) at the end of each month we have abundance of Eng^l things, and none of
