Genl. C. C. Howard

Dear Sir

Our Chapel
on Pierce St. is situated on hilly ground, & during wet weather, it is very slippery getting up to it, & we thought if we had some rock hauled there it would be just the thing, so thought I would write you & see if you would give me an order to get about 8 or 10 loads, whatever might be necessary. It would be even better than a plank walk. We are very sorry you are going so far away, but your last words to us will be treasured up in our memories, & though you will be so far away, our thoughts will be with you.

Wishing Godspeed
I remain

Sincerely yours
D. McGoar

My dear General

I was absent from the Post
when your message
relating to the Crow came.

I am extremely obliged to you for thinking of me in the matter. I will take the Crow and take as good care of her as tho' my own. I presume you desire to sell her?
If so is your price $500? I will endeavor to dispose of her for you. I send this by

Dear Sir:--

The rate on household goods, San Francisco to New York is $500.00 per car, chargeable on ten tons or less.

The rates on horses from San Francisco to Chicago, by freight train, are as follows:

In cars 30 feet in length or less	$290.00,
" 33 feet and over 30 feet	$319.00,
" 34 feet and over 33 feet	$328.67,
" 35 feet and over 34 feet	$338.33.

At these rates a Live Stock Contract must be signed, the owner agreeing to feed, water and take care of the stock at his own expense and assume all risk, injury or damage the animals may do to themselves or each other. The horses must be released to a valuation of not more than $100.00 per head, in case of damage or injury for which the railroad companies are responsible.

At the above rates, one man in charge of the stock will be passed free to Chicago.

The rate on horses, Chicago to New York, by freight train, via the Pennsylvania Company, is $120.00 per car, Live Stock Contract to be signed.

My Dear Bro -

The Newspapers have recently noticed your promotion and I with your many friends in Oregon rejoice in all that comes to you of good for we all love you - I am so glad that you are going on up the ladder of preferment. Glad that with all these advances you do not forget the Great Captain of our Salvation and that you keep his Flag at the front. God bless you my Bro and continue you in the blessed work yet many years - I am always glad when I see your name for it always attaches to things ^{that} are right for both God & Man. - I am sure it must be a comfort to you when you look back upon your life that you can feel that Gods grace has enabled you to do a good work - I often think of your life here and how grandly you stood by the U.M.W. in our struggles - and in our work - My heart always warms toward you and I pray for you still from time to time - I am sure, notwithstanding the multiplicity of cases - the press of business - still sometimes you remember the little band of workers who are here - and you can but wish that we keep on praying keep on singing - keep on working with our armor bright facing the foe. - Of course we missed your counsel - your comforting - assuring - presence when you went away from Oregon and so will the workers for good miss you from California but bless God we are all and each just as near Him in one place as another - and He will be just as ready to hear our prayers and aid us as

San Francisco -

My dear General,

I have your letter of 22nd ult in reply to mine concerning "Winnemucca". I fear I failed to express my meaning clearly. We have no thought of establishing any Indian School in Nevada. Neither do we wish to take up a cry against her. If she is worthy of support, we will gladly endorse her claims. But in order to do so, it is of course my duty to investigate the charges against her. These charges are serious, and come to me, not from Sarah's enemies, but from those who would gladly be her friends, as well from others who are simply unprejudiced observers. They are to the effect that she drinks, and gambles, that she was arrested and locked up overnight, for being engaged in a fight with another woman about liquor - and others of like character. Sarah's remarkable ability and history we do not question. But if these charges are well founded, she is evidently not fit to be a trainer of young people, and is unworthy of aid. It was a great disappointment to us, as advocates of Indian education, to find that we could not commend her to public support, or hold her up as an example of the capacity of the race, ^{for good.} But the evidence is overwhelming - and we are convinced that the cause of Indian education and civilization is hindered by the encouragement given to such unworthy applicants, however able they may be.

Very truly yours
J. F. S. Marshall

Dear Sir.

We see by the paper that you are soon to leave this coast for the Atlantic. I need not tell you we are all pleased when any good fortune comes to you or yours and I suppose this change may be pleasant for you all. but so far as we are concerned we are all very sorry to have you go away. I had hoped that some time you might find a home in Pasadena and do not feel obliged to give up the hope yet.

I feel sure you will go East with much pleasanter prospects than if Cleveland had been re-elected. I feel so much elated that I find myself saying "can it be possible" surely politicians have not done this nor "political Bohemians". I do not wonder that Thurman thinks the C. A. R.'s had to do with it. They certainly had a right to remember the past. surely God rules and I am very hopeful for our country.

We hear often from your Brother's family

Sibbi being that she always speaks of Grandma Gilman to whom she seems much attached. we fear she may not stay long. I am sure she will be pleased that you will be located so much nearer her.

The delightful rain we have just had makes us all feel very cheerful as it means green fields for a long season coming so much earlier than usual. Our little town is fast filling up with Easter visitors among whom comes Rev. W. A. Bartlett from Lake View near Chicago a son of Rev. S. C. Bartlett. he has an invalid wife who I fear comes too late. They go into Frank Rust's home to stay until Cassie's return from East about Jan 1st.

We would all be very glad to have you all come this way in going East and visit us please accept our best wishes for yourself and all your family, whom you may be

Dear General,

We have all heard with delight that you and yours are coming here, and we anticipate a great deal of pleasure in having you as neighbors.

My mother intends to come to us on your arrival.

I must confess that, to me, your coming is looked forward to in a double sense, as I much wish to get back into the L.M.D. again. Will you consider this application in making your arrangements?

The work and hours of the L.M.D. suit me better than any other kind of business because of the condition of my eyes!

I suppose you are very busy making your arrangements to come out, but hope you will take time to write us when we may expect you.

With kind remembrances to all.
affectionately,

My dear General

Just a line in haste - to express my keen regrets at your departure. I would like to take you by the hand once more, but fear that the few remaining hours at your disposal will be too much occupied to see many people.

The religious interests of the Coast lose much by your departure. Your personal example has inspired many with the courage to nearer approach the Throne of Grace. Battles, slaved as you are, you have won victories since the war, which will obtain a better reward for you than the preferment that man can bestow on you.

Good-bye and God-speed! That you will seek to labor in the East in the manner that distinguished you here is a foregone conclusion. But I pray to the Father of us all that He may preserve you in health and strength to do your appointed task, and that in the evening of your life a full measure of grace and peace may be returned to you. "The Lord bless thee and keep thee".

Ever faithfully,
Jacob Voorsanger,
