Maybelle O. O. Howard

My dear Genl.

I felt very sorry that I did not return before you left. It really seemed as though a fog of my sorrow was between us.

I was very sorry again to see in the paper that dear Grandma had gone over the river. The dear old soul she was so good & noble that I loved her very much. I know that you loved her very much, for your devotion to her when she was at your home used to move me to great admiration. I know from the great love I have my own dear old mother, how much you loved years. Your mother's love for her children was next to her love for her Saviour.

I can hear her voice & remember the tones, so kind & loving, when she would speak of you &
"Charles". I know that her faith never failed her and that she is happy "at home" now. Your great-Cousin has been her great guilt. I know that if possible, heaven is nearer and dearer to you because she is there. She must be a shock of corn yellow, ripe and ready for the Master's use.

General I miss you very much. We have a good General but true it is not Genl. Howard. I haven't been to Black Point but once since I returned. My association is ended there. I did or enjoy my little service there. Dr Rice is very low.

He has had dyspeptic fever for a long time & now has Pneumonia with it. His condition is very critical & Dr Hopkins' family are still there & well. My Post is about the same. It is an elegant place to live, but a most discouraging Post for Christian work.

If you have time, I would be very much pleased to hear from you.

Remember me kindly to Mrs. Howard, Harry & Bessie.
I wish I could just stop in & chat with you all a few minutes.

Sincerely Your friend

Winfield Scott

My Dear Sir: -

Gen. Thomas J. Morgan has been recommended to Gen. Harrison, the President Elect, for appointment as U.S. Commissioner of Education. This has been done, not at his suggestion, but by prominent educational men, such as Drs' A.E. Winship, W.A. Mowry, and others, who believe that with a man of his ability and energy at its head, the efficiency and usefulness of the Bureau may be greatly increased. He has been strongly endorsed by Pres. M.B. Anderson of the University of Rochester, Pres. E.G. Robinson of Brown University, the Governor and U.S. Senators of Rhode Island, and many others from different sections of the country, equally well known.

Gen. Morgan served as an officer in the regiment commanded by Gen. Harrison, has enjoyed his esteem and friendship ever since, and we have reason to believe that Gen. Harrison will gladly make the appointment if he can be assured that it will be acceptable to the country.

If you are willing to write a brief letter expressive of your views on the subject, addressed to Gen. Harrison, and will forward the same to me at an early day, it, with others, will be duly presented. Awaiting your reply, I am

Yours Very Truly

W. E. Wilson.

- 1.—Meters will not be set in any place, not approved by the Company, and employees of the Company must have free access to the meters at all times, to examine or to remove them.
- 2.—In case of meters failing to register, an average bill will be made.
- 3.—Interference by any one except employees of the Company, with the service pipes, meters or their connections, street mains, or other property of the Company, is strictly prohibited, under the penalty provided by law.
- 4.—In case of leak, the stop-cock at the meter must be immediately turned so as to shut off the flow of gas, and no light taken near the escape until after full and free ventilation, and notice given at the office of the Company without delay, as no deduction will be made from amount shown by meter, nor will the Company be responsible for damage caused by the escape of gas.
- 5.—Persons moving into premises where there is a meter, must apply at the office of the Company, if they wish to use gas on such premises.
- 6.—Persons leaving premises must give timely notice of the same at the office of the Company, or they will be held responsible for gas used until such notice is given.
- 7.—The Company reserves the right to refuse to introduce gas into any premises until all arrears due for gas and service pipes in said premises are paid, and at any time to cut off the connection with the service pipe, if found necessary to do so, in order to protect the Company against abuse or fraud.
- 8.—A strict compliance with these rules, and prompt payment are the conditions of supply.
- N. B.—To guard against imposters, each meterman is provided with a certificate signed by the Secretary.

My Dear General

As I missed seeing you yesterday - I write to ask if it would be possible for you to come out to Fordham for a night - if this could be next week, it would happen upon the week of Prayer, & it would be an great Comfort to have you with us one of those Every & Rare all anxious to meet you as you have proved to be helpful & friendly to Bro. Archie & Your name has broom a household word with us and we hope that you may find and appoint an evening for us on the 5.12 train out of 42nd Street Depot, on the Harlem road - will bring you to Fordham in 28 minutes - and in time for dinner - Please let us know what day we may expect you -

With wishes for the

Congress

Very truly Yours

W. F. Anderson

P.S. Should you come I should like to have you take the meeting title -
