Maj. Gen. O.C. Howard -
Dear Sir,

During the winter of 1886, while you were in Omaha, I sold to Messrs Taylor and Howard the entire Nursey stock from the Pomona Nurseries at Omaha; I received as part payment a note of $700.⁰⁰ which was endorsed by you. This note was due last February. Prior to that time I was aware that Chauncey was having difficulty in meeting his indebtedness as it became due, but I willingly sold him Nursey stock from my Council Bluffs nursery on time, for which I still hold his note. I did so because I believed Channcey was honest, and would eventually pay, and that a temporary help would be a permanent benefit to him. Last winter I wrote him as to what disposition was to be made of the $700.⁰⁰ note.

He earnestly pleaded for additional time in which to pay it, and asked me to abstain from writing to you or troubling you in any manner about it. Understanding his feelings, and still having faith in his integrity, and still wishing to favor him in his financial trouble, I acceded to his request, and delivered up the $700.⁰⁰ note endorsed by you, and accepted his personal note of $600.⁰⁰ (dated Jan 25th/88, due in three months) and $100.⁰⁰ in cash.

Our correspondence continued until in April last, since which time I can get no reply to my letters (4 or 5 in number) to him. Through others I learn that he is still in business there at Omaha.

I have never up to this time taken any steps to legally collect any money due me from him, and so far as I know, there has been none but kindly feeling between us, and I do not understand why he refuses to answer my letters. I am, as I have been, willing to give him any reasonable length of time in which to make payment of what is justly my due, but I am in need of the money.

My Dear General:-

I learned by the San Francisco papers of the death of your dear mother, and take this, my earliest opportunity, of expressing to you my heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement.

Your loss is her eternal gain; and glad as you would have been to have kept her here, I am sure when you contemplate the eternal joys upon which she has entered, you can help but rejoice that her work is done and her tired feet rest in the eternal city of our God.

May the dear Lord bless you richly in all things. Very often do I get homesick for you and wish I might have the former pleasure of seeing and laboring with you in the Master's cause, but I suppose such will never be my privilege again; but we will talk over earthly experiences in the home He has prepared for those who love and honor Him.

Very cordially your brother, J. Buckley.

Gen. O. O. Howard:

Dear Sir:

We believe you to be a citizen whose love for justice, for cleanness in political methods, for the Republic, is above that of party. Hence we venture to ask permission to call your attention to a fresh and striking illustration of the degradation into which the politics of this country has sunken.

It is now "between campaigns"; a great effort should be made by men who believe that the most important (and in the end most potent) force is conscience, that moral blindness and deafness are not "good politics" if we look forward far enough, and must prove destructive to a government by the people--an earnest, great effort should be made by such men to fix attention upon the increasing political corruption and dishonesty, that the public conscience may be aroused, and politics be lifted to a higher plane. We dare not permit the proverb to chrySTALLIZE further "that all is fair in politics." This is a proverb from the pit, and in the end surely means anarchy.

Would you permit us to ask you to consider in this connection this thought: The time is rapidly approaching when America will have a population of 100 millions of people. There will then be inevitably an exceeding great diversity of interest--a diversity that must increase with the population--so that the interests at stake in our elections will be tremendous. Our only safety will lie in a willingness to abide by the decisions of the ballot-box. But what, if there be no confidence in the integrity of the ballot-box? A combination of circumstances will be easily possible to bring on political revolution and chaos. At the last election had 8,000 men who voted for Hill and Harrison voted instead for Hill and Cleveland, this State would have cast her electoral vote for Cleveland. In that case the result would have depended on the close and disputed election in West Virginia. We would have had 1876 over again, with this difference--the Democratic party would have been in power at the White House. The danger would have been exceedingly grave, and immensely aggravated by the conviction that is spreading among all our people that the politicians who are in control in both parties are utterly dishonest--corrupt every way--in the management of elections. If this condition of things continue, it can be a question only of time when there will be the requisite combination of circumstances that will bring an appalling calamity.

The crime described in the accompanying copy of THE VOICE is only an incident of the general political corruption; but it is an incident that appeals to the public mind.

Would you, regardless of the political party to which you belong or the party it may hurt, be willing to write us a sentence or two in reference to this crime and the corruption it illustrates, such as may make our politicians call a halt, by helping to awaken the public conscience?

Yours respectfully,

I. K. FUNK, Editor of "Voice."

Dear Sir,

I write to ask if I may have an interview with you at such time as will be convenient to you. I am the widow of Genl Thomas W. Conway. I find among my husband's letters one written by you to him in which you express to him your appreciation of the services rendered by him when in Louisiana acting as Asst Commissioner. My husband died very suddenly leaving me with two children and with no means of support. I am advised by the many friends of Mr Conway to try and get a pension and Judge Knapp Davis who proposes doing all he can for me suggests that I call on you. I would like to see you and could explain matters to you and

Dear Sir - I take the liberty of writing to interest you in behalf of Genl. R. H. Lusk, of Fort Schuyler, N.Y. Harbor. This gentleman I have known for a year, or more in business relations, and for whom I have a very high regard - My sympathies have been aroused for him and his wife by the recent death of their only son at West Point by this event they have been thrown into the most profound grief - in fact are crushed by it - the saddest part is that they have no comfort arising from a Christian hope - I have reason to think that they ^{know} nothing of the sustaining power of Christ's presence in this trial - I have written to him twice with the hope of leading him to Jesus as a helper he is utterly heart broken now that this staff on which he hoped to lean in his declining years - has been taken away - and I know not how to come nearer to him in my longing that he may see the hand of God seeking to bring him to the Saviour - I am aware dear Sir - that I am taking a great liberty in writing to you but I believe you will pardon it for His sake who has taught us to bear one another's burdens - ~~knowing~~ knowing the professional you sustain to the Gent. and in the belief that your Christian sym-paties may be enlisted, so far as to ^{lead you to} take some way of communication with him I rejoiced to know, when you were appointed to the command of the post at Governors Island - that our City would have the benefit of your well known Christian influence I thank God for that - and with hope that you may find some speedy access to these hearts (himself & Mrs. Lockton) so open to Christian efforts - and so needing - the tenderness of Christ's presence thru some one of his disciples -

I write from my Office at No. 3. Wall St. - at which place I meet almost every day Col. Beck from the Island, under your Command - and thro' him I first became acquainted with Gen. Lockton - and May God guide and direct - this needy - sufferer to the Lamb of God - and may he bless any effort you may think

My dear General,

altho the prospects of my new field of labor are most encouraging, I find there is a large amount of missionary work to be done, to awaken the American people to a sense of the importance of patriotic education, all of which I find requires money to start it and carry it on.

As I need more capital than I can command I have placed a mortgage of 500. on my library in 5 notes of 100.- each - the library consisting of some 1200 vols of professional volumes and nearly 500 pamphlets.

Mayor Helwith has taken 100 dolls. viz and two other friends will take 100 each to help along until I can get the enterprise on firm ground.

The 25.00. I borrowed of you Nov 30/85 amounts now principal and interest to 29.90 or say $30. I should like to secure this for you, and at the same time get a little more material aid for my work. As every little helps, if you can afford it - I should like it if you could take $100. on this mortgage in a note at 10 weeks from Jan 2/89 with interest paying $70. on it & the old note.

I have just established an agency for Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska, and another at Boston for New England, & next week shall establish another for the State of Ohio with its 13,000 schools, but it will be some time before I can count for any revenue of importance from them, so that I must for a time depend on other resources.

If you should reply to my request in the affirmative I will send or bring you the note endorsed to you by the Trustee who holds the mortgage, Mr Henry A. George of 47 Beekman St. in this City with a copy of his agreement as such Trustee attached -

The next time I come over I will bring you a copy of the Chart of the Declaration - with the official attached, to hang in your private office.

Very sincerely yours.

This would not be put in any that. Will you ask Genl. Sherman

Mr. John Sherman and Genl. R. B. Hayes if you think

Dear Papa -
We think that it is very probable that James can get the appointment of Register of the Land Office here. He can get letters from fifty or more of the most prominent men of Oregon & Washington, and although it has been suggested that he might get some better office, he thinks it best to remain here at present, on account of the promising outlook of this part of the country. The next to the best Register was Hon. A.
C. Marsh of Indiana, who will be glad to help James in any way possible. I think he knows Genl. Harrison personally. You & Mr. Marsh were personal friends was a good republican & of ours, & Mr. Marsh did a great deal of work in the most hyperbatical speeches all over the country, before Cleveland was elected, & no doubt he worked equally hard this year in Indiana. Mrs. Brown says he thinks that all that will be necessary will be for Mr. Marsh to know that James desires the office.

But James prefers to send on these good letters, and also get you to use your influence for him -

He suggests that you write a personal letter to Genl. Harrison, asking him not to make the appointment ~~until~~ before James' application reaches him. You will know best when the right time for that letter would be - before or after the 4th of March.

It is best not to be premature, but there is another man trying to get the appointment. He goes to work in an altogether different way, by circulating a petition for every one he can get to sign. This is a well educated man in any respect a suitable man for the office. Dr. Spaulding held it once & the present incumbent ^{Mr. Austin} (a democrat) is a friend of James.

Now Mr. Scott Drummond has figured prominently in this year's campaign, and has achieved the feat of changing ^a more than five hundred dem. majority of last year ^{in this County} to a rep. majority this year.

He was chairman of the Rep. Com. of Clarke County, & his indefatigable distribution of thousands of campaign documents, & formation of clubs of young men in all localities helped the result all over the ~~territory~~ ^{territory}. Now all this his favor has gone abroad, & there is little doubt of his getting the office of Receiver. James does not want to spoil his chances at all, & if there is a question and back before the 14th of March why, send them here. Are you going to the inauguration?

~~Why could you not choose some good man there to present them to James at that time?~~ ~~if you could not think best to do it yourself I don't see myself any reason why you could use your influence in addition to that from a civil office & nothing to do with the Army -~~

It may be that some one will be sent out here from the East as Marshal was, though Austin was not. I think I shall have to go on myself & join the ranks of worn mire-pullers!

It will not do to have their affli-cations go in unknown to the Representatives & Senators from this north west.
Ewell expects at present to get Genl. Wallace & Mr. White, friends of the president-elect and Mr. Allen our Delegate. James gets these facts from Mr. Thompson (J.R.) who is the one person who has managed the business for Ewell so far, whose arrives after his^d return to the White House there was a notification in the Oregonian that if Oregon wanted a stone there she had better hurry up about it. Pres. Hayes was of the opinion that there was a stone already from Oregon, & made a note of the question, saying it "must be looked up." He will surely remember this discussion, & so will not have forgotten James.

Mr. John Sherman may not remember him.

Now for a word about the record of Mr. Gray as a pioneer. He was instrumental in bringing out here and in connection with Dr.
Whitman saving the state of Oregon to the United States. He laboured with his wife as missionaries & kept schools in many localities by the greatest loss to himself pecuniarily and now has to be supported by his sons in his old age. None of his sons have ever held office under government or been recognised in any way, until lately. Henry was a member of the of the Legislature of Oregon - and Critt is Pres. of the Board of Trade at Pascu - This year Henry is going to try for the Custom Office at Astoria that is in Oregon. James wants an office in Washington Territory.

Someone suggested the office of United States Marshal, but it may be that someone has already worked for that - anyway we have a desire to remain here in Vancouver.

The salary is three thousand a year for the Register.

You know what that means for us - complete freedom from the steamboat annuities - clearance of debts, & work that will be done here in town with a possibility of a house of our own - After four years matters now under way will be in good condition to pay well, & James begins to hope for better things at last. There is no use to begin already to rejoice, but I feel hopeful.

Your loving daughter Grace L. H. Gray.

P.S. We find that the time for the expiration of the term of the present incumbent is the latter part of this year. But everything must be got ready to be presented as soon after the fourth of March as possible - Already there are three men working for this office - one unfortunately has obtained letters from Pres. of the Council of Wash. Terr.
Prof. R. Thompson, & through him communicated with Hon. John B. Allen Delegate to Congress. Mr. Thompson says he wishes he had known of James desire for the position before he would most certainly and gladly have applied he wrote for Elliott. Mr. Elwell thinks he is sure of the Auditor delegation - and now will you please write immediately to Genl. Lew Wallace - and get him to write a personal letter?
James says he wants all the letters to be addressed to Genl.
Harrison. If there is time for these letters to be sent out here

Thompson himself ^{3.} persuaded to make the application, in order, as he said, to beat a bad man with a good one.

The "bad man" is Mr. Wilmarth a man of not good moral character, but who, if let alone would certainly succeed.

My dear Sir

In reply to your favor of the 7th inst I beg leave to say, that while the circumstances of my acquaintance with Maj. Gen. Howard are of so trivial a character as to almost put me to the blush in asking him to renew in the manner indicated in my previous letter, the most generous offer made me at the time, yet the situation is such that I may consistently ask for the favor without perhaps running the risk of being classed among the quacks here which afflicts prominent men in the nation.

My first meeting with the General was on the upper Columbia, in '79 I think when we were fellow passengers on one of the steamboats, subsequently I had A pleasure of doing him ever so slight a service when we were fellow passengers on the U. P. This unfortunately was not possible as I was rushed to catch the Liverpool steamer, being en route to Scotland to buy goods for my then concerns in San Francisco, of which you will please find card enclosed.

Please tell the General for me, that if he wants New York references as to myself, before granting me, what may now be a decided favor in the matter of an introductory note to Genl Harrison, that I can furnish an abundance of such.

My dear General:

Replying to your letter of the 12th inst, I regret to say that a compliance with your request for a clerk skilled in drawing and map making, &c., is impracticable.

No one possessing the necessary qualifications can be supplied from the employes of this Office, or by the Officers of the Corps of Engineers. These men are paid by special

For years past this office has been submitting annual estimates of $25,000. for expenses of Surveys and Reconnoissances and Publication of Maps at Division and Department Headquarters, but without securing any appropriations.

Should the present Session of Congress give such an appropriation, it will give me pleasure to allot for your Division a sum sufficient to hire a skilled draughtsman.

My Dear General

I have put off writing to you thinking that we would have a change for the better, but no I am sorry to say, that I have a very sick family. First there are not one of us who has see a well day since we left Fort Mason. I have three now of my family confined to their bed. Mrs Chambeau Georgie & Willie, Georgie is very low and she may not recover. Mrs Chambeau is so completely broken down, that it will take a long time, befor she can build up again. Willie is also sick from the effects of a bad cold. As for myself I have not lost one watch at the Phelen Building since you left, though I have been very sick, and I am now, but I have taxed my strenght to the at most, and I cannot stand it any longer,

I will see General Perry tommorow and ask him to put some one in my place for a while.

Now dear General, Brother, & Friend, if ever there was a time that I needed help it is at the present time. Ask the Lord in your prayers to sustain me in my affliction.

May the Lord bless & prosper you.

Hoping to hear from you soon. I remain your most obedint Servent

Dear General

We have closed the week of prayer with successful meetings and we quitted to gather up the years work before us.
We were sorry that your good purpose to be present with us was defeated, but I know you will be able to sound the President on this case informally before regularly filing of the memorial. I think it to be of the highest importance that the matter be kept absolutely secret until you can talk to him about it. If the newspapers get hold of it, they would probably embarrass the President, and annoy and injure me.

I believe the claim to be as sound and legal as was ever presented to the government. I know that while trying to leave the service in the cleanest and most conscientious manner, I was treated in a manner that no man can justify; that I have been compelled to journey and labor in the world as a dismissed officer. [did you ever try to imagine what it is to be a dismissed officer?] and in any case with abominable aggravations. I know that I entitled to have all this undone so far as may be; but who can restore the 28 years blotted by the government?

I find that I have all along been in the army and am entitled to be Colonel of Ordnance; and I feel justified in honor and conscience in demanding all that the law has preserved for me.

I purpose to submit my case to your management so far as you may be willing, and will be glad of any advice that you may give me

Faithfully,
Your friend

Dear General;

Ans. 1/29/89

I write you this private and personal letter as a sequence of our interview when I took lunch with you on the eve of your departure from the Pacific. I did not tell you then — because I could not — of the pleasure, gratitude and admiration with which I received your generous and friendly proffer of your good offices and powerful interposition for me with the new President. I at once recognized the wisdom of your advice to memorialize the incoming, rather than the outgoing President, and then ^{there} and resolved to follow it.

I did tell you how I was surprised by what you said on that occasion; and assured you, and I now repeat it, that I had not expected or desired to draw from you even an expression of your own opinion; I simply desired to know what you supposed would be ^{the} reception my explanation would meet with from public sentiment in the army and elsewhere.

I had previously had a similar interview with another officer of rank and experience, but one whose life and views I apprehend to be very different from your own. I don't say this to disparage him, for I have most kindly feelings towards him. My interview with him on this subject was the result of ^{his} saying to me quite unexpectedly: "Welcher, they had no right to dismiss you." In both cases I was taken quite aback by most cordial and generous offers of assistance in my restoration. In the first instance I asked the officer what were his politics, and was astonished by ^{his} answering "I am a Democrat." This made ^{me} fear that partisan feeling perhaps had made his judgment too favorable to me; and I desired to get the judgment of some one deeply imbued with the principles of the Republican party.

That and other considerations, notably that I knew I should receive from you a frank and conscientious answer whether favorable or not, caused me to take the liberty of asking your opinion.

I enclose with this note a synopsis of my memorial to the President. I will forward a day later by registered mail a copy of that document, which I have at last succeeded in cutting down to 8 pages of legal cap.

I hope you will read the synopsis, and after ^{words} the memorial.

I think the points of the synopsis are all established in the memorial. But I request that you will point out any errors, defects and objectionable matter which you may discover, so that I may amend it in time.

Although I can ill afford the expense, I suppose that I ought to go to Washington about this matter. Would it be well for me to be there at the inauguration? and if not how soon afterward? I hope

I have left vacant the name in the opening, and at the end of the memorial for fear of premature disclosure by accident. Should it be necessary from any cause to insert the same I request you to do so for me, and this shall be your power of attorney to do so. W^m. I. Wilcher
