My dear Genl. Arnold, Thanks for your telegram, and accept my regrets that I am unable to avail myself of the kind invitation. My examination has come on and we will hasten our trip homeward.

We are not "sitting"
to the Centennial;
Mr. Brown has
at work here, and Mr. Davis has been with me for a few days. I shall hope to see you before long. Meanwhile
believe me

Very truly as ever

Dear Sir.

Being,
as I hope, a young American not without patriotism, I have a strong desire to possess the autographs of noted and heroic men of our country. In addressing to you a request for your autograph, pardon the liberty I take, for doubtless I am adding but one to the long list of those, which have already bored you. If you have still patience to grant this favor you will confer a great honor on a young compatriot. Enclosed please find a card and addressed envelope.

Yours very respectfully

My dear friend:-

Our President at the San Francisco Convention--Hon.

S. W. Blake writes us that we can not depend upon his being present at Philadelphia to call the Convention to order there Wednesday, May 8th, at 11 A. M.

as First Vice President.

This duty, therefore, now falls upon you. You know what great pleasure it would give the Committee and all the brethren if you could be present on that occasion and perform this duty, accompanying it with a brief address appropriate to the opening of what promises to be the largest and most influential International Convention which the Associations have ever called ~~to~~ together.

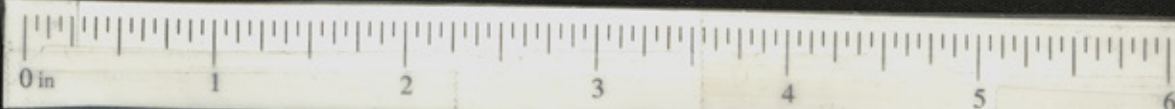

You are so near and we value your help so much, that I earnestly hope you will consider this request importunate enough to insure your presence.

With affectionate regard,

Ever your friend,

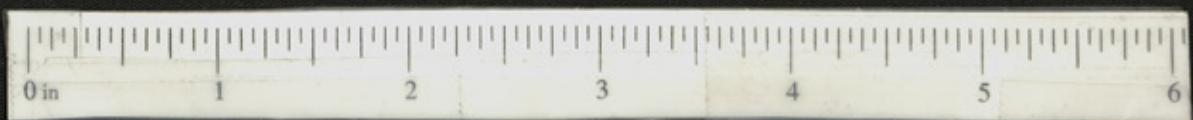

Richard D. Moore

There are special reasons for my adding that we cannot spare you in this emergency!
