War Department,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, May 3, 1889.

Major General O. O. Howard,
Commanding Division of the Atlantic,
Governor's Island, New York City.

Sir:

The Secretary of War now approves your application for the detail of Lieut. Guy Howard, 12th Infantry, as aide-de-camp on your staff. This action has been called to the views of the Secretary of War, on this subject, addressed to Senator Manderon in February, 1887, on the matter of your son's detail, as follows: "The purpose of the General Order, under which provisions Lieut. Howard was required, was not that a man should be recalled and then recalled in a short period;"
"and it certainly must have a bad effect upon the service of the sons of general officers, particularly for that reason, relieved from their duties in the line."

In this he concurs; but at the same time he recognizes the importance to a general officer of his having at least one of his aides an officer with whom he can have the most confidential relations. It is to be understood that in other respects this re-detail of Lieut. Howard is to be governed by General Order, No. 85, of 1885, and is limited to four years.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,

Kelton
Asst. Adjutant General.

General C. D. Howard

Dear Sir,

Parsons me for receiving the invitation to speak at our Assembly. Our directors are so anxious to hear you, that I wrote a card that you try and do it. We would like two lectures, the first, key 1 and the second, key 2. These dates are so near those advertised for you at Island Park, we think you can easily combine them. We should object to pay the usual price for the rooms and will take one lecture if you cannot give more.

Yours,

J. E. Moseley
Secretary.

Dear Sir,

I have two objects in view. My first object is to get my son, Wells Wake Davis, who is now 17 years of age, appointed as cadet at West Point. The Congressional District in which I live is strongly Democratic, and the appointment for the District has already been made. Therefore, I consider the only chance I have of getting him appointed, will be through the President. If I do not succeed in this, my next object is, to try to get a pension, which will require an act of Congress. Any recommendation that you can give me, for services rendered, to assist me in this matter, will be very thankfully received.

Most of the time after you went West, I was in Grant's command, operating against Mosby, as far West as in the valley of Virginia, and as far South as Fredericksburg, and was severely wounded twice during the war.

I assure you, I was glad to meet you, I shook hands with you on the morning of the 27th, and very much pleased to see you looking so well.

Yours truly,

A. G. Davis

Dear General,

Hearing that you are expected to make the address on the occasion of the dedication of the Monument to the Soldiers and Sailors of Maine, which is to be erected in Portland this spring, I have taken the liberty of mailing you the Portland Daily Press of the 27 April which contains a paper I prepared and read to the Maine Historical Society on the Early Defences of Portland.
The site of the Monument is on land on which in 1745 a block house was erected for the defense of the town against the French and Indians. It was also fortified during the War of the Revolution and was known as the "Upper Battery".

The material which I have incorporated in my paper has never before been collected and will in time be published in the "Mass.

Historical Society's Collections".

Mrs. Leary desires to be kindly remembered to you and to Mr. Howard.

Very respectfully, yours,

Peter Leary Jr.

Major Earl Howard.
