My dear General:-

We are looking forward with great interest to your paper of tomorrow night on "General Grant at Chattanooga". General Sherman will be there, General Horace Porter, General Parker, General Butterfield, General Webb and General Fullerton, all of whom have promised to say something. The business meeting commences at 7:30; it is not necessary to trouble you with that; if you are at Delmonico's at half past eight, or a little before, that will be time enough. If it would be convenient and agreeable to you, after the meeting to go home with me and spend the night at my house, instead of going back the same night to Governors Island, you will be cordially welcome; so also if you are in town before evening, and it would be convenient and agreeable to you to dine with me at half past six, I need not say that you are always cordially welcome at my house; The usual length of our papers is from twenty to twenty five minutes.

Dear Sir,

Seeing your name in connection with the old U.S.
Soldiers in our late war ^{and} thinking you the proper person to assist in obtaining a pension I write you, asking that favor.

I first saw you in Va later I was with you in the valley of Chattanooga when the little Church Stood, was built, I belonged then to your Corps. On a skirmish line I lost my right eye on the 23^d of Nov. 1864. We were then ordered by you to Knoxville Tenn.

And the difficulties, under my suffering in consequence of the wounds - together with the rough weather made it a march almost unbearable, then we were march'd back to Chattanooga, my eye was still no better, we there remained in camp till May 4th, when we were ordered to Dolton Ga. or "Rocky Face Ridge" all the time I was with you, then transferred to Genl Hookers Command, and in the engagement at Resacca Ga. I received a wound in the left hand.

Nine years ago I applied to the Pension Commission for pension but have never rec'd it yet.
Though the Surgeon said I was entitled to one. I belonged to Co. F. 33 Regt. N. J. - I was a Corporal in said Company - Any assistance you may render me, will be thankfully received, I hope to hear from you in regard to the matter soon, I am as ever yours

to obey.

3. My Dear Gen. Howard:-

In His Name, I am desired to tell you our story, and present our request. - I believe, that I learned long years ago, that no name could influence you so quickly as the MASTER, and that no work enlist your sympathies so warmly as the advancement of His Kingdom. -

I will try to tell you our story briefly. - The Sixteenth Ward of Brooklyn, has been termed by our Mr. Dow "Little Germany". Within its limits are more than 49,000 souls, with not religious accommodations of all persuasions for less than seven thousand. The Sunday over there

in verity a "continental" one

A group of ten, of the Order of the ^{Wing} Daughters, began a service in the Ward on Sunday Jan'y. 1st 1888. They started with a good deal of faith, and — ten dollars. — In spite of most inclement weather, bitter cold, the long distance, and the lack of welcome, they persevered with both Service, and Sunday School; — and have continued both without interruption until the present time. Since last June, we have had a neat little wooden church — two lots of ground, and $1,600 in money were given by two Sisters, and a Brother; — and the balance, ^{by other parties} was advanced nearly, or quite two thousand dollars more. — We cannot mortgage, and we must try to pay off the balance. — In that section of the City are many Grand Army men, and it is believed that if for His sake you are willing to give two lectures after the holidays that we can sell a good many tickets; or even one lecture.

We do not want to be too importunate, but the necessity for our work is so great, and it is not for ourselves. — If you could see as we see, you would believe we do right to try to do something for the "heathen at home". — We would suggest, if you feel that you can help us, that

that Nearmy J. M.
your topic be the "March thro' Georgia", or Gettysburgh, or some-thing relating to the War, and your own experience. — Perhaps some of your own "Boys in Blue", may be there to listen, and live over again the past.

As usual my life is a very busy one. I have hoped to see you on the Island, but I was in poor health in the Spring, and then we were absent eleven weeks. Since my return, and the lifting again of the burden of responsibility, no oppor-tunity has offered.

I trust Mrs. Howard, yourself, and your children are all well.

Yours very sincerely
Theresa Mary Neamy,

Major General Howard:

My dear Friend:- I write you, my dear General Howard, as a philanthropist and a Christian, who loves to lift the burden of human woe. A lady, in deep distress, sent for me. The story, briefly told, is this: A brother about 25 years of age - named B. Sanford Goodhue, becoming greatly disheartened from failure to secure employment, enlisted in the Army, here in San Francisco. He was the support of a widowed mother. He is greatly distressed at his rash move, and desires to be free again, to try and support his mother. He is now at Alcatraz on g. & d.

know how to go about a case like that. Will you, dear General Howard, in a state of great depression, words to express. Most sincerely yours

Dear father

251 } I had a very ^{satisfactory} talk with Gen. Schofield and also one with the Secretary of War. I told them that it had been reported to you that the Indians were somewhat unhappy, primarily of course due to being prisoners, and increased possibly by disappointment at not being moved, and on accounts of some deaths. I saw the General first and in addition I told him you had sent me down to see the new commanding officer & to try and arrange to make ~~everything~~ go as smoothly as possible. He expressed regret that Captain Mitchell had been sent ² there in the first place but he supposed that in the original selection of the companies it had been done by the Colonel who had sent away those he wished to get rid of. On account of breaking up commands he said the ~~company~~ ^{company} had to be sent away, but he was perfectly satisfied that you had acted for the best. He suggested that I go and see the Secretary. I then went up and had a long talk with him. He said that he had expected to go to Mt.

Vernon later but he did not suppose he could learn anything more by going than he could by reports and he did not know that he could get away. He said the reports threatened the Boston people who were interesting³ themselves in the Indians were very favorable. We said Captain Pratt had advised against their being moved in winter but that the objections of the South Carolina people had been removed, in fact Congressmen & others were applying for them. That there ~~was~~ no money to move them with and fit them out without Congressional action except by subscription. So he had delayed until the meeting of Congress. We asked me if a company of soldiers could not be organized among them as the number of scouts allowed by law was greater than the scouts now employed? I answered that under an officer who could govern them by his own personality I thought a very efficient company could be organized⁴ for use anywhere.

I asked him first if he meant just a police force for themselves and he said no he meant for general use. We finally told me to see Smith ~~at~~ its coming from him what would be the possibility of organizing, training and having such a company; and also after I had looked over the ground in regard to that and all other matters to come back and see him. I did not mention the Doctor's alarming report as I thought I had better go there first. I then went back to Gen. Schofield as he had requested and told him generally of the Secretary's instructions except about the Indian company project about which I thought I had better collect the facts before there was any discussion. ^{5th page} I also talked to him about my desire to become familiar with all matters pertaining to Nicaragua and to go there sometime when you could spare me without taking a leave.

He said he thought that would be better than to go under orders.
He thought within a very few years something was very likely to occur, which would make some action necessary by our Government and be heartily approved of my undertaking.

I saw Genl. Buck and told him of your report at your mission to tell him that you wanted him to come to your Headquarters when he whippers behind and also of your enjoyment of Gen. Kelton's report in which you said he must have been covered in consultation but he said he was not. I leave on the train tonight and reach Mt. Vernon day after tomorrow afternoon.

Your affectionate son
Gus

Dear Father:

Three years ago today we were married. We feel as young as ever and yet realize as we look back how much we have received that we should be thankful for. This morning I called to see Marvin Hughitt but did not find him in. Mr. Tyson told me that my name had been mentioned several times by Mr. Hughitt lately but nothing yet had been found sufficient to warrant their communicating with me. They also are watching the work ^{with which} I am connected with great interest. He asked me to call in some day when I had my pass with me & he would have it extended. I told him how much I appreciated his kindness. As soon as I have it done I will write you that they have done it & then I wish you would send a short note to Mr. Hughitt expressing your thanks for his kind attention to me. Mr. Tyson gave me his usual lecture on the poor pay & hard work of a rail-

He also stated that he came here two years and a half ago requesting to be sent west in the employ of the Railroad. Mr. Hughitt took him in his office. No opportunity has yet turned up. He tried to get one of his boys in. The only place was in the mail department at $20.00. The young man took the place - worked for some time - then went to Dakota where he is doing well now. So the story went. General Crook called at World's Fair Headquarters the other day. Shook hands with me. Said he heard I was here in this work. Introduced me to (Rebel General) Gov. Gordon of Atlanta, Georgia. The latter stated that he had a high regard for my father. I am planning to go to Omaha about Christmas & bring Alice home (Chicago). I need the rest or vacation.
