December 9.

My dear Sir:-

May I presume upon your kindness by asking if you can inform me from whom I would be likely to obtain an autograph or an autograph note of the able and distinguished commander General John Edgwick?

If you can give me any information that will lead me in procuring the same, I will be profoundly grateful to you indeed.

I need scarcely say that I would be pleased to receive an autograph letter from yourself, nor that it would be carefully preserved and highly valued as a souvenir of one who was known to the Nation and the World at the close of the War as one of the most brilliant and heroic of the great captains who wore the Blue in the greatest conflict of modern times.

Hoping you will pardon this intrusion upon your valuable time,

I am,

Very Respectfully,

Harry H. Hulse,

Penna.

Dear General

Exchange is no robbery if it is ruled by two essential elements material equality & moral equality. We have had spiritual interchanges which have proved special congeniality; for by the new birth we certainly are formed into the same image, wrought in the same mould.

I did not know till last night that our heads like our hearts were of perfectly like make. On coming out I looked in vain for my hat; I saw one much newer, but twice said: "That is not mine"; till one of the deacons noticed in it a card with your name. May we meet again? If so where? I should so enjoy a visit from you at 9 Be. at our Chapel Service. Perhaps this is not to be expected. Let me again express my thanks to our Common Master that he appointed our meeting. I always feel a quickening of that devotion which we meet which made me the leader in the conversion from twelve years of many playgrounds, then of Sabbath School classes, then of congregations. I am in my present work only for our Master's sake; & how He has blessed the work; even Jeannette thanking me for exposition of Moses' words in the 9th Psalm. Many are coming to see its demands as to missionaries' families. Ever Yrs L. W. Lawson

Gen. Howard.

Dear sir:-

I was one of the many last night who listened to your remarks at the Lexington Ave. Baptist Church, & not only listened to, but was, I think, benefited thereby.

My object in writing, however, is this: If not asking too much, I wish you would send me a short note, or an autograph, to be placed in my autograph album, for which I would be very grateful.

Dear General:

Your favor received and read with pleasure as I find you were not fairly quoted. I am glad to know your address is to be printed by your society and if you will kindly send me a copy when ready for distribution or notify me as to where I can obtain the same, I shall be greatly obliged to you.

Nothing since the famous order of President Cleveland relative to the return of battle flags, has created a greater surprise out this way, than the garbled account of your expressions in your recent address, and you certainly owe it to yourself, to have a verbatim copy printed and generally distributed, as proof of what was actually said.

I remain Very truly yours

Dec. 10. 1889

Dear father

We will come back
Friday reaching Jersey City about half past three or more accurately a very few minutes after there. If it is a good day can the children come to meet us in the Thayer.

I had a long talk with the Secretary of War, and he has turned all papers pertaining to the Apache business over to me

I am ^{10.} to make a full report Howard Gray
with definite recommendation to you and the Secretary says he will forward it to Congress and he desires me to put every thing over to an Apache Bill in definite form, and eventually to help put it through Congress.

I have seen Senator Squire, He is pledged to Mr. Spaulding but has heard of his ^{charges} unpitiless though he can't afford, even if he wants to, to go back on his recommendation now.
I had a talk with Mr. Page and have telegraphed Captain Gray to have statements of the Dr. lack of business ability & of his habits.

sent to Secretary Noble.
I gave Squine Captain Gray's name, and said that you were not desirous of opposing the States own Senators but that if any thing should interfere with Dr. Spaulding's candidacy, you hoped he would take up Captain Gray, with certain complimentary remarks regarding his ability; politics etc.

I think this is all that can be done. We are having a pleasant visit.
Love to all.

Yours affectionately Edw.
Gray.
