Headquarters General Committee on Celebration of Twenty-fifth Anniversary,

TUESDAY, APRIL 15, 1890.

July 2, 1890.

Dear Sir — The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, will celebrate the Twenty-fifth anniversary of the Order, in this city, April 15, 1890. The occasion will bring together, in all probability, a larger number of those who served as officers in the war "waged in defence of the unity and indivisibility of the Republic", than will be assembled at any other time hereafter. A cordial invitation is extended to you to unite with the companions in celebrating the event, which will form an epoch, doubtless, to be long noted in the military annals of our country. The hope is indulged that your engagements may permit an acceptance, and enable you to honor the occasion by your presence.

The following is a list of the names of the in this case, April 12, 1890. The occasion will bring together, in one probability, a large number of those who have been officers in the war will be a most interesting and a very timely occasion.

of course to give a more complete and more accurate knowledge of the war which will give an opportunity to those who have been in the military great success and that the country will be able to honor the war by a great success.
