The Union League Club.

New York, January 1st, 1890.

The Treasurer begs leave to notify the members of the Club that, in accordance with the Thirty-first Article of the By-Laws (an extract from which is annexed), the annual dues are payable on the 9th instant, and that thirty days are allowed thereafter in which payment may be made.

Payment should be made at the Club House, in checks to the order of the Treasurer, or in cash; or, if preferred, the amount may be forwarded to the Treasurer, at the Club House, by mail or otherwise, when receipts will be sent by return mail.

The dues of resident members are seventy-five dollars, of non-resident members forty-five dollars, and of officers of the army or navy, and clergymen, thirty dollars per annum—payable in advance.

It will greatly facilitate the business of the Club if payment is made at an early day.

GEORGE MONTAGUE,
Treasurer.

The annual dues of resident members shall be seventy-five dollars, and the annual dues of non-resident members shall be forty-five dollars, payable in advance, on the second Thursday of January, at which time the fiscal year shall commence. If not paid within thirty days thereafter, the name of the delinquent shall be posted by the Treasurer in a conspicuous place in the Club House; and should he neglect payment, without good cause, until the first day of March, he shall thereupon cease to be a member. Provided, That upon his written application, and the payment of all dues to the date thereof, the Executive Committee may, upon such terms as it may deem proper, remit the penalty of this By-Law; of all which the Secretary shall make a minute. And provided further, That the penalty of this By-Law shall not apply to the case of a resident member who may be ill or absent from the city of New York.

Any member who has paid an admission fee and the annual dues for one year, and who may be absent from the city of New York in a foreign country for a continuous period of a year, shall be exempted from the payment of the annual dues for the period of his absence; if he shall give previous written notice to the Treasurer of his intention so to be absent.

Officers of the army and navy and clergymen shall pay an admission fee of one hundred and fifty dollars, and thirty dollars annual dues. Whenever any non-resident member shall become a resident of any place within fifty miles of the city of New York, he shall therefrom be classed as a resident member, shall be entitled to vote, and be liable to full dues and the payment of another admission fee of one hundred and fifty dollars. Officers of the army and navy may, on giving notice to the Treasurer, be discharged from liability for dues while absent from the city for one or more years on official service, and in the event of such officer of the army and navy visiting New York under color, he shall not be liable for the payment of dues by reason thereof. Members elected before the 19th day of October, 1881, and on that day residing within fifty miles of the city of New York, shall not, by reason of continuing such residence, be deemed resident members.

All resignations shall be made in writing, to the Executive Committee; but if made after the second Thursday of January, such resignation shall not discharge the member presenting it from his dues, for the current year. All interest in the property of the Club, of members resigning or otherwise ceasing to be members, shall be vested in the Club.
My very dear General,—

A happy New Year to you and many splendid occurrences.—

General,

I beg to permit me to briefly state my case.

My name is Willard W. Howard. I have had 13 years of age and enlisted in Troop B, 6th U.S. Cavalry, Oct. 1887, serving two years, with Oct. 89, without arrests. I had got into bad company and trouble on my feet. I was tried by a general court and sentenced to one year confinement. In this sentence, I am serving at Ft. Quesada, New Mexico. Several times, I have said that I was wrongly convicted.
that we will not deceive he was ruptured by a bucking horse the first gun and ought to have been discharged.
His is in sick report at the Plant, no intrest is being conveyed to him confined to his bed and I am. The ones who are inflicted, our measure of disgrace is full. I should be to have him discharged if possible, he is my only son. I am old and in failing health and would like to have him with me. The lesson he has learn will last a lifetime.
I served during the late war in Co. 9th N. Y. Car known as Harris light.

Dear General McDowell,

I have mentioned to the President my impression of the advantage of sending a large body of troops to the South, and the expediency of it. I am sure there is great objection.

I cordially wish a happy event from this to you and all whom we are about to visit.

My dear General

I'm sure not forget that Mr. and Mrs. Staff are to be at the Reception from the Lafayette Park tomorrow (Friday) Spec'y at 8 o'clock. This will be a most interesting occasion.

A new and gorgeous building will be filled with red carpet and their friends, and as I am not an actor in the drama I look with confidence to you for support. She desired me to take an 8 o'clock train to cross town car lanes from 50th St. at the door of Luminaries or 57th St. Madison.
With many best wishes -

Dear Brother:

Happy New Year to you and your family! In looking back, I found no mistakes in what I thought might be of some use to you. Charming to know you are all well.

In the spring, things will get better and better. Affectionately,

C. H. Howard

Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States.

Instituted April 15, 1865.

Headquarters General Committee on Celebration of Twenty-fifth Anniversary,

Tuesday, April 15, 1890.

723 Walnut Street, Philadelphia,

June 2, 1890

Dear Sir,—The Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, will celebrate the Twenty-fifth anniversary of the Order, in this City, April 15, 1890. The occasion will bring together, in all probability, a larger number of those who served as Officers in the war "engaged in defense of the unity and indissolubility of the Republic," than will be assembled at any other time hitherto. A cordial invitation is extended to you to unite with the Companions in celebrating the event, which will form an epoch, doubtless, to be long noted in the Military annals of our country. The hope is indulged that your engagements may permit an acceptance, and enable you to honor the occasion by your presence.

Very Respectfully,

William O. Storrs.
