Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of March 18th and am very much obliged to you.

Our Committee is very much pleased that you are able to come, and particularly also that Lieut. Howard will accompany you. Many of our members are familiar with his wife to Mr. Vernon, and we shall be very glad to receive him.

Lieut. Howard will stop at Mr. Parker's house, and if you would like also stop here I will engage rooms for you and Dick Staward.

Kindly let me hear from you on this point, and also if you will arrive the one day long. If you cannot come earlier, I suggest that the 3 pm. train from N.Y. to England R.R. arriving at 9, is a very nice train, and you would enjoy arriving Wednesday, rather than on Thursday morning perhaps.

I am, very truly,

Dear Gen. Howard:

I agree with you entirely. I want you to hear my address, on Thursday night. Come to the Langham & be my guest for the night; be introduced to the Convention, & talk a moment on Education, or anything but politics. I want your ideas of the correctness of my views.

Everything goes on pleasantly.

I have reason to believe my brother's widow, a daughter of Judge Poland, & a lady of large means, will make the stem. Chapel for me. She will be here, on Thursday evening if you can. Aff. L. Chandra.

Dear Sir

In reply to your favor of the 19th inst would state that I asked Mr Warner to request you to speak at one of our members meeting as that is the one for which I am responsible and in which I am naturally especially interested, he was to speak to you at the February meeting of the Congregational Club but you left before he had an opportunity.

Mr Warner is Chairman of the Branch and doubtless has good reasons for asking you to come at another time, but I am disappointed that he has done so, perhaps later in the year you may be willing to come again & oblige

Yours very truly
