NORTHWESTERN GUARANTY

LOAN COMPANY

OF MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

CAPITAL FULL PAID $1,000,000.

INCORPORATED 1884.

Minneapolis, Minn.

OCTOBER 23D, 1890.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS :—

Your Directors have this day, by unanimous vote, authorized the sale of Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars of the uncalled Capital Stock ; which will, when paid in, make a total Capital of One Million, Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

The reason for this action is the increasing and profitable foreign business with which your Corporation is favored. In the growth of this business, additional capital can be very profitably employed, and the increased strength which added capital will give, will have a favorable influence in regard to amount of profits to be realized.

This additional capital will cause no increase in expense of management. We are fortunate in having the best of credit and standing both at home and over the water, the direct result of conservative business management since date of organization.

The success attained is doubtless due to the fact that our Corporation has never relied upon one class of business, and its loans have been made in one of the most, if not the most, prosperous section of our country.

The stock transfers for the last six months have been largely at $110 and accrued interest per share, and the stock is certainly a fine investment at that price. The new stock will, like the old, be free of tax to all stockholders, and there is every reason to expect a good increase in surplus in addition to paying the usual dividend of 8 per cent. per annum, which has been paid since date of organization.

The right of present stockholders to have the first opportunity to subscribe for the increase is recognized, and your Directors have fixed upon the following terms: Each stockholder may subscribe until December 1st, 1890, for one-fourth of the number of shares he now owns at the rate of $105 per share payable as follows: 25 per cent. at time of subscription, 25 per cent. January 1st, 25 per cent. February 1st, and 25 per cent. March 1st, 1891. Interest at the rate of 8 per cent. will be paid on all instalments from date of the payment. Subscribers may pay in full at any time they desire. Should any stockholder desire to subscribe for more stock than present holdings would entitle them to, subscriptions will be received and stock furnished provided other stockholders waive their right to subscribe.

All stock not taken by shareholders December 1st, 1890, will be disposed of by the Directors, as in their judgment may be for the best interests of the Company.

Enclosed you will find two blanks, one for your subscription and one waiving opportunity to subscribe. Please return one in enclosed envelope and oblige.

The premium received 5 per cent. will be credited to surplus account.

Very truly yours,

NORTHWESTERN GUARANTY LOAN COMPANY.

Dear General

We were all hoping to see you at the 25th Anniversary of the 1st Congregational Church in Washington; and Mrs. W. & I anticipated the pleasure of seeing you &
Mr. Howard at our home.

But Dr. Newman informs me that you are not able to come. Every body will be disappointed.

While writing about our

Church, I want to ask if you are correctly reported in the Advertiser as saying
at the A. M. A. meeting in Northampton that the Attitude of this church
toward the Colored people has changed. If anybody has intimated to you such a thing, I assure you that there is not a shadow of truth in it, & I do not want you to give it any credence.

With love to all yours.

My Dear Brother:-

I desire to ask a favor of you or of Guy or both with reference to a business matter. A Mr. W. H. Gould special advertising agent, 174 Broadway, N.Y., has been in correspondence with my partner Mr. J. W. He is a perfect stranger to both, but gives references for us to correspond with and also says in his letter of November 3rd that he would go early in the week to Governor's Island to enquire for me thinking that I was to return that way as I had first planned. These are points that we can hardly depend upon as derived from his particular friends and referees. If he has not called, we will suggest that he do so, in order that you or Guy may have a little conversation with him and in that case, if not asking too much, would like to have you talk enough with him to be able to judge of his fitness in the respects mentioned. Of course as to moral character and financial standing etc. we shall rely upon other sources of information, but it occurred to me that if you would take upon you so much of the burden, it would save another trip of one of us to N.Y. or a visit of the young man to Chicago. He is only 25 years of age and it is possible may seem too youthful and inexperienced ^{fully} ~~probably~~ to represent us. You know there is a great difference in the address of young men.

Genl. O. O. Howard,

Kind Sir

Dear valued friend

I write you
from a sick bed. In the celebration of the establishment of the 1st Cong.
church, they have ignored my dear husband L. Deane. Some of the members are not disposed to do him justice and others have not back bone enough to do speak

You know my friend, some people with generous hearts, and noble aims, are ~~some~~ uncomfortable,
and they can't help it.

Deane L.

If you ^{Fido} remember before I was married to Mr. Deane I asked you this question, "What kind of a man is Mr. L. Deane?" your answer was "One of the best of men!"

You told the truth, but with his large estimate he expects as much of others as he gives to them. He does not get what he expects.

Now dear General, sick as I am I wish to ask you when you speak him at the celebration, or, whatever it is, that you simply do justice to my good husband for the part he took in establishing Congregationalism in this District and you will ever have the love and prayers of your true friend Mrs. L. Deane.

Dear Sir:

Will you please call this week if possible and give me a sitting (in full dress) for the picture for the group to be engraved by the Lee Bank Co. The one sent is not what I want in order to do you justice. I will not detain you five minutes. You can have the coat &c sent here.

Very truly yours
