Dear General Howard:

In shame I
hang my head at my seeming negligence to thank you for your ready response to give us a letter to Sec<sup>y</sup> Windom.
We have waited from day to day hoping for the fulfillment of our desires: knowing you would be almost as happy
as ourselves at any good fortune that awaited us.

Your good letter to Sec Windom
we gave with Captains application only a few weeks ago. During the hot weather of August the Captain wilted so much we thought it advisable to wait. Latterly he has imposed on if he continues we are quite sure he will succeed in his desire. ~~And~~ will apprise you immediately of our good fortune. Hoping you and your family are in best of health.

We subscribe ourselves

VOLUME .....

Post Office Department,

OFFICE OF THIRD ASSISTANT POSTMASTER GENERAL,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov 7, 1890

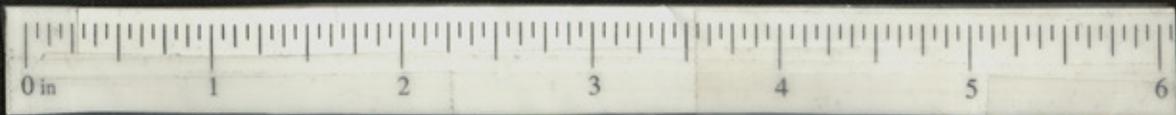

In any further correspondence on this subject quote the above Letter, Number, and Volume.

Gen O. O. Stowaid,

My dear sir,

In looking over the records of our church 23 years ago, I find that the clerk, Mr. Bapton generally inserted every thing laudatory of Dr Bapton & omitted all else.

My memory of the Council, that ultimately led to his dismissal is as follows. The committee to call it was composed entirely of the majority, and the letter missive was so drawn that the quarrel between the two wings of the church was not alluded to. When the Council came together, & Mr Bapton appeared for the minority,

Dr Boynton immediately objected that the quarrel was not included in the letter mission. The Council overruled him. He declined to be bound by the Council, and a committee was appointed to see him. In the evening, he consented to let the Council have all authority to open all questions.
Dr R. S. Stone preached the sermon.

Will you be kind enough to inform me if this is your recollection and give me any other facts that I may not remember.

Faithfully yours,

William R. Hooper

Dear Sir:--

I represent some gentlemen, who contemplate the establishment of a Military College similar to the Schools at Peekskill, Chester, Penn. and Orchard Lake, Mich. But in addition to the ordinary course of studies, we propose to have an advanced Military Course. In other words, we intend to undertake the instruction of X Field and Line Officers of the States Militia, in their respective duties. We will have several West Point graduates in our faculty, using our School Battalion as an object lesson; we believe that with special courses of two to six months, we can prepare officers now incompetent, to fulfil their duties with credit to themselves, and to the respective states to whose National Guard they belong.

We have looked around for a suitable West Point graduate as the President and Military Commandant.

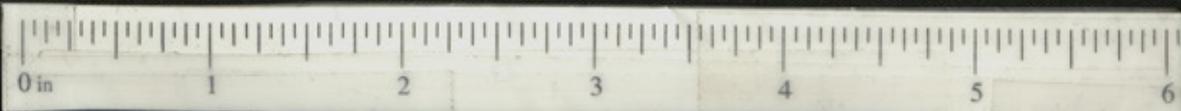

It has seemed to us that Lieut. W. R. Hamilton, 5th U. S. Artillery, would meet our wants better than any officer we know of. Before we ask the Department for such a detail, we would like to make some special inquiries, as to his fitness and character, as for obvious reasons we cannot now make our inquiries of the Department prior to a request for a detail. Will you kindly state what you know of Lieut. Hamilton, and as to the wisdom of the selection and would also be glad for an expression of your judgment as regards the feasibility of such a course of Post Graduate instruction

Dear Sir:

I represent some information that has been furnished to me by the Director of the United States Army, Department of the Army, Washington, D. Dear Sir:-

In acknowledgment of your esteemed favor, we beg to thank you for your courtesy and friendliness to our undertaking, and shall take pains to have this sketch prepared in the best possible manner. We are asked to embellish these biographies with vignette portraits, like those shown; and they are in such request, we are obliged to restrict them to only the more prominent persons.

We feel that your position and work in the world entitles you to this portrait. There are over six thousand representative persons living who should have portraits, which would require an outlay that no publisher would be justified in assuming. This expense, however, distributed pro rata, is so small, and we feel that its addition to the biography is so great, that no one can afford to have it omitted. They cost $70 each. A photo-process plate, such as can only be printed on special, coated paper, cannot be used. This is an etching, drawn by a portrait artist of the highest ability, and engraved, so as to retain its vigor and delicacy through large editions. This is what gives the LIFE to the portrait, and makes the cost. These are the finest portraits that have ever been produced - they are LIKENESSES which show the CHARACTER of the man.

We claim that we are simply the "Builders of the House", and present it to you with bare walls. The decorations on these walls are determined by you. We make no charge for the building, but we do not think it is fair to you to omit this portrait, simply because we cannot afford to pay for it, when possibly you might be glad to bear the expense.

As this biography is prepared and inserted at no expense to you, are you not willing to pay for this portrait? It will give you a place of honor, which will be gratifying to your friends, and especially to your household. This gives you the original plate, and a permanent and prominent place in this standard work, which, from the present subscription list, will have a sale of not less than 100,000 copies.

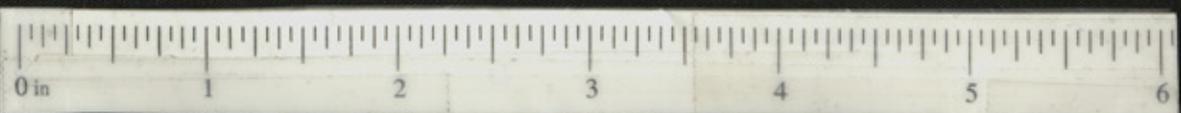

These portraits supply the only means of making the character sketches attractive and even noticeable to casual readers. In a Cyclopaedia, where the space is necessarily limited, Biography is only intelligible when accompanied by a portrait. After the book is in press, it will be too late, and then this urgent appeal will be appreciated, and our motive not questioned. Then you will see your mistake, and this is why we say, you cannot afford to have your portrait omitted. It is not for you - it is for your children and posterity.

No portrait will be admitted for a money consideration. An invitation from the editors alone secures the privilege. The biographies are inserted without cost, but every portrait of a living person must, from necessity, be at the expense of the individual or his friends.

Very respectfully,

James T. White & Co.

... in the ...

The following are the questions discussed by the late meeting of the Board of Managers of the Evangelical Alliance, together with the resolutions in which the Board expressed their judgment on each.

1. The relations of the Alliance to the movement in behalf of Christian Unity.

Resolved, that this Alliance is in profound sympathy with the present wide-spread and increasing feeling which favors the manifested spiritual unity of all the friends of Christ. We cherish the remembrance of our Savior's words, "That they all may be one, as Thou, Father, art in me, and I in Thee; that they may be one in us." We pray that the providence and Spirit of God may speedily reveal both the true fulfillment of those words and its best method. Co-operation in Christian work for the entire community and for all the world tends to prepare the way; and consequently, as a non-ecclesiastical association of Christian men, we especially emphasize such co-operation. Faithful fellow laborers in Christian work will love one another.

2. Report on recent investigations into the condition of country communities and on county conventions in New York and Pennsylvania followed by discussion.

Resolved, first, that we recognize the importance of fostering the work of the Alliance in the counties in which Alliances have been organized.

Resolved, second, that State Alliances be urged to promote the organization of County Alliances, for the furtherance of this work.

Resolved, third, that a special committee be appointed by the president to confer with representatives of the American Tract Society, and of the New York State Sunday School Association, on the subject of the spiritual destitution of country districts.

3. The Week of Prayer. How may it give a greater spiritual impulse to the churches?

In order to give greater impulse to the Week of Prayer, resolved, that the course pursued by the secretaries last year be repeated, with an added appeal to pastors to co-operate in their special localities in the observance of the week, and that the committee in charge of the programme send out a simple resume of topics.

4. The conference of the World's Alliances in Florence, Italy, April, 1891.

Resolved, that the Board of Managers heartily approve of the action of the Executive Committee in respect to the General Conference of the World's Alliance, to be held in Florence, Italy, in 1891.

5. The Alliance and the question of closing the World's Fair, Chicago, on the Sabbath.

Resolved, that a special committee of three be appointed by the president, to consider the question of the Sunday closing of the World's Fair, Chicago, and to report at a future meeting.

The following are the questions discussed by the late meeting of the Board of Managers of the Evangelical Alliance, together with the resolutions in which the Board expressed their judgment on each.

1. The relations of the Alliance to the movement in behalf of Christian Unity. Resolved, that this Alliance is in profound sympathy with the present widespread and increasing feeling which favors the maintenance of spiritual unity of all the friends of Christ. We cherish the testimony of our Savior's words, "that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee; that they may be one in us." We pray that the providence and Spirit of God may speedily reveal to us the true fulfillment of those words and its best method. Co-operation in Christ is for the entire community and for all the world tends to progress the spirit and consequently, as a non-ecumenical association of Christian men, we especially emphasize such co-operation. Fraternal fellow laborers in Christ we will love one another.

2. Report on recent investigations into the condition of country organizations and on society convocations in New York and Pennsylvania followed by discussion. Resolved, that we recognize the importance of securing the work of the Alliance in the countries in which Alliance work has been organized. Resolved, second, that State Alliances be urged to promote the organization of County Alliances for the furtherance of this work. Resolved, third, that a special committee be appointed by the president to confer with representatives of the American Tract Society, and of the New York State Sunday School Association, on the subject of the spiritual education of country churches.

3. The Week of Prayer. How may it give a greater spiritual impulse to the churches? In order to give greater impulse to the Week of Prayer, resolved, that the course pursued by the churches last year be repeated, with an added appeal to pastors to co-operate in their special localities in the observance of the week, and that the committee in charge of the program send out a single volume of topics.

4. The conference of the World's Alliance in Florence, Italy, April, 1901. Resolved, that the Board of Managers heartily approve of the action of the Executive Committee in respect to the general conference of the World's Alliance to be held in Florence, Italy, in 1901.

5. The Alliance and the question of electing the World's Fair, Chicago, on the Sabbath. Resolved, that a special committee of three be appointed by the president to consider the question of the Sunday closing of the World's Fair, Chicago, and to report at a future meeting.

Order of United American Veterans.

Washington, D. C., November 8 1890

Dear General,

Enclosed find papers relating to Order of American Veterans, which I hope you will examine critically and give me your opinion of it. I hope your opinion will be favorable. - for the organization is of my creation, and chiefly my organizing.

It is but a few weeks old - and now numbers among its members Gen. Sherman, Gen. Meade, Gen. Burnside, - and nearly a hundred - and nearly equally divided as to Union and Confederate Veterans - My object - and it seems to be the object of all members is to break over all barriers to political and social prejudice - of soldiers of both armies - and so far the gratuity seems cordial - frank, and thoroughly honest.

I shall be gratified if you approve and endorse it. - At any rate, give me your opinion - Truly yours

New York City, N.Y.

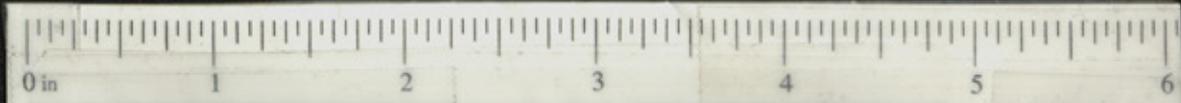

Dear Sir:-

We are in receipt of your favor of the 3rd inst. enclosing remittance of $35.25 which has been placed to your credit to apply upon Quarterly Call No. 49.

In view of your remarks we herewith return the notice with the present payment credited thereon and an indorsement of time for payment of the balance until Jan. 1st, next. If the necessary amount, together with this notice is in our hands by that date, payment will be accepted without prejudice to your Policies Nos. 14816-20 and 54368.

The increase in the Mortuary Call this quarter over that of Aug. 2nd is due to the extra death losses we have had in consequence of last winter's epidemic of La Grippe. You will notice, however, that the increase is only at the rate of 5 per cent on the year's cost, and we feel that we may well congratulate ourselves that so extended an epidemic has affected us so slightly. All of the Insurance Companies in both this country and Europe have had a similar experience.

Yours truly,

Bill Stephens

We are in receipt of your favor of the 1st inst. enclosing a check for $100.00 which we have placed to your credit for the purpose of paying the balance of your account.

In view of your check we have not yet received the balance of the account. Payment of the balance of the account is due for payment of the balance of the account. If the necessary amount together with this notice is in our hands by that date, payment will be made to you by check for the amount of $100.00 and

The increase in the amount of the account will be paid over that of 1910.
and in case of the same case losses we have made a comparison of the amount of the account of the 1910. You will notice, however, that the increase is only at the rate of 1 per cent of the year's cost, and we feel that we will only maintain ourselves and so extended in the future we will be able to do so. All of the insurance which we have had in the past has been a similar experience.

Yours truly,
