My dear Gen. Howard,

The family have asked me to express their thanks for all that you did to make my father's funeral so splendid a tribute to his memory. It was peculiarly appropriate that those so intimately associated with him in tho-

army, should have been called on to offer him this last tribute of respect still more touching that the man whom he chose to succeed his great favorite McPherson, in command of the Army of the Tennessee, should have marshalled the array that paid the final honors to Sherman.

Permit me to add that the family are deeply sensible of the solicitude of the military authorities in striving to lighten in every way what might otherwise be a great burden.

Thanking you once more in the name of the family I remain,

Very respectfully yours,
Thomas E. Sherman.

Gen. O. O. Howard,
Kind Friend,

I was an associate-teacher
with Dr. Corey at "Richmond Institute," Richmond, Va.,
when, through you,
the building still
occupied by them was secured (at the corner of Main & 19th Sts.) I taught there 4 yrs., and in other Institutes 6 yrs., South, until married.
My husband died
7 months since,
leaving me alone.

I have received a letter from Mr. Brooks who is one of the colored Pastors in Washington, that a "Missionary" is much needed in his church, and the other Col. Churches there, never having had one, as they do in many places, South, but they are unable to pay the expense of one coming to them.

It occurred to me that possibly you might be able to furnish me transportation, there, and all I would ask, besides would be my board, or what could be done toward it, and I would gladly work in their churches, at least for 4 months, now, and do all I could to get them in good, working order.

Should you respond favorably, would go to them as soon as possible, after the 1st of March.

Very respectfully Your Co. Worker,

Mrs. H. G. Smith
"Prof. King" of —
Maryland Seminary,
Washington, knows
of me. It would be an appreciated privilege to engage in "Missionary-work" there.

The publishers of Father's memoirs notify us that a life of Father is in press and extensively advertised, purporting to be written by you. In case this is the fact will you kindly notify me. If it is not true please let me have your denial of the fact, as the sale of such a work might interfere with the sale of Father's memoirs. I would like to skirmish line between you and the enemy's line. I hope at some future time to be able to meet you and shake you by the hand--I am General O. O. Howard, know you have but one.

New York, N. Y.

My Dear General:--By this day's mail I send you a copy of the Columbus Post, in it you will see the picture of a man who is no very gray and for that reason you will probably not be able to recognize him as being the boy or young man who was riding with you as your private orderly on the morning of the 6th day of August, 1864 in front of Atlanta when you were riding along near the skirmish line and at the time your horse was wounded. There is quite a difference in my appearance now and at that time--while I am comparatively a young man yet at that time I was but a boy. I remember you quite well and am sorry that I have not had the opportunity of meeting you since my discharge from the service at Washington, D.C. on the 28th day of May, 1865. I was a member of the 4th Ohio Ind. Vol. Cavalry Co.-Captain John S. Foster's Co. and at times was detailed to ride with you and at the particular time I speak of was riding with you as your orderly. I often think of the matter because I believe it is generally understood that a General commanding an army should not be in front but in the rear but I am sure that at this particular time there was nothing but a mere skirmish line between you and the enemy's line. I hope at some future time to be able to meet you and shake you by the hand--I say by the hand because I know you have but one.

The death of our comrade, Gen. Sherman, reminds us that all the soldiers of the late war are now on the downward slope. Having been with you and Sherman on the glorious march to the Sea--after which "the Stars in our Banner shone brighter" it certainly makes one feel sad to contemplate that our friends of the late war are passing to the great beyond.

Sincerely yours,

I hope to have some time between now and then to make up my mind what to do with this letter. I know you have some time to spare and I would like to get it off my hands as soon as possible. I will do my best to help you out. I have had quite a bit of trouble with the government lately. They seem to be trying to force me into a corner. I am not sure what to do. I have been thinking about it for a long time now. I think I should probably just ignore them and continue with my work as usual. I don't want to get involved in any legal trouble. I will keep you posted on my progress. Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely yours,

Maj. Gen. O. Howard,

Governor's Island, N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

The publishers of the Western Magazine, Chaperone, propose to make the March number of the monthly, largely a Memorial to Gen. Sherman. Contributions to this end have been asked and are being received from many of the leading citizens of the United States, especially those who were prominently connected with ^{Gen. Sherman} St. Louis during the Civil War. It will be tribute to the General from his old home, St. Louis, and will be handsomely illustrated.

The writer of this letter had the pleasure of not only being associated with Gen. Sherman, but with yourself as commander of the Army of Tennessee in the march through Georgia, being connected with the staff of Gen. Fuller, First Brigade, First Division 17 A. C. We desire to have you give us some reminiscences of Gen. Sherman that are not connected with history.

We notice your article in the Independent last week. If you can find the time and will contribute to this Sherman memorial a short sketch of reminiscences we are sure that they will be acceptable to all the boys, as a matter of love and devotion to our old commander.

With kindest regards and awaiting your further reply, we remain,

Yours truly,
