My dear General Howard:

As Mr Griswold told me he had written you in detail regarding the arrangements we made,
I have delayed my letter in order to forward with it the deed properly recorded. It was returned to me only this morning by Wells, Fargo and every thing is properly attended to. I consider you fortunate in this matter for to judge Mr G. by my recent association he is anything but honest and I am really surprised that he allowed you anything.

You are in my debt for the sum of $2.25 the amount I have expended in getting the paper recorded. My leave so far, has been of the greatest possible value value to me and I have never wished to hard in my life. We look forward to seeing you all again when the leave is up and I feel most grateful, my dear General, for your kind promise to keep my place open until I can get back.

With much love to all, in which Mr. Stanton joins, most faithfully and sincerely,

Dear Sir:

I learn with pleasure from Mr. Irving Murcette that you have kindly consented to lecture before the Young Men's Club of the Tompkins Ave. Church.

I write to ask whether the 18th visit would be as agreeable to you as the 11th the date named. We would much prefer the later date if you have no engagements for that evening.

If you will kindly let me know whether the 18th visit will be satisfactory to you I will have an arrangement made for that evening.

Very truly yours

I feel that an explanation is due you regarding the occupancy by my family of a part of your pew at the Tabernacle.

Last Sunday noticing that a stranger had been seated by the usher previous to the singing of the first Anthem, I suggested to the sexton that this made the pew rather crowded, and judge of my astonishment when he informed me that we were not entitled to seats in that pew, as you had sometime since decided that it was only large enough for your family. Mr. Boyd also stated that sometime since he had written me a letter to the above effect. I could not help feeling very much annoyed as I never received a word or line from him in relation to the matter. I immediately transferred our books to another pew and write this letter in order to show you that we were not aware until last Sunday that we had been trespassing.

If you will kindly forward me a bill for the amount due for the occupancy of the two seats, I will at once send you a check.

Very respectfully yours,

General O. O. Howard;

My dear General,

I am sorry to trouble you again about the annoying affair of the Messrs Hubbard, but our publishers are still complaining and it seems necessary to do something in the matter. Mr Hall of Webster & Co suggests to me that if you could hold some communication with Col. McCook or preferably with Mr Whitford of the firm of Alexander & Green, one of those gentlemen could suggest to you a way of preventing the Hubbards from making further use of your name as

Shuman J. E.

the author of a life of father. In making this suggestion Mr Hall assures me that as late as yesterday the Hubbards were so using your name, and also that any measures suggested by the lawyers in question would not be in the nature of legal proceedings, but rather of some notice to the press which would serve to checkmate the Hubbards. The Whetford of the firm of Alexander and Green is the attorney of Webster & Co & therefore interested in devising some solution of the problem that will accomplish the desired end with the minimum of inconvenience to all involved.

Begging you to excuse this suggestion, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,

Thomas E. Sherman.

General Howard
Dear Sir

We have just seen in our local papers, you are expected in our city next Sunday.
If that be the case, we hope it is not too late for us to ask the privilege of entertaining you. Our home just now (in fact for nearly seven years) is in a quiet boarding house where we will be delighted to welcome you and if Mrs Howard will accompany you it will add to our pleasure. You shall both have the utmost freedom to go and come as you with a visit to any of us just as you choose. Should be glad to see you at as early an hour as you can come on Saturday and remain as long as possible. I trust the delay in asking for your society will not deprive us of it. The illness of one of my sisters occasioned the neglect of the papers but she is better now. Our Father and two of my sisters are all our family now; our dear Mother, after years of suffering entered "into rest" more than a year ago.

I mentioned boarding, because it is just possible you might not care to visit in a boarding house, but it is an excellent, home-like one, not at all like those one reads of; the boarders are few and agreeable. If Mrs Howard cannot come will not your daughter do so, but we are hoping to see the former. If we know at what hour, and in what train you would come will try to meet you, but my Father is so old a resident of Newburgh can be easily found at Mrs Brown's. 208 Liberty St.

Hoping we shall not be disappointed, with remembrances to yourself and family, and in behalf of my Father and sisters I remain truly yours

J. R. Banks.
