Dear Gen. Howard,

Your reply of the 15th inst, is at hand.

Nothing would give me more pleasure than to comply with your wish & aid your mission work with a large collection, as the price of an address from you on May 10th.

I greatly regret that the situation in my own church plainly makes that impossible.

In addition to very frequent appeals to my congregation for numerous benevolences, we are at present pressing everybody within our borders for money to pay off our debt of nearly thirty thousand dollars with which the church is oppressively burdened. So that

Dear General

Have you any recollection of one George Arrowsmith Lieut. Col. of the 157th N.Y. S.V. who fell at Gettysburgh in the first days fight? I am preparing a biographical sketch at the request of the Arrowsmith Post S. L. R. of this place. Any information we feel for my purpose that you can give will be esteemed a favor. We distinguish himself as a brave and gallant officer prior to his connexion with the 157th and at Chancellorsville gained credit in defeat. It would not be strange however, even if you had known him or of him in the army, as an officer in your corps, that you should have forgotten him, so many years having elapsed since his death.

Yours very truly
John D. Applegate
to Gen. G. O. Howards

P.S. He was a college associate of mine, and I can bear witness to his splendid talents and noble qualities of heart.
