My dear Otis

I received a letter from Lizzie Lee last ^{mat} in which she says she contemplates paying you a short visit. I judge from her letter she would like to have me assist her in getting to Governors Island which I will most cheerfully do if you will tell me how to proceed. I am settled here with my family (at 81 Clinton Place) and will be very glad to see you either at the office or house. Make my kind regards to your wife & family the steps taken in this movement. Your whole life work has been given to steps in the direction that we are going, but this movement makes of that life work a success in a higher and broader atmosphere. Please read carefully the inclosed article on "Humanity and Right", and then realize that in this committee, working in absolute accord, are the Cardinal of the Catholic Church in America, the late Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, and the Chairman of the committee on the Revision of the Creed. Bishop Cheney of the Episcopal Church, Rabbi Gottheil, and Col. Robert G. Ingersoll. The world is in accord in this one great idea. Liberty Enlightening the World, the monument which is always in sight from your headquarters, is the natural outcome of the Sermon on the Mount, and we are given the opportunity to play our part in the Drama. I inclose you also, letter just received from Ex-President Hayes, and from Cardinal Gibbons, and I do hope that I will receive a letter by return mail in which you say as President Hayes does in his concluding sentence.

Yours Sincerely

Respectfully yours,

Your whole life work has been given to steps in the direction that we are going, but this movement makes of that life work a nucleus in a higher and broader atmosphere. Please read especially the enclosed article on "Humanity and Right", and when you realize that in this connection, working in absolute accord, are the Cardinal of the Catholic Church in America, the late Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, and the Chairman of the Committee on the Revision of the Creed, Bishop Cheney of the Episcopal Church, Rabbi Gottlieb, and Col. Robert G. Ingersoll. The world is in accord in this our great hour, liberally enlightening the world, and movement which is alive in sight from your headquarters, and the natural outcome of the sermon on the Mount, and we are given the opportunity to play our part in the Drama. I enclose you also, letter just received from Ex-President Hayes, and from Cardinal Gibbons, and I do hope that I will receive a letter by return mail in which you say that President Hayes does in his concluding sentence.

I am in receipt of your valued favor of the 5th instant with interesting accompanying papers relating to the Pan Republic Congress, for which I beg you to receive my thanks. I have been averse to adding to the engagements which I have made and cannot do so, if much time or attention is required of me. I am however so well satisfied that America can and ought to be the great Peace Maker of the world and that this movement will tend in that direction, that my wish is to be counted among its earnest friends and advocates.

Dear General Howard,

Yours of 13th inst. was duly received. I am very sorry that the Brooklyn Memorial resulted so badly (financially), but I regret much more that I am compelled to send you so little in aid of your work. With your large experience in these matters, and your knowledge of me, I believe it will be unnecessary to make any excuses, other than the general one that I am overwhelmed with opportunities for doing good, and for some time past, I have carried a bigger burden than I really feel able to.

Herewith I hand you my check # 148 on the 4th Nat'l Bk. $250.00 in aid of your work. My only regret is that I cannot afford to send you more.

Sincerely yours,
