Major General A. B. Readcord

My dear Sir,

This letter will introduce to you, Mr. Charles Rapp, and Mr. Frank C. Pitcher, members of my church. If you can accede to their request, it will give us all great pleasure, and we shall deem it a distinguished favor from you.

I ask this with respect.

Yours truly,

My dear Sir and Bro.,

Allow me to recall to your mind the delightful time we had on "Children's Day" at Newburgh when you made us at West Point. Will you come and do it again? I am having our Church in this place and on the second Sunday in June, 14th, we are to observe the day and I much desire you to be with us at 10:30 A.M. You can come up and return the same day if you desire. You can help us to have a Great day. Our conditions are most favorable to a very successful observance of the day. We have an elegant Church, a fine Sunday school, a dear good people, we will make you happy if you will favor us with your presence. An early reply will greatly oblige.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:—

Mrs. Whitney desires me to express her thanks to you for your kindness and courtesy, and to say that the small detail to attend her husband's funeral on Monday, as suggested would be satisfactory. Inasmuch as it would not be practicable for them to fire a volley, as she desired, she thought that possibly, you could send one of the detail, a bugler, who could sound taps over the grave. If this meets with your approval she would appreciate it.

Yours very truly,

My dear Sir:—

Mrs. Wilkins eases me to express my gratitude to you for your kindness and courtesy, and to say that the small packet to accompany my letter was received on Thursday last. I am not prepared to offer you a month or six weeks of the gratification that possesses you may convey to me the pleasure of meeting with your approval and willing cooperation.

My Dear Herr,

I find the reviews
clear. It is all admirable, it just to the point. I thank you for it, very much.

Do you remember Rev. Charles
Noble, son of the venerable Dr.
Nelson Noble? If you should he would be a good man for our
Rev. work, I wish you would only to see the Dr. and I say what.
you know about him. I have men retained him to them, not as the best man, but as the best man
I knew. They may have better men in mind, and I would not have any candidate in comparison with them. If you want them, do not mention my name.

dr. truly,

To His Excel. Wm. Genet. Amer. Consul.

Sir,

After receiving your kind letter by Mr. West, the Spanish Consul informed me, on an engagement he has made in my name, including many other persons, to whom it is not easy let know the change, so I shall have the pleasure to explain to you.

In that account, I beg you kindly before our meeting to meet Saturday the 28th at the same hour, that I shall go with your officers & about twenty midshipmen to attend to your benevolent invitation.

I am very sorry on that subject, as it has been not in my power, to avoid it in time, I beg you kindly accept my best excuse for it.

With my most respectful regard

I remain of your obedient,

Your most humble servant

My dear General:

I am glad to see that you are going to Ludlow for Decoration Day. My birthplace and old home was at the next village, three miles away, and I wish I could be there with you. Am not now certain where I shall be.

I think the better way to go is to go up the Hudson River to Rutland. You can take a sleeping train at Forty-second Street, arriving at Rutland about two o'clock in the morning. That is not a good hour, but the Bardwell House and the Bates House are just across the street. Ludlow is only an hour's ride from Rutland, and there are two trains in the forenoon. Or, if you have the time, you can leave New York in the forenoon arriving in Rutland in the afternoon and go to Ludlow the same night or in the morning. If I find that I can be at home, I hope you will come in the day time and spend the night with me. The New York train runs right through my place - six miles north of Rutland.

But I started to write about another matter:
The Centennial of the admission of Vermont to the Union, and the dedication of the Bennington Battle Monument are to be observed at Bennington the nineteenth of August. The President intends to be present; the cadets will go up; and the State authorities have asked for Cushing's Battery, to which General Schofield thought there would be no objection as they take a practice march. Of course that will come to you officially, and also an invitation, but without waiting for that, wish you would consider yourself invited with such members of your staff as you wish to take with you.

Think I must try to get over to the Island to see you sometime before long when I am passing through New York.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Lincoln,

I am writing to inform you of the recent developments in the war and the current situation in the Union army.

The news from the front is grim. The Confederates have made significant advances in several key battles, and our forces are in a difficult position. The loss of soldiers and resources is mounting, and the future looks uncertain.

I am concerned about the welfare of our soldiers and the impact of this conflict on the nation's economy. We must find a way to negotiate a peaceful resolution to this conflict.

Please consider taking action to end this senseless war. It is essential that we do not lose any more lives or resources. I believe that a negotiated peace is the best option.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Otis,

Can you in your busy life afford time to answer a question for me? I have thought a little of buying some lots in Portland, Oregon, in Irvington-Park from Reggen and Holbrook. Do you know anything about it. Or is Grace and her husband still living there and could I get any information from them? I hope this will find...
you and all you dear ones well, and happy.

I have a dear little grandson, who is the autocrat of the family, and rules us all by love.

If not to much trouble I shall be glad to hear from you.

I hear Martha's family are all well. Annie has a dear little baby girl named Martha.

Bessie joins me in love to you all.

General, I hope you will give me the book or so very soon. With so many calling, you on every side I know that I have offered for much, but think that will help you feel that much good may come of it. You said, “I wished you to be my disciple,” I dreaded the idea being so strange to one that I did not at once get hold of it, I should have have said, what I wished for was a fellow-worker who would help by what I could not do.

Truly affectionately yours,
Francis W. Upham.

P.S. You are often in town: if you come at 7/2 part 8, 9 if you, or yours, will then there or we happen to be, “The catch thing is always out.”

My Dear General,

You will pardon me for not having answered your esteemed favor, when I told you that the reason is, I expected to have been able to go over and see you personally. I had a consultation with my chief, Mr. Weber, in regard to it, and regretted to learn that as he had officially recommended that this plan be used, as a ferry for Ellis Island, there does not seem to be much promise that we can gratify your wishes, which I so much desire to do. I have little time here today and I would very much like to have you see or communicate with him. If you write I will see your letter placed in his hand and talk with him for you. I will do everything I can to accord your wishes. I shall do all now and at any time. As you know I was only accord in command but if it were in my power, I would do exactly what you want. With much esteem and best wishes,

Sincerely,

My dear Mr. Howard,

This afternoon two ladies called—Mrs. A. Sloan and Miss M. H. Lyon. They look after matters concerning the Kindergarten. I was very much interested in their efforts to do something for the little children and glad to know that you and they are working together with God. The ladies requested me to arrange a time when I could see you. Hence this letter.

The best time will be Sat. 28th at 10 A.M. at my rooms 50 West 22nd St. If this time is not convenient, I cannot see you on Friday 22nd at 4 P.M. Please send your circulars and more enclosed others.

Dear Mr. Smith,

I heard from Mr. White today that he is planning to go to New York City on Friday. I understand he is looking for a job in the building trade. Would you be interested in any openings?

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Jones,

I have been attending the university and have been working hard to improve my skills in various subjects. I find mathematics particularly challenging, but I am determined to succeed. I believe that with consistent practice and guidance, I can overcome these difficulties.

I am also interested in pursuing a career in engineering and am considering taking more math courses to strengthen my foundation. I am looking for opportunities to intern or work part-time in this field to gain practical experience.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
