Dear Comrades & Friends,

A soldier's widow, - I have at some expense - caused to be prepared, a fac-simile of the last letter (save one) of our late beloved Chief.

I give freely.

Kindly dispose of them amongst your loved & friends, at any price you see fit, & must proceed to Rev. Dr. Rainesford, Rector of St. George's free church (No.
209 E. 16th St.) for unsectarian mission & hospital needs.

My late husband was one whom Abraham Lincoln honored with his confidence.

Fraternally Yours

Mrs Col, C.C. Kumble

P.S. By dividing this sheet & neatly uniting the reversed ends, the letter will be in shape for framing.

Ask price - say: about 25¢ in less.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the train at the station was the fresh air. It felt like a new beginning. I had been so busy in the city that I had forgotten what it was like to breathe clean air. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing. It was a beautiful day. I had heard that the weather was perfect. I was not disappointed. I had found exactly what I needed.
 The house was just what I needed. It was big and comfortable. I had never lived in a house like this before. It was perfect.
 I had found a new home.
 I was so happy. I had everything I needed. I was finally at home.

Dear Mr. Kumble,

I am this moment in receipt of your card notifying me of the death of your son and inviting me to his funeral from Trinity Chapel at 10 Am tomorrow. It is simply impossible for me to come at that hour and I fear you may not receive this note in time.

Of course I sympathize with you in this great affliction, but we can only bow to the inevitable. I have seen so many bright young fellows cut off in their prime that I may be hardened, but for the survivors

I feel only a desire to encourage them to live out their days in peace and loving kindness.

Sincerely yours,

Dear General

Among the attractions at the Y.M.C.A. tent on the State Camp Grounds this year, has been a telescope which was loaned for the purpose. It has proved one of our strongest attractions. I understand the original cost of the instrument was $125.00 and am told that it can now be purchased for $50.00. The contributions of members of Nat Guard will about pay all our expenses this season so that the appropriation of State Ex Com. will hardly be called upon - or at the most we shall not use one fourth of the amt appropriated. Under these circumstances what is your advise as to purchasing this telescope for the use of the Assoc. on the Camp Gds?

My dear Sir,

I called on the young man who is trying to see what can be done with regard to the saloon adjoining Camp Church.

He has been up to see Mr. Miner about six times but finds that he is at Long Branch most of the time.

My friend says the property probably nets Miner $2000 per yr. and the Theatre Entrance is worth another $1000. to him, in all $3000. which is 6% on $50,000. He cannot tell how he may find the owner, whether in disposition to keep or to sell. If the latter he wants to know what amt he can rely on, Is he to deem himself authorized to sign a contract, in his own name, up to $25000. or what? Also how much Cash & how much Mtg?

You see he wants to be in a position to close the matter the instant a chance shows itself, though he knows there may be no chance whatever.

I presume you understand that my friend will expect some mark of appreciation if he succeeds, though he would not look for full brokerage.
That is a small matter which can be attended too after the capitulation.

General Howard:

I dislike very much to trouble you, when you have always been so kind, but I must once more ask you if you are willing to help me in a certain matter.

I think that I wrote to tell you that after Captain Murdock's death I bought a house and twenty acres of land in the Berkshire Hills, Massachusetts, through the advice of some well-meaning but mistaken friends. I lived there one winter with my sister, who has since died of consumption, and found that the climate was too severe, and therefore returned to this coast where I can live without danger. I am giving music lessons, and am succeeding very nicely, and am also trying very hard to be an authoress, and if I had been able to use to advantage all the money my dear husband left me, I should be very comfortable and happy. The property in Massachusetts has ined steadily in value, and can hardly sold at all, and I have nothing now but what I can earn, and my pension.

My little adopted daughter, as you know, depends entirely upon me, and my health is very delicate. I am going to try, if possible, to have my pension increased.
I know that it will require a special act of Congress to accomplish it, and a great deal of influence, but if others have succeeded I think that I may.
I can give a surgeon's certificate to prove that my left lung is partly consolidated, and that I have chronic bronchitis.

Genl. Mc. Cook will help me I daresay, and I have many friends, but you and he are the only very distinguished people that I know.

I am

Yours very respectfully

My dear Sir,

I showed your letter to my friend Mr Nixon & he thinks it is best not to see Mr. Miner till we know definitely what we can do: it would be bad policy to arouse him at all.

He says if Miner should offer to sell at $25000. spot cash we would want to take him right up. Some third party might advance a portion of this on Mortgage. or if Miner should say $27500 or $30000, agree to leave $18000 at 5% on Mortgage we would want to take that, $10000. cash would be needed to carry the transaction through. on any basis.

Once in possession you could not the store for enough to pay interest & taxes and have the upper floors for boys club, reading room &c.

I have spoken to the only man I could approach about this on the subject of contributions - or of investment, so financially I can do no good, but Mr Nixon is as good a medium as can be found by whom to approach him, and I hope results can be reached which shall be the basis of great operations by Camp Church.

I am requested to address you upon a matter, which I am confident will awaken your interest and hearty sympathy and support. It is proposed to organize an association under the above title, the object of which is to acquire the possession of, and preserve as best they can be, some of the Battlefields of Virginia. A start in this direction has already been made, and the field and grounds upon which the Battle of Fair Oaks or Seven Pines was fought has been bonded, that being the nearest to Richmond, and having a Rail-road already built and in operation to it, thus making it easily accessible, and it being one of the memorable and historic fields which is today in the best state of preservation of all the fields, the earthworks, redoubts & etc. not yet having been disturbed by man, and having suffered but little change by the action of time, seems a desirable one to commence work upon first. It is the purpose of the projectors of this movement, who by the way are Northern men, to enclose it with a substantial fence, lay it out into a Park, mark the position of the Armies, the lines of Battle, the places where prominent officers fell on both sides, designate the places where the fiercest fighting took place, erect

General O. O. Howard
Governors Island
New York:

Dear Sir:

Mrs John Briel, a member of my church, requested me to write you on behalf of her son Edward, now awaiting trial as deserter. Edward Briel was connected with the Government Band at Washington D.C. He deserted service was apprehended and now has to stand trial by court martial. Some one told Mrs Briel, when she was in Washington to see her son, that she might be able to secure a suspension of sentence or a mitigation of the same by applying to you. As far as I am concerned, I gladly bring this to your notice and also request you, if anything can be done for the mother, please do it. Mrs Briel is woman singularly afflicted.

She has a daughter, who is an inmate of an insane asylum. Besides this she has troubles of various kinds, among other tribulations her sorrowful experience with her son Eduard.

Neither I nor Mrs Briel know whether it is proper to apply to you. But you will excuse our mistake, if we have made any in this

Very truly

Dear Brother:--

I am pleased to have a letter from you and to note that you are ready to co-operate in a little donation in mother's name to the Leeds Church. I thought since, that perhaps we could have a little tablet put in some appropriate place. I suppose $100.00 would not supply a colored glass window. I shall make some inquiries, as I would like to have some permanent reminder of mother connected with the Church, if we can do it and still help them, as we desire to do, in their improvement.

I note what you say of family affairs, and am much pleased to find out what the whereabouts are of Chancey, Harry and the rest. I shall hope to see Chancey's wife on her way to Chicago. We thought it a little queer that he wrote to Cousin Arthur Day to meet and look after his wife rather than to us. You know we have four or five grown up boys, who are only too glad to show their affection to you, or to any of your children, by doing anything in their power for their comfort on such occasions. Mac is now with me here in the office, and they all are much attached to Cousin Alice.

I note what you say about your deposit with Kean. Kitty has been paid her thirty-five per cent, so has Mrs. Wilson. Of course, you could have yours, if you wanted to take it in that way.

Gen. O. O. Howard,

Dear Brother:--

I am pleased to have a letter from you and to note that you are ready to co-operate in a little donation in mother's name to the Leeds Church. I thought since that perhaps we could have a little tablet put in some appropriate place. I suppose $100.00 would not supply a colored glass window. I shall make some inquiries, as I would like to have some permanent reminder of mother connected with the Church, if we can do it and still help them, as we desire to do, in their improvement.

I note what you say of family affairs, and am much pleased to find out what the whereabouts are of Chansey, Harry and the rest.

I shall hope to see Chansey's wife on her way to Chicago. We thought it a little queer that he wrote to Cousin Arthur Day to meet and look after his wife rather than to us. You know we have four or five grown up boys, who are only too glad to show their affection to you, or some of your children, by doing anything in their power for their comfort on such occasions. Mac is now with me here in the office, and they all are much attached to Cousin Alice.

I note what you say about your deposit with Kean. Kitty has been paid her thirty-five per cent, so has Mrs. Wilson. Of course, you could have yours, if you wanted to take it in that way.

I observe the point you make as to its being a trust fund, but here is a distinction: Mr. Mean was not the trustee of your fund, as in the other case. You were the trustee and had merely deposited it in his bank, so that you stand in your relations with the bank the same as other depositors; am I not correct? Had he been the trustee and treasurer of your fund, you could claim that the fund was not like the fund of other depositors, but should be treated differently. Now, if I am not correct in my reasoning, please point out to me and I will see if something cannot be done to make an exception in your case. I went to see Mr. Jacobs about it at the time I wrote you before and had a full conference; he was more than anxious to help you. At two different times he spoke to me about it, but the law did not seem to admit of any distinction between you and other depositors, and I could not clearly see myself that it did.

Please when you write tell us how Lizzie is and how Jamie and his family are, as we have not heard a word for six months or more from the latter.

Affectionately yours,

C. H. Howan
