Dear General Howard:

The "press" is doing me great injustice. Being physically unable just now to take any active steps, I have placed the matter with my attorney - Nichols & Bacon. Hence, as soon as formulated, let me know what the charges are, and I will have the proper move made at Washington.

This whole matter is the result of a move to further a conspiracy, and on the strength of this, I have today demanded a Court of Inquiry

Harrow E. S. S.

To ascertain the propriety
of a Comf Mattel. I feel clear an Officer
who is striving to preserve right, justice and honesty - as I am in this case (as you will
see by either reading
my. Quits, or by Conference with Colonel Bacon)
should be protected and
not made to suffer by
the War Department.
This is especially notable
when such Officer is a Republican of record,
with ready spirit &
means in the Cause.

If not able to call
you soon, I will have Colonel Bacon call.

Hoping you are well
Sincerely Yours,

I expected to do myself the

hot sun a great deal, & today
I am feeling the effects of it

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY,

Dear General Howard:

It has come to my knowledge unofficially that the Commandant of the New York Navy Yard, Captain Henry Erben, feels somewhat aggrieved in respect to his reception on the occasion of a recent official visit to your Headquarters, and at the fact that you have not returned that visit.

It is said that the Captain, although he had given official notice of his intention to visit you, was not met by you or any other officer at the landing, and, indeed, had some difficulty in making his way on shore and to your office, and also upon his departure was allowed to make his way back to the boat as well as he could, without being accompanied by an officer or any person under your orders; also that eighteen days had elapsed without any return of his courtesy.

It is not desired by the Navy Department, as I understand, to treat this matter officially or to attach too much importance to it, and I doubt not there is some quite adequate reason for any apparent neglect of proper courtesy toward the Commandant of the Navy Yard.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY

Washington, D. C.

Dear General Howard:

It has come to my knowledge unofficially that the Commandant of the New York Navy Yard, Captain Henry E. Brown, feels somewhat aggrieved in respect to his reception on the occasion of a recent official visit to your headquarters, and at the fact that you have not returned that visit. It is said that the Captain, although he had given official notice of his intention to visit you, was not met by you or any other officer at the landing, and, indeed, had some difficulty in making his way on shore and to your office, and also upon his departure was allowed to take his way back to the boat as well as he could, without being accompanied by an officer or any person under your orders; also that eighteen days had elapsed without any return of his courtesy. It is not desired by the Navy Department, as I understand, to treat this matter officially or to attach too much importance to it, and I doubt not there is some quite adequate reason for any apparent neglect of proper courtesy toward the Commandant of the Navy Yard.

I beg leave to suggest that by returning the Captain's visit at your earliest convenience, and making such explanation as may seem to you proper and courteous in the matter, any irritation which the Captain may feel in regard to the incident referred to will be entirely removed, and the cordial relation which should always exist between officers of the Army and Navy will be thoroughly re-established between you and the Commandant of the Navy Yard.

Please regard this communication as entirely personal and friendly, rather than official.

Yours very truly,

Dear Brother:--

I have your favor of August 8th., and have obtained the Blanks for you, which I enclose. You probably did not address the right party. I enclose card giving the address of Morris, Ganse & Craig, to whom your reply should be addressed.

It is possible that your Attorneys think you had better obtain judgment and hold it over Mr. Kean for the rest of his natural life and your own. If he lives, it is possible he may yet accumulate money and be compelled to pay the judgment in full. You must, with the best advice you can get, use your own judgment about this. If you return your application immediately (within a week) you can have the 35 percent with considerable promptness, but if it should be delayed a month or so, you would probably be compelled to wait the year before receiving anything. I enclose a half dozen blanks. Each of the depositors should sign for himself; counting Harry, I think you named four separate persons.

I was talking with Mr. Robert Scott, your friend, and he said, "if he were you he would obtain an execution and hold it, believing Mr. Kean some time or other would pay it in full," but you know best whether you can afford to do this.

You did not say in what business Chancey was engaged. Has he left the Florida Company?

Affectionately yours,

Major-General O. O. Howard,

Governors Island, New York City.

Esteemed Sir:-

I am engaged in preparing a History of Androscoggin County, Maine, and am desirous of identifying the Howard Family of Leeds among the others having illustrations in that work. Among those who will appear are Ex-Governor Nelson Dingley jr. and Alongo Garcelon and N.S. Senator Wayne. Frye. If you can furnish me 1000 prints of your steel plate, (as I understand that you have had one made) I shall be pleased to insert them in our work, accompanied with a suitable sketch of your life. I wish that you would kindly give me the data for such a sketch from 1882. I have the material you furnished Mr. Strickfield of Wayne in that year. I make

Give this offer to gratify your friends
in this country, especially in Leeds.

The imprints must be  $7\frac{1}{2} \times 10\frac{1}{2}$ inches in size, and ~~add~~ the history is nearly one-fourth printed. The subject asks immediate consideration.

Be kind enough to acknowledge receipt of this, and I trust this will meet your approval.

Howard A. P.

General C. C. Howard,

Governors Island, New York.

Dear Uncle:-

A friend of mine here, desires to give New York references and I have volunteered to write to you asking you to speak kindly concerning him in the occasion requires, and thus do me a personal favor

Mr. A. W. Kellogg is a mining expert and engineer of sixteen years experience. Mr. A. has been connected in several business transactions with me during the past year, and I have known him more or less intimately for five years past. He bears the best of reputations as an expert and personally I have always found him just, honest and reliable. A good word for him, should you be asked, would be a personal favor to me, and amply deserved by him.
