Allegory of the War in Song,

BY S. G. PRATT,

Composer of "Zenobia," "Lucille," etc., etc.

TO BE PRODUCED FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE

Grant Mausoleum at Riverside Park, N. Y. City,

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE

GRANT MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

Special address to the Governors of States, Commanders of the G. A. R., Mayors of Cities, and other patriotic citizens:

Mr. Genl. O. C. Howard Greenwich Island

In undertaking the production of the "Allegory of the War in Song" at the present time in the various large cities of our country, the Grant Monument Association have in view the following purposes:

First:—To Nationalize the Monument

Now being erected in honor of Ulysses S. Grant.

Being built, as it is, for the honor and glory of the entire nation, located upon a site of surpassing grandeur, it should represent the patriotism and affection of the whole people.

Standing, as it will, at the gateway where the people of Europe enter our land, in mute eloquence it will point to a more perfect citizenship, incite to higher duties and a nobler aim. To the American it will be an unfailing source of inspiration whence those noble qualities of devotion, humility, generosity to foes, and endurance, (which were so powerfully exemplified in General Grant's character) may be freely and directly imbibed.

Second:—To Revive Patriotism, which at this time is especially desirable.

Aside from the purpose to increase the fund for the mausoleum, it seems that it is a peculiarly fitting time, to make every effort to awaken the spirit of patriotism in the hearts of every citizen of our beloved land.

Third:—To engender Feelings of Good Will and Fraternity.

The "Allegory" does not tend to awaken sectional animosities, but rather by exhibiting the heroic sacrifices of both sides, it awakens the noble sentiment of devotion to one common country, and the desire, in good will and fraternity, to join in accomplishing its lofty destiny: "With Charity for All, With Malice Toward None."

Lastly:—To exalt Morals and Religion.

The moral and religious character of the "Allegory" exercises and exalts the highest virtues of the human heart.

We therefore feel that we may reasonably and successfully ask your cordial co-operation in the production of the "Allegory" on grounds Patriotic, Religious, Social and Ethical, and finally because the "triumphant success" of May 2nd, in N. Y., has established beyond a doubt the merit and inherent worth of the entertainment.

You are therefore invited to lend your influence and co-operation towards the production contemplated in the City of New York State of N.Y. Oct 7th 1891

It will give us great pleasure to have you address the anniversary meeting of the County S.S. Union to be held one of the Sabbaths of October next.

We have for years employed a (lay) S.S. Missionary to establish and strengthen schools in the outlying towns of our Co. Less than 50% of the children of our County are engaged in the systematic study of the Scriptures. A stimulus to all classes in this direction is what we desire the meeting to give.

My Dear Friend and Bro

I have intend ed writting you long ago but a complication of circumstanced prevented, I want to thank you for your kindness in writting to Gen. J.
Morgan U.S. Inf. Com - who reinstated my wife and I last July, and although I returned to the Agency with the olive branch the Agent J. W. Matthews is still doing all he can to ~~overthrow~~ ^{me} saying he got me out once and he will do so again, I have been greatly blessed in my work among the Indians about two hundred and eighty joined the M. E. Church last year and they are my friends, and they with but few exceptions do not like the Agent, now I am convinced the only way whereby I can remain in the work there is for my friends to get him removed and me appointed in his place, I received my first lessons under the Rev J. H. Wilbur many years ago and I have always been successful whenever I have Chattin W. L.

been in the Indian work, and knowing you to be a ^{personal} friend of the President I think you could be very helpful, especially if you will write Hon A. M. Cannon Spokane Falls Wash. who has the matter in hand, Poor Falls is left in destitute circumstances with four children the eldest seven years and the youngest three weeks old. If I could get the Agency I could care for them, Tom was drowned two weeks ago today. If you write his Uncle Charles the Surgeon Gen of the U. S. Army, he might help. My plan is through Mr Cannon who will ask my appointment through Engleman Wilson who lives at Spokane Falls and Mr Wilson and the President were boys together, and Mr Cannon owns one third interest in the Republican daily in that City, and My Dear Bro it is infamous that statements have been sent to the Dept by the Agent at Klamath, If you can help me in this matter I am confident I can do grand service for God and humanity among that people, I am compelled to take this step after everything else has failed, we are ostracized and treated with contempt by the Agent and family and others under his control. If you will write to Mr Cannon he will use it with Mr Wilson and no doubt Mr W. will write you, I have written Senator Mitchell, and Gen Steel and others will write him in my behalf.

Your kind letter

to write a short newspaper

My dear Gen. Howard:-

We shall publish an article in our next issue on the "Army Canteen" by T. W. Blackburn who was lately connected with the Indian Bureau but has now gone to Omaha, Neb. where he is editing a paper. He writes a severe attack upon the Canteen based upon information received from army officers who are much opposed to it, and believe that it leads to drunkenness and debauchery.

Now you must know all about it and you cannot properly publish anything on the subject, I suppose. Can you give me an intimation of your views about it for my private guidance or direct me where I can get the material for the subject? I find that Mr. Blackburn's article implies that whiskey is sold in those western canteens and that soldiers get drunk there, but having a copy of the Canteen Regulations issued by the War Department which shows that the sale of wines and whiskey and all distilled liquors is absolutely forbidden and only light beers allowed. Can you tell me if those regulations are evaded? and oblige,
