

Le cantique de l'aron

L'élite d'Israël a succombé sur tes collines,

Comment des héros sont ils tombés?

Ne l'annoncez point dans Gath,

N'en parlez point la nouvelle dans

les rues d'Ascalon,

De peur que les filles des Philistins

ne se rejoignent

De peur que les filles des incirconcis

ne triomphent

Montagnes de Guilboa!

Qu'il n'y ait sur vous ni rosée ni pluie, Ni champs qui donnent du prémices pour les offrandes!

Car là ont été jetés les boucliers des

héros,

Le bouclier de Saül;

L'huile a cessé de les oindre.

Devant le sang des blessés, devant la

graisse des plus vaillants,

Le roi de Jonathan n'a jamais reculé

Le roi de Saül ne retrouvait point

le vide

Howard 76. f. (2) (1)

Saül et Jonathan, aimables et chers
pendant leur vie,

N'ont point été séparés dans leur
mort;

Ils étaient plus légers que les
aigles,

Ils étaient plus forts que les lions.

Filles d'Israël! pleurez sur Saül,

Qui vous revêtait magnifiquement de cramoisi,

Qui mettait des ornements d'or sur vos habits.

Comment, les héros sont-ils tombés au milieu du combat?

Comment Jonathan a-t-il succombé sur les collines?

Je suis dans la douleur à cause de toi, Jonathan,
mon frère!

Tout faisais tout mon plaisir;

Ton amour pour moi était admirable,

Au dessus de l'amour des femmes.

Comment les héros sont-ils tombés?

Comment leurs ames se sont-elles perdues? II Sam. I. 19 à 27.

My dear General. I am thinking of taking some of my boys to West Point next Saturday to spend Saturday & Sunday. - What is the name of the Hotel on the grounds? -

Could you not give me a letter of recommendation to some of the officials at the Point - that would help me to see everything that I will have time to see? -

I may get one of my boys to join the Professor - I want to have a minister, a fighter and doctor out of the lot of six. -

General O. O. Howard,

Dear friend;

Your letter of the 17th inst. is received. I trust that you will read at least one chapter a day in "Vol. 4 Great Controversy." That little time you will not miss. You will find that the book has to do with State affairs in a spiritual sense, and it will be invaluable to you.

One said to me. "If you are like other generals, you will not regard your promise to read the book." But you are not like other generals. I said, for you do regard your promise, and you will read it.

I am here in a class of ninety persons, enjoying the privilege of special Bible study.

The great subject before us is "Justification by faith," upon which there is so much light in these latter days. The lesson last evening was, "No condemnation to them who are in Christ." I was in the parlor writing. My heart was so full of the theme that I could write about scarcely anything else but Christ. I looked around at the happy groups in the room, and all were talking of Christ: so tenderly, so earnestly and so engrossed were they that it seemed like a heaven on earth.

This Institute closes Nov. 15. when I expect to visit friends - and return to my home at 2012 Brightwood Ave., Washington D. C.

May God bless you, and lead you in his way, to see all the light that he has for you in his precious word,

Your friend,

Mrs. Elizabeth W. Harris.

I was pleased to have a line from you, but we have been very anxious about Jame's little girl. Please write us at once how she is.

I would like to write you confidentially about Capt. Irsch and his business affairs in Florida, but I am unwilling to stand any chance of having the matter go back to him, in a way that might disturb our relations. I do not feel that I can run the risk of putting on paper what I might say to you in conversation. He proposes certain business connections with myself, which seem to be mostly on one side. (one-sided)

Now referring to some things that I said to you, without repeating here: Please tell me what reason you have for thinking he is a man of means. I have no confidence whatever that he has any capital, or that he even possesses any land in Florida. His talk seems to me merely visionary and, I may say, unbusinesslike, when you come down to hard pan. I find that in his books he is advertising yourself, General Siegel and others, as leaders of his Company. I do not care to sound any alarm, but it looks to me that if persons went into it and migrated to Florida with any expectations based upon your names, and were drawn into the scheme on the strength of them, it would amount almost to a swindle, if not quite.
