My dear General:-

Have you ever in your life written anything for a heretical journal? I believe not. Your reckoning in heaven is probably clear on that point. Why not break it? Can't I tempt you? Not by money, for to such temptation you would be deaf; but perhaps by the spirit of Christmas and your loyalty to your profession.

I would like for our Christmas number a short article on "Christmas at West Point." You have been there as student and as commander. You know it through and through.

Furthermore while you have drawn your sword for your country, you believe in the gospel of peace which Christ Jesus proclaims.
To whom better could I turn?

I only want an article, say about 1800
words, two columns of the Christian Register, for which, not to tempt you too much,
I would return a ten dollar bill.

You can easily dictate the article to your secretary. I should like to know how the cadets keep the day.

Please reply in enclosed envelope. I ought to have the article by Dec. 5.

Cordially yours,

S. J. Parrotts.

Dr. Mendith who has promised to lecture for us.
Among the other lectures
are Dr. Deems &
Dr. Lloyd.

Hoping you will find
it convenient to favor us,

My dear Sir:-

The Congregational Church
of North New York, of which I am pastor is desirous in the coming Spring either to erect a new building or renovate
the present one.

We sorely need better
accomodations both for
our Sunday School & Church. We need more room both for scholars &

for people.

We have thought that some money for that purpose might be raised
by a course of lectures,
and we would be very
much pleased if you
would consent to give us
a lecture sometime
during the months of Feb.
Feb. March or April.

If you desire to know
any thing regarding our enterprise I would refer you to Dr. Taylor who suggested that you might lecture for us, or to

Dear Sir,

In June last, I met you at Lake Mohonk and had some conversation with you, with reference to my brother, formerly of Omaha, and now in Atlanta, Ga. I think I told you at that time, that I was connected with the Rev. Dr. Kittredge's church, Madison Avenue and 57th St.

I write now, to ask you if it will be possible for you to accept an invitation from the Rev. Dr. Kittredge and our two Sunday Schools, to speak to them at their Christmas anniversary, which will occur probably, during the week between Christmas and New Year's Day. This meeting is held in the church, with the two schools, the mission and home school uniting.

Dr. Kittredge and myself will go down to Governor's Island to see you, if you will appoint a day and hour, when it will be agreeable to you to meet us.

Very truly and sincerely yours,

The Trenton Battle Monument Association will lay the corner stone of the Monument, to be erected to commemorate the battle of Trenton during the Revolutionary struggle, on Dec. 26 next at 12 o'clock noon.

Governor Abbott will lay the corner stone and it is proposed to have a public meeting at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the Opera House. At a meeting of the Association held last Friday I was directed to invite you to be present and to ask you to be one of the speakers at the meeting.

You can choose your own subject the only limitation being it must be a patriotic one such as for example "Patriotism should be instilled in every American"; "The Society of the Cincinnati"; "The Sons of the American Revolution"; "The Sons of the Revolution" and the City Troop will take part.

In accordance with the instructions contained
in your last letter to General
Ruger, I saw Mr. Fisher
at his office here, and informed him that if the party with whom he had been negotiating for the sale of your land in Kern County had not complied with your terms, the offer to sell would be considered withdrawn.

Mr. Fisher accepted the notice, with the understanding that any renewal of the effort to sell should be on the basis of a new understanding with you.

Your contracts are in the safe in Gen. Rogers office.

Your letter of the 8th inst. was received two days ago. Since then I have tried to find Mr. Fisher, to learn if he has resumed his negotiations, but he is out of town, and I do not know when he will return.

I shall endeavor to keep you informed of his intentions.

I have been quite well since last spring, and hope to stick it out through

Dear Sir ^{and} Bro. —

I have just returned from the Governor's Island dock where the Sergeant told me you were not on the Island; ^{and} so I am free to write what I purposed to say: —

Nov. 20, is to be designated in our church by Anniversary exercises of the "Children's Hom." 534 were in attendance last week. Adults will be invited, Friday, Nov. 20. My object that day is to be a tent for S. I wish to obtain two tents — small single tents — not occupying much room, so that I can place one inside each end of our church altar. I would also like two soldiers to be detailed — soldiers under arms, each to sit in a tent till a signal is given ^{and} then to step out ready to act as sentinel. The soldiers should be at the church — with the tents, to help put them up — no later than 1 o'clock on Friday, Nov. 20. What can you do for me ^{and} will there be any expense? I hoped for an order from headquarters.

Yours respectfully, Jno. J. Reed.

My Dear General:

Enclosed please find check for $50.00 which I last evening subscribed to your mission work. Please credit it to Funk & Wagnalls.

I take the liberty of sending you a copy of Mr. Wheeler's book, "Prohibition." Last evening you expressed some doubt as to the policy of Prohibition, that is, you said you had some scruples, if I rightly understood you, as to the enforcement of Prohibition against persons who drank moderately. I would give the reason for Prohibition differently. I would say that public interests demand the Prohibition of the manufacture and sale of a beverage which is so exceedingly dangerous, as is that of liquor. We prohibit the manufacture by private individuals or by corporations of coin dies, not because there is anything wicked in making any sort of a die, but because it would be exceedingly dangerous to permit their manufacture. We prohibit the opium joint, not because under all circumstances it is a sin to smoke opium, but because it is so liable to abuse. We prohibit the sale of infected rags, not because there is anything sinful in selling infected rags, per se, but because it is dangerous. We would forbid smoking in a powder magazine, not because smoking is sinful, but because it is dangerous to others. That is, the public weal must always be considered. A traffic that in a single city like New York causes the death of nearly 3,000 people in one year; drives insane 500, reduces to absolute poverty 15,000 ; and places behind prison bars 40,000 in a single year, is certainly a traffic which is dangerous to the public, so dangerous that the public has a right to demand its prohibition.

The only way to develop public sentiment is by agitation, and the surest way to produce agitation, in my judgment, is to attempt to arouse the public to the necessity of having Prohibition, with a party behind it that believes in it. This book of Mr. Wheeler presents this side of the question fully. I believe that you will be sufficiently interested in this stupendous question---one so vital to Christianity, that you will not deem it at all impertinent in me to send you a copy.

Some time ago, the New York Tribune declared that the liquor traffic was the greatest clog on the civilization of the XIXth Century, that it paralyzed educational reform, that it hindered political reform, and that it silenced the voice of religion. Surely, an evil that does all that is one that should be met by the aroused public conscience of the nation.

I was very glad that you interested yourself in Friend Smith's desire to do a public good with his money. Mr. Smith is very wealthy. His profits, I understand, amount to $100,000 a year. Rightly directed, his present impulse can accomplish great and everlasting good. You are the man to rightly direct his impulse, because of his unlimited confidence in you.

one in excess of 3,000 persons to itsself and because New York well exists who has : 000,000 passengers per year for 15,000 persons arriving and exists and so, among other reasons of the population at hand there exist a population of 15,000 persons to which is now added

populations of communities holding places of 000,000

He is son-in-law

Mr Van Antwerp is one of the most tender of fathers, truest of friends and entertaining of gentlemen. He is wealthy, cultured and a widower. He would be often comforted when now he is desolate if you could make his daughter a little more accessible by him.

He is not as young as he once was, and feels every inch of travel as a barrier to his movements.
