My dear Phebe

Lizzie has just received your letter, and as she is, and has been sick, with "Grip" since Christmas, I write, Rowland's death was a great shock to us, as we did not know he was ill, supposing he had returned from Europe, when you get particulars let us know, as we shall be glad to hear, I wrote you a long letter a week ago last ^{of} Friday, telling you Carrie and Alice were going to Philadelphia for an indefinite time, to put Alice under the care of Doctor Weston I suppose Mr. Abbey, Carrie and Alice are in P. as they were to go were to go last Saturday if Mr A goes to New York, you will probably see him. Poor Helen, Lizzie's note to her yesterday, it seems as tho our family, we passing now very rapidly, how long does your life expect to be long?

I wrote in the letter, that you do not seem, to have received that I wished you would write to William Merrick, to have his wife, and daughter, go to see Harriet as she will be very lonely while in Philadelphia, and very little to occupy her. Amos babe has been very sick but is now better and Lizzie does not seem to rattle from grief. Carrie has rented Ker House, for three months, so a letter to Mr A, care of Dulme ad Co Cincinnati would reach them, better than any other way tho you will get her Philadelphia address as soon as she is settled I think strange you have not got my letter, what a blessing it was that Harney was with Woodland it seemed so sad to have him die away from all his friends grate I could not tell from the way you wrote whether Charles was gone to Europe or not

Yours aff. Aunt
A. J. Strickland

THE WORLD'S CONGRESS AUXILIARY OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

WORLD'S CONGRESS HEADQUARTERS.

CHICAGO, U. S. A., Feb. 1st, 1892

Maj. Gen. O. O. Howard, Governors Island, N. Y.

My dear Brother:-

You have been appointed a member of the Advisory Council on Religious Congresses, in connection with the World's Congress Auxiliary of the Columbian Exposition. Since the first appointments were made, the interest in the proposed Religious Congresses has been greatly widened and deepened. While the material exhibit is to be unprecedented in magnificence, the presentation of the intellectual and moral forces of the world will be even more notable. It is expected that a Parliament of Religions will inaugurate, in September 1893, a series of notable Religious Congresses. Among the many distinguished men who have accepted appointments on the Advisory Council, or who have given their cordial endorsement to our plans, I may mention Sir Edwin Arnold, Bishop Edward G. Andrews, Rev. Lyman Abbott, Professor John Bascom, Dr. George Dana Boardman, Professor Charles A. Briggs, Professor Commer of the University of Breslau, Professor Charles H. Corey of Richmond, Joseph Cook, Professor George P. Fisher, Bishop Cyrus D. Foss, Mr. Gladstone, Cardinal Gibbons, Principal Grant of Canada, President Wm. R. Harper, Dean Charles R. Hale, Professor Alvah Hovey, Bishop John F. Hurst of Washington, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Bishop Huntington, Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Keane, President of the Catholic University, Washington, Professor M. Lazarus of Berlin, Rabbi Maybaum of Berlin, Bishop Wm. R. Nicholson of Philadelphia, Professor Conrad von Orelli of Basle, Dr. A. P. Peabody, President Francis L. Patton, Archbishop Ryan, Professor D. W. Simon of Edinburgh, Rev. Josiah Strong, D. D., of New York, Dr. Philip Schaff, Dr. R. S. Storrs, Professor Luther Townsend, D. D., of the Boston University, President Tison of the Imperial Law School of Tokyo, Japan, Bishop John H. Vincent, Bishop Whipple of Minnesota, Dean Woodbridge of the New Brunswick Theological Seminary, Bishop Wilson of Baltimore, Bishop Weaver of Ohio, President Washburn of Robert College, Constantinople, Professor Wm. C. Wilkinson and John G. Whittier.

To this number we greatly desire to add your name, with many besides, as members of the Advisory Council, and we would be glad to receive some word of commendation from you to be published in my forthcoming Report which will be sent out to the whole religious world. We hope also to avail ourselves of your counsel and friendly co-operation in making the Parliament of Religions and the subsequent denominational and missionary Congresses the most comprehensive and notable religious gatherings that have ever been assembled.

Asking from you the great favor of an immediate reply, I remain, with great respect,

Yours faithfully,

John Henry Barrow

My dear uncle Otis:—

Your letter came to me last night and was welcome indeed. If Harry or anyone else on the other side lets you know on what steamer father's remains are to be sent, and of course he will let you know, will you or your aide, if you are not in New York, inform me either by telegram or letter just as soon as possible so that I can be on hand in Boston to receive them with the undertaker.

I was with mother two days and a night. I know that the days drag with her terribly and I felt as though I perhaps should have stayed with her longer, but, at the same time, I thought that, as she had to face her trouble sometime, I might as well come away then as later, especially as aunt Lizzie has been threatened with pneumonia and has been confined to her bed. She is getting on comfortably now, however.

I agree with your general plan perfectly. The only question is, will mother have enough to continue till next summer with the children in Arlington. I have advised her to get some quiet boarding place in Arlington till next summer when she can decide where she had better go. She is unused to thinking for herself as father was the planner and the actor as well as the burden bearer of the family.

Mr. Bushnell, father's young pastor as well as loving friend and supporter in the Peace Society, says that he has not a doubt but father's pay will continue to mother for two or three months at least and that the Society will pay father's expenses during his illness etc. I think this last should be quietly but firmly insisted on if the Society should not happen to see things in that light. Father gave his life for the cause he loved and I think they all look upon the matter as we do.

Mother will propose nothing. All offers must come to her from the society.

With love and gratitude, Your affectionate nephew Frank Gilman Howard.

My Dear Gen. and Comrade

I write you to get a Recommendation from you of my Service During the war of the late Rebellion. I served under you in the 11th & 20th Army Corps and I was intimately associated with you, on the Look out Mountain and Knoxville Campaign, and on the Atlanta Campaign Having served as orderly for you at your Hd Qrs. You know me well, But you may not be able to place me by Name, after so many years, I was Gen. Tyndales, Private orderly on the Knoxville Campaign, I served 3 years of faithful service, with you, and under your Command most of the time. After the Death of the

Bro errow 22nd July 64 you then were placed in Command of his troops and I remained with the 20th Corps, and served until the close of the war with this Corps, I am now a helpless invalid caused by my hard service, I am unable to prove this to the entire satisfaction of the Pension Bureau, as I have no Hospital Record, to fall back on, I have appealed to Congress for Relief and wish to get a Recommendation from you to help me in Congress, as it will be of great help to me in my case, I am totally disabled by Paralysis, and have a wife and six small children to support and I am wholly without means, other than the small Pension that I now draw of $17, per month, I am in destitute circumstances, I have been in this disabled condition for the past 11 years, and my means of support are all exhausted and I am compelled for the want of the necessaries of life to appeal to Congress for Relief.

and I rely on you, to help me what you can, I have all my life been a Temperate Man. I wrote to Genl. James S. Robinson, for help and the following is a true Copy of his Recommend. You will Remember him very well.

Keaton Ohio Dec 28th 1891

Dear Sir

I write this letter in behalf of Thomas D. Collins late of Co. H, 143rd Me S. Bols. Comrade Collins was my orderly on the Atlanta Campaign, He was a Brave temperate and faithfull Soldier and he certainly deserves relief at the hands of the Government, I commend his application to your favorable Consideration.

Very truly

James S. Robinson
Late Brig Gen. U. S. A

Now Gen Howard, I would be the last Man, to make false Statements to you, or ask you to do anything for me that was not just ^{and} honorable all I ask, is for you to give me the Recommend to Congress, that you think I am entitled to at your hands of my Service in the late war, and of my Soldierly Conduct. I may say to you, that During my 3 years Service I never was, Centured, for any Breach of Trust By my Superior Officers, hoping that my Appeal to you, will meet of your Approval, in this most trying hour of my life, I am Gent, yours most Respectfully

My dear General.

on Sunday Feb. 21.
at 7.30 P.M. (the eve of Washington's Birthday) we are going to make a charge on Coney Island. Perry Post & A. R. Commanche, Walter Scott and Genl. W. Slocum are enlisted and to make the attack complete we want another General. We have only 1 Protestant Church on the Island - Brighton Chapel, our Pastor is W. F. Sillick, ^{a lay preacher} one of the firm of Sillick Bros. 297 Broadway at N. Y. who has had charge since Jan 1. 1892. Have a Sunday School (105 pupils last Sunday) and at the time above mentioned a U.S. Flag.

is to be presented to the School. We have a piano organ and an orchestra will assist on that evening. It is a hard field to work (Coney Island) but the Lord has been with us the last year and we thought the occasion might be used to open the doors of the hearts of the people and plant seed that will grow to bless the nation - We can promise you a house full of earnest hearers and you might think it a good opportunity to do some work for our Master (a little extra overtime) I am Superintendent of the S. S and Deacon in the Church our pastor and Commander Scott and General Stocum join in the invitation. 'Tis a good fighting chance for a victory and this is all that we ask for. Access is convenient. The 5th Ave Elevated RR takes you to Culver RR. (36th St) and the train lands you at Coney Island 400 feet from the Church.

I hope you will come.
