General O. O. Howard

Dear Sir;

When Col. Hughes was here inspecting the post and school, he advised me to attempt to obtain the detail at Cornell University, which is open this Fall, as he thought it would be an excellent thing for me to go there just after graduating from here, there being excellent opportunities for continuing certain studies taught here, especially Electricity and Chemistry. I had never thought of trying for such a detail, but he spoke so encouragingly regarding it that I wrote to Cornell to find out if they had decided upon any officer to succeed the one now there. I received a letter from the President of the University this morning saying they had not, and that they would be very glad to receive any testimonials I might wish to submit to them.

I do not know whether or not you have seen or known enough of me to enable you to form an opinion as to my fitness to fill such a detail satisfactorily.

If you should hold a favorable opinion of my ability to do so, and would give me a few words saying so, I should be very grateful to you, and think it would go far towards securing the detail for me.
I have not yet put in my official application to the War Department but shall do so as soon as I receive answers to one or two letters I have written. Colonel Hughes said

Dear Howard

Dear Sir

I have been a patron of old Berea College for some years and still feel a deep interest in its prosperity And am sorry that sectarianism is making so much trouble just now. Father Fa ought to have peace in his day as Hickok wanted, I thought him rather selfish. I am a member of a Congregational church I have not any conflict with the Baptists except their close communion. I was out to Palestine I would be immersed in it.

Nichols A.P.

I have no doubt about his being immersed, ^{but} the Emmett might or might not have been. Will you well have great influence in calming matters at Berea and hope you will labour to have Mr Fee retain his connec-tion and feel that he is the father of old Berea still.

Since writing the within I have a letter from Rev P Fairchild containing a circular with your name among in the interests of Berea College. I love Father Fee for his fidelity to God and harmony and I love Gut Howard too for the same reason.

Major General O. O. Howard U.S.A.
Governor's Island N. Y.

My dear Sir.

I have heard your illustrious name associated with the bearing of the Standard of our Prohibition Party in the coming great presidential campaign. I can only say, that if it can be made a fact, it will truly prove a great and ideal nomination with which to marshal our moral hosts. Such a nomination must give the Prohibition agitation such a tremendous impulse forward, that the ponderous, useless and immoral party machines, that now block the progress of all the great moral movements, notably ours, must yield the King's highway to a greater and a better. This prospect just delights me. I simply mentioned the matter to two of my bright young Christian associates and leaders in this moral conflict here in Mass., and their eyes just moistened and glistened with such a prospect. We are looking forward to the man that God in his providence is going to raise up for us. Our party must have in the coming national struggle just such a name around which to rally the Christian hosts in this great moral conflict which High Heaven intrusts to us. "The Saloon must go!" My dear Brother in Christ your name is a household treasure in every Christian home. Your physical daring and moral bravery throughout the late war has immortalized your name on the escutcheon of our Country's history, and crowned it in the affections that thrill every patriot's breast. Your brave espousal of the great moral questions that have challenged your attention proves you to be brimming full of that moral courage that we so sadly miss in our modern statesmen, many of them great and good men too. It is so much easier to float with the crowd into power than it is to stem the tide in these testing days of Christian manhood and citizenship that the supremest need of our day and generation is for moral heroes. We need them. We must have them before we can cope with the giant evils that threaten our dear Country's existence. I am satisfied from your record without any pledges from you, where you stand in this great conflict we wage. I know that your antagonism to the saloon, the distillery & the brewery must be deadly and uncompromising. Licensing sin, is sin. What a magnificent issue God calls upon us to settle! The subject ^{of the} of the two great political parties in the face insolent demands of the Rum and Beer Oligarchy creates a place for us in the National & State politics. What does our issue mean? Nothing less than the salvation to our people of more than two billion of comfort purchasing hard-earned dollars that are now worse than wasted for rum which destroys both body and soul in hell, and the redemption of our land from its fearful record of vice, pauperism, crime, and misery. These two great moral and economic considerations surely must dignify & magnify our movement in the conscience and judgment of every Christian voter. Now, our great and good people can pass so lightly such tremendous issues is past comprehension. It is only because bitter political partiganship assumes the realm of morals & religion and sways the judgment. In 1888 we massed 25,000 Christian men in battle array under our sainted Leader Gen. Clinton B. Fisk. We ought this year 1892 to rally an extra million for "God & Home & Native Land". Cannot you help us? It is an honor to lead such a host. In the Old Bay State the young men are rallying to our banners. When once convinced that there is hope, they will rally where the path of Christian heroism lays, just as sure as God reigns. My dear Christian Brother if this duty meets you, I beg of you not to dismiss it lightly. Such an act of moral heroism would be only a fitting crown to a sainted and crowded life. Trusting that the choicest of Heaven's blessings, God's Spirit, may rest upon you & yours allow me to remain in solicitude

Yours most sincerely Wm. H. Partidge Chairman.

In five years we have planted six churches on the coast and the paper is the only advocate of the cause we have in the English language West of the Rocky Mountains.
