Beloved Sir & Friends,

As one of the committee above you will be glad to see <sup>the</sup> name of your Brother, & you may well understand what a joy it is to me, to work under his direction, as it was years ago in Iowa, when he turned in Oelias Repids.

Like an old New England County school master I board around, & considerable of the "around" has been with the Filmore household, where I have been refreshed & strengthened. I have intimation of a weekly two-a-bouts, Carnot Island, I have the Commissioning Office for a few days, if so the Colorado Evangelistic Committee will be more than happy to open the door for you to exalt our Adored Emmanuel in this Rocky Mountain City. Mrs Filmore speaks of never having seen you, rest assured you will be helped by her example, as I have been stimulated by yours. Faithfully Yours, K. A. Burnell.

My dear Howard,
You have been informed of course of my election the other day as a Trustee of Bowdoin — I write just a word to say M. I hope by all means you will accept.
This wd. make 3 out of the 13 Trustees members of the "immortal class of '50" — You, & Frye, & I, — while another, Harding, is in the lower Board. I hope you will accept, & come, every Commencement. Chamberlain & Hubbard both said th. you attended the Alumni reunions, & took a deep interest in the College, & they thot you wd. come. You know we always have the "liberal" denom<sup>ies</sup> represented on our Boards — & we want to make sure of a good strong phalanx of sound Evangelical Christians, to run the College in the interests of Kty as well as learning.

I sent you the other day the notice of the death of my bro-in-law Prof. Stearns of this Seminary — an eminent man, & a great loss to the Seminary & the Chh.

I send with this an acct of the final services. —

Mr. Dr. Rowland Johnson well, I shall miss him as a friend. How mysterious it is th. the Lord takes away those active men in the height of their power & then infuses — & just when the Kingdom on earth seems to need them the most. It must be th. He has a larger work for them to do in heaven.

Thanks for yr. letter of the 1st.

Mrs. Eversall joins me in kind remembrances. Hope you have good words for yr. wife & daughter in Europe.

Genl. D. P. Howard,
My dear Sir & Bro.:-

You will remember me, as Pastor, of Grace Methodist-Episcopal Church, of St. Augustine, Florida built by H. M. Flagler. Your address in that church was productive of great good, aside from resulting in the conversion of two of the soldier boys at the garrison.

I, now, am Pastor <sup>here</sup> & have been holding revival meetings with considerable success. There have been several soldiers from the U. S. Post among the converts. Oh! that I had known that you were in this city last sabbath!

An address from you would have been so encouraging; it would have helped the cause of Christ & strengthened the faith of those soldier boys, I referred to. As soon as I read the account of you in Monday's paper I, at once, called at the 'Menger' and was very kindly received by your daughter-in-law, who said I might write you & if you were able to speak for me next Sunday night you could telegraph so that I could give due publicity to it. I hope I may <sup>have</sup> a favorable reply by Friday evening so that it will be noticed in Saturday's <sup>mornings</sup> 'Express' as well as evening.
I would like you

as you <sup>feel</sup> able instead of my sermon. I feel that this change will be so helpful in many ways, and so much interested in the Officers.

Your daughter said that you had a severe cold & that you might not be able to occupy the time I desired. If you cannot, I will preach, leaving you to persuade. Don't say

Dear General:-

Saturday I deposited a check from Mr. Vanderbilt for one hundred dollars, check enclosed in Mr. Colcord's letter. I obtained from Henderson Bro., their bill for transportation from Rome, Italy, amounting to $238.40, and paid it by check against your account at the U. S. The Asst. Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Cresson, with the Collector of the port, Captain Shepard, Chief of the Revenue Marine, and the Surveyor of the port, had two meetings at the Custom House last week, with General Rugles and Col. Bart. After having thoroughly discussed the matter, the light seemed to lay between all the parties above mentioned on one side, and the Commissioner of Immigration, Mr. Weber, on the other. The Collector of the port is very anxious to rid the barge office and slip entirely of any occupancy by the Immigration Bureau. The barge office itself he wants to store and sell seized articles in, and the sides of the slip where the the revenue cutters. The Surveyor showed that the State and City of New York granted this landing to the general government for the uses of the Treasury Department and privileges of landing for the War and Navy Departments. The Governor's Island boat had used this slip a long number of years previous to this grant, but had no expressly granted legal right there.

 The Collector used as an argumant that under the conditions of the grant the property might revert to the State and City if it was continued to be used for the purposes other than those for which it was accepted by the United States. This argument was used entirely against its present use by the Immigration Bureau. General Ruggles and Colonel Barr convinced all these customs officers that ~~the~~ <sup>our</sup> fight was their fight and that united influence should be exerted to oust the Immigration Bureau, and that this being accomplished, all would return to the enjoyment of the rights exercised before the Immigration Commissioners took possession of the barge office. This means that the twenty-five thousand dollar ferry slip built there recently largely for the convenience of the local appointee for the removal of baggage (Barney Riglin) must be pulled up and taken away entirely. General Ruggles and Colonel Barr

The "New York Gazette" has taken upon itself to boom Secretary Tracy as a Presidential candidate, and writes a letter to you for your endorsement of him, saying that your silence will be taken to mean "opposition to him." The letter is in the form of a circular, general in character, and I presume has been sent to a large number of prominent men.
